TUESDAY, 2 AUGUST, 1938

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of July, 1938.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 19th day of May, 1938, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Broadhempston and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Woodland both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Devon and in the Diocese of Exeter:

" Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Exeter, pursuant to the provisions of the said Measures to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Broadhempston and Woodland duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Exeter and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Exeter signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

" And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two

Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

" And whereas the said Benefice of Broadhempston is now full the Reverend Henry Richard Evans being the present Incumbent thereof and the said Benefice of Woodland is at present vacant:

" And whereas the share of the patronage of the United Benefice when the union which is hereinafter recommended and proposed shall take effect which upon a fair and just apportionment would be assignable in respect of the interest of the Patrons of the said Benefice of Woodland would in our opinion be negligible:

" Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consents of the said Charles, Bishop of Exeter, and of the said Henry Richard Evans (testified by their respectively signing this Scheme) do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

" 1. That the said Benefice of Broadhempston and the said Benefice of Woodland shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Broadhempston and Woodland' and that such United Benefice shall be included in and form part of the Rural Deanery of Totnes and that the Parishes of the said Benefices shall also be united into one Parish for ecclesiastical purposes and for such other purposes as in the said Measure provided.

" 2. That the Church of the Parish of Broadhempston shall be the Parish Church of the United Parish and that the Table of Fees for the said Parish of Broadhempston shall (until
