No. 00782 of 1938.

In the Matter of FOSTER PORTER AND COMPANY Limited, and in the Matter of the Companies Act, 1929.

NOTICE is hereby given that a petition was on the 18th day of November 1938 presented to His Majesty's High Court of Justice by the above named Company for the confirmation of an alteration of the Company's objects proposed to be effected by a Special Resolution passed at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company held on the 14th day of November 1938, whereby it was resolved:—
"That the provisions of the Memorandum of Association of the Company with respect to its objects be altered:—

(1) By inserting immediately after sub-clause (2) of Clause 3 thereof the following new sub-clauses, namely:—

(2) (a) To carry on the business of manufacturing, repairing, altering and exchanging, buying, selling, and dealing in all kinds of articles and things usually dealt in by persons carrying on the business of a warehouseman or which can in the opinion of the Company be conveniently or advantageously manufactured, repaired, altered, exchanged, bought, sold or dealt in, in connection with the business of the Company.

(2) (b) To enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such Company, and to sell, hold, re-issue with or without guarantee or otherwise deal with the same and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such firm or Company.

(2) (c) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company and to subsidise or otherwise assist any such company.

(2) (d) To promote any company whose objects shall include the acquisition of all or any of the assets or liabilities of this Company or the promotion of which shall be considered to be calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects of this Company.

(2) (e) To grant pensions or gratuities to any employees or ex-employees or directors or ex-directors of the Company or its predecessors in business or the relations, connections or dependents of any such persons, and to make payments towards insurance, and to establish or support associations, institutions, clubs, funds and trusts, which may be considered calculated to benefit any such persons or otherwise advance the interests of the Company.

(ii) By substituting for the existing sub-clause (3) thereof the following new sub-clauses (3), (3a), (3b) and (3c) namely:—

(3) The acquisition, undertaking and carrying on of the whole or any part of the business, goodwill, property and liabilities of any other person or company carrying on the business of or connected with the business of a warehouseman or any business which the Company is authorised to carry on or possessed of property deemed to be suitable for the purposes of the Company and generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in particular, land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade.

(3a) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any persons.

(3b) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to purchase redeem or pay off any such securities.

(3c) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments.

(iii) By inserting at the end of sub-clause (4) thereof the following words:—

and to sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company."

And notice is further given that the said petition is directed to be heard before the Honourable Mr. Justice Bennett at the Royal Courts of Justice, Strand, London, on Monday, the 5th day of December 1938, when any person or class of persons whose interests will be affected by the proposed alteration desirous of opposing the making of an Order confirming such alteration may appear in person or by Counsel for that purpose.

A copy of the said petition will be furnished to any such person requiring the same by the undersigned.

Dated the 24th day of November 1938.
