Admiralty representative or local naval authority, that submarines, aircraft or raiders are operating, and

DARKENING SHIP ORDER.

In pursuance of Regulation 43 of the Defence Regulations, 1939, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby make the following Order.

1. This Order shall have effect:—

A. In Areas for which Route Instructions are issued and on Routes where a Convoy system is in force, and

B. In Areas and on Routes, other than those above mentioned, whenever information is received from the Admiralty, an

C. In harbours where Air Raid Precautions are in force.

2. Subject to the foregoing limitations no light of any description shall be exposed between sunset and sunrise:—

(a) in any British vessel (not being either a ship of war or a hospital ship or a Dominion ship) or

(b) in any Dominion or foreign vessel (not being either a ship of war or a hospital ship) within the territorial waters of the United Kingdom;

so as to be visible outboard or to reflect upwards.

Provided that this Order shall not apply to such navigation lights as the Admiralty instructions may authorise to be shown at any particular time or in any particular place or circumstances, or to any lights that are necessary for authorised signalling purposes.

3. Any naval officer whom a Senior Naval Officer for or at a port may appoint for the purpose may board any such vessel entering the port to inspect the means provided for screening lights as this Order requires. The Master of such vessel shall give facilities for such inspection and shall, if the inspecting officer so requires, sign a certificate to the effect that adequate means of screening lights are provided on board.

4. This Order shall come into force forthwith and may be cited as the Darkening Ship Order, 1939.

By Command of their Lordships.

R. H. A. Carter.

Admiralty, S.W.I.

By Command of the Lords
Commissioners of the Admiralty.

NAVIGATION AND ANCHOR LIGHTS ORDER.

In pursuance of Regulation 43 of the Defence Regulations, 1939, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby make the following Order:—

1. This Order shall apply to all vessels not being either ships of war or hospital ships, except that it shall not apply to Dominion or foreign vessels outside the territorial waters of the United Kingdom.

2. This Order shall have effect:—

A. In Areas for which Route Instructions are issued and on routes where a Convoy System is in force, and

B. In Areas and on Routes, other than those above-mentioned, whatever information is received from the Admiralty, an Admiralty representative or local naval authority that Submarines, Aircraft or Raiders are operating.

Navigation Lights.

3. Navigation Lights must be dimmed to a visibility not exceeding two miles, except stern lights, the visibility of which is not to exceed one mile.

4. Navigation Lights are only to be exhibited

(a) for avoiding collision, in which case they are to be extinguished as soon as the danger of collision has passed, or

(b) when exceptional circumstances make their use absolutely necessary.

5. They must be so arranged that they can be instantly shown when required to be exhibited.

Masthead Steaming Lights.

6. One Masthead Steaming Light only is to be used, and this light is never to be used unless the Master considers it absolutely necessary.

Side Lights.

7. Oil Side Lamps are only to be exhibited if electric lights are not available.

Stern Lights.

8. Stern Lights are to be electric where electric light is installed, and are to be controlled from the bridge. They are to have their reflectors removed from the lanterns.

9. Stern Lights are only to be exhibited for the purpose of avoiding collision, in which case they are to be extinguished as soon as the danger of collision is passed.

10. Vessels in convoy when ordered to exhibit a Stern Light are to use a light fitted with a shade and mounted so as to cast its light downward on the water only.

Anchor Lights.

11. The visibility of Anchor Lights is not to exceed one mile.

12. All Anchor lanterns are to be fitted with overhead screens, so arranged as to cut off the light at an angle of between 5 and 10 degrees above the horizontal.

General.

13. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Order, the Senior Naval Officer at or the Naval Officer in Charge of any port of the United Kingdom may give instructions either general or special for the showing of such Navigation Anchor or other Lights in waters within the control of the harbour authority, as he may consider necessary for the safety of shipping in such waters.

14. In waters other than those last mentioned, the Senior Naval Officer present on board any of H.M. Ships, or any naval officer appointed for the purpose, may give directions either general or special for the exhibition of any lights he may require to be shown.

15. This Order shall come into force forthwith and may be cited as the Navigation and Anchor Lights Order 1939.

By Command of Their Lordships,

R. H. A. Carter.

FORTH PILOTAGE (EMERGENCY) ORDER, 1939.

In pursuance of the powers conferred on them by Regulation No. 43 of the Defence Regulations, 1939, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby make the following Order:—

1. Pilotage will be compulsory for vessels (save as provided hereunder) navigating in the Firth of Forth westward of the Eastern limit of the Dockyard Port of Rosyth, namely, a line drawn South (true) through the South Point of Carron Harbour (which is situated about 1,200 yards westward from Burntisland) to the South Shore of the Forth.

2. Vessels picking up or landing a pilot at Inchkeith in accordance with this Order shall not be required to pay pilotage rates in respect of the stage from Largo Bay, Methyl Roads or Aberlady Bay to Leith Roads or Burntisland Roads.

3. This Order shall apply to all vessels except H.M. Ships and such other vessels as are granted exemption by the Commanding Officer, Coast of Scotland.

4. This Order shall come into force forthwith and may be cited as the Forth Pilotage (Emergency) Order, 1939.

MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE AND FISHERIES.

LAND DRAINAGE ACT, 1930.

River Nene Catchment Board.North Level Commissioners.

Notice is hereby given that the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries has made an Order under the Land Drainage Act, 1930, confirming the Order made on the 24th July, 1939, in relation to the Scheme prepared by the River Nene Catchment Board, under Section 4 (1) (b) of the Act, providing for the making of alterations in the provisions of the North Level Acts in respect of the appointment and the proceedings of the North Level Commissioners, and for certain matters supplemental thereto.

A copy of the Order may be seen at all reasonable hours at the Office of the Clerk of the Catchment Board, 4, New Street, Oundle, Peterborough, and also at the Offices of the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries, 10, Whitehall Place, London, S.W.1.

By Part III of the Second Schedule to the said Act, it is provided that if any person aggrieved by an Order desires to question its validity on the ground that it is not within the powers of the Act or that any requirement of the Act has not been complied with, he may, within six weeks after the publication of this notice, make an application for the purpose to the High Court, and if any such application is duly made, the Court, if satisfied that the Order is not within the powers of the Act, or that the interests of the applicant have been substantially prejudiced by any requirements of the Act not having been complied with, may quash the Order either generally or in so far as it affects the applicant.

CITY OF SHEFFIELD.

PUBLIC HEALTH (DRAINAGE OF TRADE PREMISES) ACT, 1937.

Byelaws with respect to the Discharge of Trade Effluents into Public Sewers.

NOTICE is hereby given that the City Council of Sheffield intend after the expiration of two months from the publication of this notice to make certain Byelaws under the provisions of the above Act with respect to the discharge of trade effluents into the public sewers of the Council.

The Byelaws will relate to all trade effluents as defined by the said Act. A trade effluent is so defined as any liquid, either with or without particles of matter in suspension therein, which is wholly or in part produced in the course of any trade or industry carried on at trade premises, and, in relation to any trade premises, means any such liquid as aforesaid which is so produced in the course of any trade or industry carried on at those premises, but does not include domestic sewage. Trade premises are defined as any premises used or intended to be used for carrying on any trade or industry.

Copies of the draft Byelaws will be kept at my office at the Town Hall, Sheffield, and will be open to public inspection free of charge on any weekday during the usual office hours. Copies of the draft Byelaws can be obtained from me on payment of a charge of one shilling per copy.

The City Council are prepared to receive and consider any representation with respect to the Byelaws which may be made to them in writing, by or on behalf of owners or occupiers of trade premises within the district of the Council, at any time before the 2nd of November, 1939.
