ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned awards in recognition of gallant and distinguished services rendered in connection with the war:—

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

1. Flying Officer (acting Flight Lieutenant) Thurston Meiggs Wetherall SMITH (39621).
2. Flying Officer (acting Flight Lieutenant) John BARRETT (37341).

Acting Flight Lieutenant SMITH and acting Flight Lieutenant BARRETT were, respectively, in command of the first and second of three flying boats which, having intercepted messages from a torpedoed merchant ship in September, 1939, proceeded to the scene of the sinking ship (some 70 miles from the mainland) to undertake rescue work. A lifeboat was seen in the vicinity containing about 34 men and, as no submarine could be sighted, the first aircraft alighted and took on board 20 of the survivors. A thorough search for enemy submarines was made by the second aircraft which afterwards alighted and, in spite of the heavy swell, took on board the remaining survivors from the lifeboat.

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Medal.

527769 Sergeant William Edward WILLITS.

Sergeant WILLITS was the second pilot and navigator of an aircraft engaged in combat with an enemy flying boat in September, 1939. When, during an attack, the pilot had been shot through the head and had collapsed over the control column, this airman, in spite of the pilot's inertness and the extremely low altitude, succeeded in obtaining control of the aircraft. After the dead pilot had been moved entirely clear of the controls Sergeant WILLITS piloted and navigated the aircraft back to the base, a distance of about 140 miles. The airman's skill and presence of mind undoubtedly saved the aircraft and the lives of the other members of the crew.
