

therein recommended the union of the said three Benefices of Trevalga, Forrabury and Minster only and the terms for effecting the union and the said Bishop of Truro signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said three Benefices which Scheme is based upon the terms recommended in the said Report but with the assent of the said Bishop embodies a modification thereof:

"And whereas the said Benefices are now all full, the Reverend William Samuel Cave Palmer, being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Trevalga and the Reverend Frank Weston holding the said Benefices of Forrabury and Minster in plurality under the authority of a dispensation:

"And whereas the Patronage of each of the said Benefices of Forrabury and Minster belongs to one and the same Patron:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Joseph Wellington, Bishop of Truro, and with the consent of the said Frank Weston (testified by their signing this Scheme) do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Trevalga, the said Benefice of Forrabury and the said Benefice of Minster shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Forrabury and Minster with Trevalga' but that the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue in all respect distinct.

"2. That (a) if upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme all of the said three Benefices shall be vacant or if upon the said day the said Benefice of Trevalga only shall be vacant the union of such three Benefices shall forthwith take effect, but (b) if upon that day the said Benefice of Trevalga is full the said Benefices of Forrabury and Minster shall pending the union of all of the three said Benefices forthwith be united into one Benefice with Cure of Souls, but so that the Parishes of the said Benefices of Forrabury and Minster shall continue in all respects distinct, and the union of all of the three said Benefices shall take effect upon the next avoidance thereafter of the said Benefice of Trevalga.

"3. That upon the union of all of the three said Benefices taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Forrabury shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"4. That after the union referred to in Clause 1 of the Scheme has taken effect the course and succession in which the respective Patrons shall present or nominate to the United Benefice from time to time as the same shall become vacant shall be as follows, that is to say, in every series of three successive turns of presentation or nomination the Patron of the said Benefice of Trevalga shall have the first turn and the Patron of the said Benefices of Forrabury and Minster shall have the second and third turns.

"Provided that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from making any other recommendations and proposals relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the said Measures to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Measures:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Truro has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas no appeal has been made to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measures.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Truro.

Rupert B. Howorth.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 16th day of January, 1940.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 7th and 8th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 94; of the Act of the 13th and 14th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94; of the Act of the 32nd and 33rd years of Her said late Majesty,
