Venice, March 14. N. S.

AN Express arrived here last Sunday from Hungary, and brought the Treaty of Truce with the Turks, which the Senate have Ratified, and sent back to be Exchanged. By this Treaty, the Republick yields the Fortress of Lepanto to the Turks, and is obliged to demolish the Fortress of Prevesa, and the Castle of Romelia. The Isthmus of Corinth is to be the Boundary of the Turkish and Venetian Dominions on the side of the Morea; The Republick keeps the Island and Fortress of St. Maura. The Islands of the Archipelago are to be restored to the Condition they were in before the War, and the Venetians are not to pretend to any Contributions from them; The Republick is to continue in Possession of what they have in Dalmatia, and consequently the Fortresses of Castel-Nevo, Cattaro, Risano, Clin, Sing, and Sclut, together with those of Verga, Duare, and Vergorats, are to remain in the hands of the Venetians. For farther Regulating the Limits, Commissioners are to meet at some convenient Place on the Frontiers of Dalmatia before the 23d day of this Month, and in case the said Commissioners do not agree, the final Decision is to be left to the Emperor, and to the King of England and the States-General as Mediators. For this purpose the Senate have made choice of Signior Giovanni Grimani to be their Commissioner, who is ordered forthwith to repair thither. They have also chosen Signior Giovanni Landò to be their Ambassador to the Port, but 'tis thought he will rather chuse to pay the usual Fine, than accept of so chargeable an Embassy. By some Ships arrived here from Smyrna we have an Account, that the News of the Conclusion of the Peace between the Christians and the Turks was received there with great Joy of the Inhabitants; By this opportunity we have Letters from Andri-nople of the 10th of February, which say, The Grand Signior having the day before received Advice by an Express of the Conclusion of the Peace, he went to the chief Mosque to return publick Thanks for the same, and afterwards the Mufti exhorted the Sultan, the Grand Visier, and other chief Ministers of the Port who were there present, to a strict observance of the said Treaties, lest Heaven should again afflict them with those Calamities they had suffered during the late War, which they so unjustly entred into against the Christians. There were afterwards great Rejoicings at the Grand Signior's Court, and the Sultan intended in few days to return to Constantinople, and to appoint his Ambassadors to the several Princes and States with whom he has made Peace, and to regulate divers other Matters.

Warsaw, March 16. An Express was sent this week to Vienna with some Proposals, touching the Negotiation to be set on foot for adjusting the Affair of Elbing, to which 'tis said the Senate of this Kingdom will in nowise consent, till that Place be delivered into the hands of the Mediators. It's said, that the King of Poland intends to go to Prussia before the Meeting of the General Diet. The Queen's coming hither is now spoke of with much uncertainty, the last Letters from Saxony giving an Account, that she had deferred her Journey for some time longer. The King has lately made the Sieur Oginsky General of his Saxon Forces that are quartered in Lithuania, which has given much Jealousie to those who are in the Interests of General Sapieha.

Vienna, March 12. The Officers of the Emperor's Forces have given in the Lists they were ordered to make of the several Troops under their Command, by which it appears they consist at present in 86000 Effective Men. The Heer Leander, who had the Inspection of the Carriages belonging to the Army, is gone to Hungary with Directions to discharge a great number of Waggoners, Bakers, and others whose Service is unnecessary in time of Peace. The Hungarian Noblemen and Gentlemen, who came to attend the King and Queen of the Romans in their Entry here, have Petitioned the Emperor, that he would cause a Diet to be held at Presbourg of the Estates of that Kingdom, in order to settle divers Matters, which his Imperial Majesty has promised them to do so soon as the Condition of his Affairs will permit, and that he will go thither himself to be present at that Assembly; upon which, they have returned their Thanks to the Emperor, and are gone home very well satisfied. The Repartition of the Winter-Quarters for the Imperial Troops in Hungary, in the settling of which the Emperor's Commissioners met at first with great Difficulties, is now adjusted, to the Satisfaction of the States of that Kingdom. Count Orring is preparing for his Embassy to the Port; He is to carry with him a rich Present of Plate for the Grand Signior. The Count of Volkra, one of the Emperor's Council, is joined in Commission with Count Marsigli, to treat with the Turkish Commissioners about settling the Limits between the two Empires, and they will begin their Journey to Carlowitz about a week hence. The Heer Hop, Envoy from the States-General, has Complimented the King and Queen of the Romans in the Name of the States on their Marriage. The Count of Oxenstern, Ambassador from Sweden, has had Audience of Leave of the Emperor, and is gone to his Government of the Dutchy of Deux-Ponts, leaving his Secretary here till another Minister arrives from Sueden. Our Letters from Peter-Waradin give an Account, that the Venetian Ambassador left that Place on the 7th Instant on his Return hither; And that the Heer Till, Secretary of the Imperial Embassy, arrived the 12th at Salankemen, where he expected the Turkish Secretary, in order to exchange with him the Ratifications of the Treaty of Truce; Count Schick, the Emperor's Second Ambassador at the said Treaty,
