FRIDAY, 26 APRIL, 1940

Westminster, 26th April, 1940.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons, by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring his Royal Assent to the Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and several other Lords therein named, do declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to:—

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

*St. James's Palace, S.W.*1.
26th April, 1940.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the following Awards:—

The Medal of the Military Division of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire, for Meritorious Service:—

No. 1479435 Gunner Hugo O'Hear, Royal Artillery, Territorial Army.

In the course of December, 1939, a gunner, whilst attempting to board a ship tied to Harwich pier, so as to get into the duty boat on the further side, slipped and fell between the pier and the ship, striking his head and becoming unconscious.

Gunner O'Hear jumped into the sea, succeeded in getting hold of the gunner, and, supporting his head above water until a ladder was lowered, assisted in getting him out of the water.

The accident occurring during complete darkness, at a time when the sea was rough and the wind high, Gunner O'Hear undoubtedly saved the man's life.

No. 5337086 Private George Robert Storey, The Royal Berkshire Regiment (Princess Charlotte of Wales's), Territorial Army.

In the course of January, 1940, the "Royal Crown", damaged by enemy bombs and machine gun fire, and containing both ammunition and an enemy bomb which had not exploded, was lying, on fire, on the beach at Covehithe.

After two unsuccessful attempts had been made to get on board, Private Storey volunteered to make a further effort.

Undeterred by the danger, and with the intention of succouring any possible survivors, he climbed up the side of the ship on two ladders lashed together. Thirty-five feet up, one of the ladders broke, but he managed to clutch a block of davit falls, and was hauled up to deck level, by means of a loose rope.

Private Storey then ran through the fire, entered the magazine, which was in danger of being reached by the fire at any moment, searched and found a rope ladder, and then, again braving the flames, lowered the ladder over the side.

By this time the remainder of the party were able to get on board.

Private Storey, a young soldier of 18 months' service, rendered outstanding services, in spite of the imminent danger in which he was placed, with coolness and determination.

Air Ministry,
26th April, 1940.

ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned awards for gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Pilot Officer Michael Giles HOMER (33409).

In April, 1940, this officer was pilot of an aircraft carrying out a high-level bombing attack on two enemy cruisers anchored in Christiansand Bay. In the face of intense anti-aircraft fire and attacks by enemy fighters, he successfully pressed home his bombing attack and his air gunner shot down an enemy fighter which burst into flames and crashed into the sea. Although his aircraft had been damaged he skilfully piloted it back to his base, which necessitated a sea crossing of more than 400 miles.

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Medal.

508952 Flight Sergeant Gordon Allen POWELL.

During April, 1940, Flight Sergeant Powell was captain of an aircraft, taking part in a low-flying attack on Stavanger aerodrome, which was pressed home with the greatest determination in the face of intense anti-aircraft and machine-gun fire. His aircraft received three direct hits, the first of which wounded him in the shoulder and left side and also severely damaged the aircraft. Immediately he was hit Flight Sergeant Powell dived near to the ground and made his escape to sea. Despite his wounds and loss of blood and the difficulty of controlling his damaged aircraft he succeeded in reaching his home base, a distance of 370 miles, in extremely bad weather at night. His gallantry and devotion to duty were outstanding.

549581 Corporal John WALLACE.

In April, 1940, Corporal Wallace was wireless operator and air gunner of an aircraft engaged in the bombing of two enemy cruisers in Christiansand Bay, when an attack was made by nine enemy aircraft. He displayed the greatest gallantry and coolness in the face of repeated attacks by superior numbers and shot down one Messerschmitt fighter into the sea. Under wireless instructions from the formation leader his aircraft then escorted another, which had been disabled, until the latter was forced to alight on the sea, but by Corporal Wallace's accuracy in giving its position a vessel was enabled to reach the scene.

621062 Acting Corporal Albert Douglas COLDICOTT.

In April, 1940, this airman was wireless operator and air gunner of an aircraft, piloted by Pilot Officer M. G. Homer, which attacked two enemy cruisers in Christiansand Bay. During the engagement with enemy fighters Corporal Coldicott shot one down which burst into flames and crashed into the sea. His own aircraft had been damaged, but by obtaining accurate bearings under difficult and harassing conditions he enabled his pilot to navigate the aircraft sucessfully to its home base.
