ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Gareth Thomas Butler CLAYTON (37624).

In April, 1940, this officer was the leader of a sub-formation undertaking bombing operations against Stavanger aerodrome. He pressed home his attack at a low altitude in the face of heavy anti-aircraft fire and attacks by enemy fighters and succeeded in dropping his bombs among a number of German aircraft. On the return flight he was attacked by a Messerschmitt fighter for sixty-five minutes and it was only by his determination, skill and courage that he managed to bring his aircraft safely to his base. Flight Lieutenant Clayton has done magnificent work since the outbreak of the war and his leadership and courage have always been of the highest order.

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Medal.

532424 Corporal Leonard YEOMANS.

In April, 1940, this airman was air gunner of an aircraft engaged in bombing operations against Stavanger aerodrome. On the return flight his aircraft was attacked for sixty-five minutes by Messerschmitt fighters but by his skill in the handling of his gun and his accurate instructions to the pilot when to take avoiding action, he was to a great extent responsible for the safe return of his aircraft. Throughout the combat Corporal Yeomans showed great coolness and courage.

643912 Aircraftman, 2nd class, John Richard MAYOR.

In April, 1940, this airman was air gunner in one of a formation of three aircraft attacked by Messerschmitt fighters. As a result of his accurate fire he disabled one of the engines of an enemy fighter and undoubtedly saved his aircraft from being shot down. In the course of the engagement his aircraft was struck many times and although his turret was put out of action, he succeeded in firing a further burst at the enemy. This was Aircraftman Mayor's first occasion in action but he operated his gun with very great skill and showed determination, coolness and courage of the highest order.
