BY THE KING.

A PROCLAMATION DIRECTING THAT CERTAIN BRITISH SUBJECTS SHALL BECOME LIABLE UNDER THE NATIONAL SERVICE (ARMED FORCES) ACT, 1939, TO BE CALLED UP FOR SERVICE IN THE ARMED FORCES OF THE CROWN.

GEORGE R.I.

Whereas by the National Service (Armed Forces) Act, 1939 (2 and 3 Geo. 6. c. 81) it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Us by Proclamation to direct that, save as therein otherwise provided, all Our male subjects who at the date of Our Proclamation have attained such age, not being less than eighteen years, as We may specify by such Proclamation and have not attained such greater age, not being more than forty-one years, as We may so specify, and who at the date of Our Proclamation are within Great Britain, or not having been in Great Britain on that date subsequently enter it, shall, on the date of Our Proclamation or on the date on which they first enter Great Britain after the date of Our Proclamation as the case may be, become liable under the said Act to be called up for service in Our Armed Forces:

And whereas it is further enacted by the said Act that no person shall be liable thereunder to be called up for service who—

(a) is a person not ordinarily resident in Great Britain who is, under the provisions of any Act in force in any part of Our dominions outside Great Britain, a national or a citizen of that part within the meaning of that Act, or is a person born or domiciled in any such part of Our dominions or in a British protectorate, a mandated territory, or any other country or territory being a country or territory under Our protection or suzerainty; or

(b) is a person employed in the service of the Government of a part of Our dominions outside Great Britain, or in the service of the Government of a British protectorate, a mandated territory or some other country or territory which is under Our protection or suzerainty, being a person whose presence in Great Britain is occasioned solely by his employment in that service; or

(c) is a member of any of Our Armed Forces; or

(d) is undergoing training as a cadet at the Royal Military Academy, the Royal Military College, or the Royal Air Force College; or

(e) is a man in holy orders or a regular minister of any religious denomination; or

(f) is the subject of an order or inquisition under the Lunacy and Mental Treatment Acts, 1890 to 1930, or is being detained in pursuance of section twenty-five of the Lunacy Act, 1890, or as a criminal lunatic or in pursuance of an order made under the Criminal Lunatics Act, 1884, or is undergoing treatment as a temporary patient under section five of the Mental Treatment Act, 1930, or is a person placed in an institution or a certified house, or under guardianship, under section three of the Mental Deficiency Act, 1913, or is the subject of an order under section six, eight, or nine of that Act, or is under supervision provided under paragraph (b) of section thirty of that Act or is an inmate of a home approved under section fifty of that Act, or is the subject of a notification under subsection (2) of section fifty-one of that Act; or

(g) is the subject of an order or warrant for his detention or custody under the Lunacy (Scotland) Acts, 1857 to 1919, or is being entertained and kept in an asylum in pursuance of section fifteen of the Lunacy (Scotland) Act, 1866, or is a person for whose safe custody during Our pleasure We are authorised to give order or is a prisoner whom the Secretary of State or the Prisons Department for Scotland has, in pursuance of any Act, directed to be removed to a criminal lunatic asylum or to the criminal lunatic department of Perth prison or to an asylum, or is a person placed in an institution or a certified house or under guardianship under section four of the Mental Deficiency and Lunacy (Scotland) Act, 1913, or is the subject of an order under section seven, nine, or ten of that Act; or

(h) is certified by a local authority, as defined by the Blind Persons Acts, 1920 and 1938, to be registered as a blind person under arrangements made by the authority under those Acts.

And whereas it is also enacted by the said Act that any person who at the commencement of that Act was registered under the Military Training Act, 1939, or who was required to be so registered at any time before the commencement of the National Service (Armed Forces) Act, 1939, shall be liable to be called up for service under the last mentioned Act notwithstanding that he may not be so liable by virtue of any Proclamation made under that Act:

And whereas by Our Proclamations dated the first day of October, 1939, the first day of December, 1939, and the first day of January, 1940, We did in pursuance of the said Act direct, declare and proclaim that certain of Our male subjects therein mentioned were liable under the said Act to be called up for service in Our Armed Forces:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the twenty-seventh day of October, 1939, and made under the powers conferred by section twenty-three of the said Act, the provisions of the said Act were, subject to the modifications and adaptations therein specified, extended to the Isle of Man:

Now, therefore, We do in pursuance of the said Act hereby direct, declare and proclaim that with the exceptions hereinbefore mentioned all Our male subjects who on the date of this Our Proclamation shall have attained the age of nineteen years and shall not have attained the age of thirty-seven years and who are at the date of this Our Proclamation within Great Britain, or who not having been in Great Britain at that date subsequently enter it, are, on the date hereof or on the date on which they first subsequently enter Great Britain after the date hereof, by this Our Proclamation liable under the said Act to be called up for service in Our Armed Forces.

And We do hereby declare that in this Proclamation the expression "Great Britain" includes the Isle of Man.

And We do hereby order Our Minister of Labour and National Service and Our Lieutenant Governor of the Isle of Man to give all necessary directions herein accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace this Ninth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty and in the Fourth year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of May, 1940.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 26th day of April, 1940 (C.W. 14403/39), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas owing to the high importance of the appointments of Commodores of Royal Naval Barracks, only senior Captains are appointed as such, and it is therefore always likely that such Officers may reach Flag rank before the completion of the term of their appointments:

"And whereas it is of great advantage to maintain continuity by retaining such Officers in their posts until they are actually required for appointment as Flag Officers:

"And whereas owing to the requirements of the naval disciplinary system it is not possible to re-appoint such Commodores as Rear-Admirals on promotion:

"And whereas we consider that Commodores of Royal Naval Barracks promoted to Rear Admiral should continue to serve as Commodores but receive pay as Rear Admirals together with Table Money of 15s. a day:

"And whereas we also consider that in the event of a Commodore of Royal Naval Barracks promoted to the rank of Captain before the 7th October, 1931, being placed on the retired list on promotion to Rear Admiral during the next few years, he should similarly receive pay as a Rear Admiral and Table Money as proposed for an Officer remaining on the active list:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction such revised emoluments with effect from the 1st August, 1938.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 27th day of April, 1940 (C.W. 25933/39), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council bearing date the 20th day of December, 1934, Regulations were sanctioned governing the emoluments of Officers on the Retired and Emergency Lists of the Royal Navy and Royal Marines when called out or retained for service in time of war or emergency:

"And whereas we consider that the provisions contained in Section I, Clause (d) and Section III, Clause (g) of the Schedule to that Order in Council require amendment:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the cancellation of the aforesaid Clauses and the substitution thereof of Regulations in the terms following:—

"Section I—Clause (d).

An Officer eligible for full pay and bonus under Clauses (a) and (b) may elect to receive a rate of pay equivalent to the rate of retired pay which is suspended, increased by 25 per cent. thereof, if more to his advantage. Where any part of the retired pay has been commuted, the rate of pay to be equivalent to the rate of retired pay suspended, increased by 25 per cent. of the rate of retired pay which would have been suspended had there been no commutation:

"Section III—Clause (g).

An Officer to be eligible to receive a rate of pay equivalent to the rate of service retired pay (or the service element of disability retired pay or pension) which is suspended, increased by 25 per cent. thereof, as provided in Section I, Clause (d), if more to his advantage than the emoluments otherwise payable under these Regulations.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

"And whereas by Order in Council dated the 21st day of March, 1929, sanction was given to certain regulations concerning the appointment of an Officer from the Retired List of Engineer Officers of Your Majesty's Navy as Chief Mechanical Officer of the mechanical transport allocated to Your Majesty's Corps of Royal Marines:

"And whereas these Regulations provided for payment of full pay at the rate laid down for a Major, Royal Marines, of nine years' seniority, together with bonus of 15 per cent. in lieu of counting re-employed service for increase of retired pay:

"And whereas Engineer Captain E. C. Green, D.S.O., R.N. (Retired), has rendered valuable service whilst holding this appointment since its institution:

“And whereas we consider it desirable to extend payment of this allowance to the rating employed as Captain's Writer in those Destroyers and Sloops, lately styled Escort Vessels, which are independent commands and whose authorised complements are not less than 90 :

“And whereas we also consider that payment of the allowance should be authorised, at our discretion, to the rating similarly employed in such other ships and vessels in which we may deem the amount of clerical work involved to be commensurate with that in the aforementioned Escort Vessels.

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by Your Order in Council, to sanction payment accordingly with effect from the 11th April, 1940.

Rupert B. Howorth.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of May, 1940.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of April, 1940, in the words and figures following, that is to say :—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called ‘the said Benefice’) of Penton Mewsey, in the County of Southampton and in the Diocese of Winchester :

“Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Penton Mewsey is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in Edward John Bradshaw Downing Beaumont Nesbitt, Esquire, and Frederick George Beaumont Nesbitt, a Major-General in His Majesty's Army, both of Penton Lodge, Andover, in the County of Southampton, as joint tenants :

“And whereas the said Edward John Bradshaw Downing Beaumont Nesbitt and the said Frederick George Beaumont Nesbitt are desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Penton Mewsey now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Winchester for the time being :

“And whereas the Right Reverend Cyril, now Bishop of Winchester, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Cyril, Bishop of Winchester, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned :

“And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Penton Mewsey which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Penton Mewsey :

“Now, therefore, with the consents of the said Edward John Bradshaw Downing Beaumont Nesbitt and of the said Frederick George Beaumont Nesbitt (in testimony whereof they have signed and sealed this Scheme) and with the consent of the said Cyril, Bishop of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Penton Mewsey now vested in them, the said Edward John Bradshaw Downing Beaumont Nesbitt and Frederick George Beaumont Nesbitt as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Cyril, Bishop of Winchester, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Cyril, Bishop of Winchester, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by, and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Winchester.

ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Awarded the Distinguished Service Order.

Squadron Leader John William DONALDSON (32074).

This officer commanded a squadron during the operations at Aandalsnes. In spite of the great difficulties encountered, numerous successful attacks on enemy aircraft were carried out under the skilful and extremely courageous leadership of Squadron Leader Donaldson. On one day alone the squadron is thought to have accounted for fourteen enemy aircraft, six being shot down and eight others put out of action.

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flight Lieutenant Randolph Stuart MILLS (36067).

This officer was one of the Flight Commanders of a squadron whilst in Norway. During an enemy bombing attack he remained in his cockpit and started his engine, taking off under machine gun fire. He assisted in destroying one Heinkel III aircraft and attacked eight other aircraft of that type and three Junkers 88. He also carried out a successful forced landing when enemy shots had removed one aircraft cylinder and starboard inner-plane strut.

Pilot Officer Sidney Robert McNAMARA (41599).

This officer led a successful attack on an enemy Heinkel III aircraft and showed great determination and courage in pressing his attacks. After landing from this engagement he also displayed bravery during an enemy bombing attack by remaining in his cockpit to start his engine and taking off under machine gun fire.

Pilot Officer Philip Hannah PURDY (41738).

This officer led a successful attack against enemy Heinkel III aircraft. He also showed bravery in remaining in his cockpit whilst subjected to a bombing attack by three enemy aircraft, and only abandoned his aircraft when it was set on fire by a bomb bursting nearby. He received serious burns but insisted on helping to start two other aircraft in the face of enemy machine gun fire.

Awarded the Military Medal.

565278 Sergeant Ernest Frederick William RUSSELL.

This airman pilot displayed much courage and devotion to duty during operations in Norway. Much of his work was on rearming the squadron aircraft and was performed whilst subject to enemy bombing and machine gun fire.
