Air Ministry,

ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the undermentioned awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Squadron Leader James Horatio Gratwick SARLL (32252).

During a night in May, 1940, this officer, as captain of an aircraft, displayed skill and tenacity in pressing home a bombing attack on the bridges at Maastricht. A direct hit was observed on a bridge, and it was subsequently confirmed that the bridge was destroyed. Squadron Leader Sarll has taken a leading part in several recent operations of his unit and has consistently shown determination.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Herbert Douglas Haig COOPER (39499).

In May, 1940, this officer led a formation of aircraft ordered to undertake bombing operations against Maastricht. In spite of heavy gun-fire in the neighbourhood, the attack was pressed home successfully, the road and railway bridges being heavily bombed. Valuable photographs were also obtained which indicated the location of pontoon bridges and the movement of enemy columns.

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Medal.

563380 Sergeant John Stewart ROBERTSON.

This airman was the observer in one of a formation of aircraft which undertook bombing operations against Maastricht in May, 1940. By displaying great coolness in the face of heavy anti-aircraft fire he obtained most valuable photographs which showed the destruction of two bridges, and indicated clearly the route being taken by the enemy through the town and the points at which they were crossing the river by pontoon bridges.
