Air Ministry,

ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the undermentioned awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Squadron Leader The Honourable Maxwell AITKEN (90128), Auxiliary Air Force.

In May, 1940, whilst leading a section of aircraft on patrol over Brussels, this officer attacked one of twelve Heinkel III's which was finally seen to be losing height with one of its wings on fire with black smoke pouring from the other. The next day when leading his section on another patrol, a large number of Heinkel III and Junkers 87 aircraft, escorted by Messerschmitt 110's, were sighted. Squadron Leader Aitken attacked and succeeded in destroying one Heinkel and one Junkers aircraft. During a night in June, 1940, in difficult circumstances, he destroyed yet another enemy aircraft. He has displayed great dash and gallantry.

Awarded the Distinguished Flying Medal.

562984 Flight Sergeant William Henry FRANKLIN.

During a period of six days in May, 1940, Flight Sergeant Franklin took part in numerous offensive patrols over Northern France and on eight occasions was in combat with the enemy. He has himself shot down one Junkers and two Messerschmitt aircraft and in company with his section he has destroyed three other enemy aircraft. One day in June, 1940, in company with his squadron, Flight Sergeant Franklin engaged fifteen to twenty Messerschmitt 109's and destroyed two. Throughout these engagements he has shown great skill, courage and determination in pressing home his attacks. On one occasion he chased an enemy aircraft more than 20 miles, almost at ground level, before destroying it.
