

Church or Chapel or Churches or Chapels within the Diocese of London which the Bishop may select or shall be sold and in such case the proceeds shall be added to the fund arising from the sale of the site and materials of Christ Church, Notting Hill, as aforesaid.

“(d) That in the event of the services of any Church Officers and servants of Christ Church, Notting Hill, being dispensed with by reason of the union taking effect such Church officers and servants shall out of any moneys to be received by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under the provisions of this Clause receive such reasonable compensation as having regard to age, length of service and other circumstances of the case shall seem to us and to the Bishop of London equitable and proper. Provided always that it shall be lawful for us if we shall see fit so to do in all or any of these cases to advance the compensation money or any part thereof out of the said Expenses Fund.

“8. That with the consent of the Reverend George Ferdinand Cecil Bond, being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Notting Hill, Saint Columb (testified by his signing this Scheme), upon the union taking effect there shall be transferred and annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the Parish of the said Benefice of Notting Hill, Saint Columb, (a) all that part of the Parish of the said Benefice of Notting Hill, Christ Church, which lies to the south east of the middle of Golborn Road, and (b) all that part of the Parish of the said Benefice of Notting Hill, Saint Michael and All Angels, which lies to the south of an imaginary line commencing at the junction of Ladbrooke Grove with Oxford Gardens and extending thence eastwards along the middle of Oxford Gardens to a point opposite to the northern end of the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the house and premises known as No. 51, Oxford Gardens, and extending thence southwards to and along such wall or fence to its southern end and extending thence eastwards along the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of the houses and premises known successively as Nos. 51 to 1 Oxford Gardens to the eastern end of the lastly mentioned wall or fence and extending thence northwards along the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the house and premises known as No. 51, Oxford Gardens, to its northern end and extending thence first northwards to and then eastwards along the middle of Oxford Gardens to its junction with Portobello Road.

“9. That with the consent of the said Geoffrey Francis, Bishop of London (testified as aforesaid) upon the day of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme the patronage of the said Benefice of Notting Hill, Christ Church, shall be surrendered in favour of the Patrons of the Benefice of Notting Hill, Saint Michael and All Angels, and upon the union taking effect the patronage of the United Benefice shall belong wholly to the Patrons of the said Benefice of Notting Hill, Saint Michael and All Angels.

“Provided always that the provisions herein contained relating to the sale and disposal of Christ Church, Notting Hill, shall not take effect until the consents and approval which by the said Measures are made requisite to the sale under the powers conferred by those Measures of the site of any Church shall be obtained to the sale and disposal hereby proposed of Christ Church, Notting Hill, and of the site thereof together with any ground annexed or belonging thereto.

“And provided further that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from making any other recommendations and proposals relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament.”

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the said Measures to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Measures:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make certain alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of London has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the space of two calendar months:

And whereas no appeal has been proceeded with to His Majesty in Council within the period of one month after the date of the said public notice in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures against the said Scheme or any part thereof by any person who has made objection as aforesaid to the said draft Scheme:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measures.

And His Majesty by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.
