ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Acting Squadron Leader Charles Patrick GREEN (90134), Auxiliary Air Force, No. 91 Squadron.

This officer has shown marked powers of command, organisation and initiative. He has personally led a great number of sorties and, on several occasions, his fine fighting spirit has led to the destruction of the enemy. He has personally destroyed at least two enemy aircraft and his devotion to duty has contributed largely to the outstanding success of his squadron.

Pilot Officer Raymond Alexander ESLER (85012), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 149 Squadron.

One night in March, 1941, this officer was the observer of an aircraft detailed to attack the German cruisers Scharnhorst and Gneisenau in the harbour at Brest. In view of the extreme darkness he was not able clearly to identify the ships although he could pick out the position where they were reported to be. After searching for some time, in the face of intense anti-aircraft and searchlight activity, he directed his pilot to run in at 8,500 feet from which height he dropped a stick of bombs and made a reconnaissance. Determined to obtain proof that the ships were there, this operation was repeated twice from altitudes of 8,500 and 7,000 feet and this proof was obtained. On other occasions this officer obtained first class bombing results on Venice, Cologne, Bremen and Wilhelmshaven. The success of these missions was due to his great coolness, perseverance and courage.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flying Officer Frederick Desmond HUGHES (74706), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 264 Squadron.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

967911 Sergeant Fred GASH, No. 264 Squadron.

Flying Officer Hughes and Sergeant Gash as pilot and air gunner respectively have participated in numerous engagements against the enemy, both by day and night. During these flights four enemy aircraft have been destroyed, of which two were shot down at night.
