*Whitehall, S.W.1.
2nd September, 1941.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following Appointment to the Distinguished Service Order, and to approve the following Awards:

The Albert Medal.

Ordinary Seaman Albert Howarth, D/JX.229949, H.M.S. Foresight, who was one of a boat's crew sent to board a burning and abandoned Merchantman. The Merchantman blew up as they drew near her, throwing the boat's crew into the water. Ordinary Seaman Howarth saw near him a Stoker who was badly shaken, so he held him up for ten minutes until a lifebelt was thrown to him. This he put round the Stoker, and before being hauled on board his ship, made sure that his shipmate was safe. When he himself reached the deck, after nearly half an hour in the water, it was seen that his right foot had been blown off.

For skill and enterprise in successful submarine patrols:

To be a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order:

Lieutenant - Commander Malcolm David Wanklyn, Royal Navy, H.M.S. Upholder.
