

said Act, and paragraph 1 of the 8th Schedule to the same Act shall be severed or diverted from the said benefice of Bergh Apton with Holverstone and from the united benefice and the sum of £6,666 13s. 4d. £3 per cent. Redemption Stock 1986-96 issued, or to be issued, to Queen Anne's Bounty pursuant to the provisions of Part II of the said 3rd Schedule and representing the said capital sum of £6,666 13s. 4d. shall be severed and diverted from the general corporate account of Queen Anne's Bounty and shall be transferred to, and become vested in us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners as part of our Common Fund, to the intent that a grant at the rate of £200 per annum shall thereupon be made by us out of the said Common Fund to the said united benefice such grant to continue in force only so long as the said parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Bergh Apton with Holverstone shall be the parsonage house of the united benefice and that when in the opinion of the Bishop of Norwich and of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners it shall be desirable that the said house be sold or otherwise disposed of and a smaller house provided for the said united benefice the said grant of £200 per annum shall be withdrawn from a date to be determined by the said Bishop and by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and a grant or grants amounting to £200 per annum shall be made in lieu thereof to another benefice or other benefices in the said diocese of Norwich: Provided that during the subsistence of any pension charge placed upon the revenues of the united benefice as a consequence of the retirement of the Reverend Alexander St. John Heard from the benefice of Bergh Apton with Holverstone the said grant of £200 per annum shall not be wholly withdrawn but the sum to be withdrawn and re-granted as aforesaid shall be abated by the amount of such pension charge.

"5. Patronage.—After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the said benefice of Bergh Apton with Holverstone having the first presentation to be made after the union."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 to 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

Rupert B. Howorth.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 10th day of October, 1941.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 7th and 8th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 94; of the Act of the 13th and 14th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94; and of the Act of the 32nd and 33rd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme or Representation, bearing date the 18th day of September, 1941, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting under the provisions of the Act of the 7th and 8th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 94; of the Act of the 13th and 14th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94; and of the Act of the 32nd and 33rd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme or Representation for altering the boundaries of the New Parish of Christ Church, Cobridge, in the County of Stafford and in the Diocese of Lichfield:

"Whereas it has been represented to us and it appears to us to be expedient that the boundaries of the said New Parish of Christ Church, Cobridge, should be altered by the restoration to the Parish of Burslem, in the said County and Diocese, of the portion of that New Parish which is hereinafter mentioned:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Sydney, Bishop of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme or Representation) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent recommend and propose that from and after the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or Representation and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order there shall be restored to the said Parish of Burslem that portion of the said New Parish of Christ Church, Cobridge, which is delineated upon the map or plan hereunto annexed and which is bounded upon the north by the said Parish of Burslem and upon the remaining sides by an imaginary line commencing at the junction of Flint Street and Elder Road where the boundaries of the said Parish of Burslem, of the said New Parish of Christ Church, Cobridge, and of the New Parish of Holy Trinity, Sneyd in the said County and Diocese, all meet, and extending thence southward along the middle of Elder Road for a distance of 6½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Elm Street and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Elm Street for a distance of 11 chains or thereabouts to its junction with Waterloo Road, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of Waterloo Road for a distance of 4½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with Bursley Road, and extending thence south-westward along the middle of Bursley Road for a distance of 3½ chains or thereabouts to a point opposite the north-western end of the wall or fence forming the south-western boundary of the houses and premises situate on the south-western side of Waterloo Road and extending thence south-eastward along the said wall or fence for a distance of 1½ chains or thereabouts to its junction with the wall or fence forming the south-eastern boundary of the houses and premises situate on the south-eastern side of Bursley Road and extending thence first south-westward and then north-westward along the
