ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Squadron Leader John DARWEN (33237),
No. 152 Squadron.

This officer has led his squadron, and sometimes a wing, on numerous sorties against enemy ports, industrial centres and shipping. Throughout these operations, which have called for a high degree of skill and determination, Squadron Leader Darwen has displayed courageous leadership and he has undoubtedly contributed materially to the successes achieved. He has destroyed 1 and damaged 4 hostile aircraft.

Acting Squadron Leader Cyril Norman Stanley CAMPBELL (44879), No. 72 Squadron.

This officer has participated in operational flying since the war began. He took part in air operations in France from September, 1939, to May, 1940. Since his return to this country, Squadron Leader Campbell has performed excellent work both in operational flying and as an instructor. He has led the squadron on several sorties and his excellent leadership and initiative displayed on all occasions has contributed materially to the successes achieved. He has also performed valuable work in connection with rescuing pilots from the sea, often remaining on patrol in the vicinity despite the presence of enemy fighters. Squadron Leader Campbell has destroyed 1 enemy fighter and probably destroyed another.

Acting Flight Lieutenant David William MCCORMACK (Aus.400232), Royal Australian Air Force, No. 615 Squadron.

This officer has carried out a large number of operational sorties, many of which have been low level attacks on objectives in Belgium and Northern France. He has at all times displayed the greatest determination in the face of enemy fire, pressing home his attacks to the utmost. On one occasion, although wounded by enemy fire, Flight Lieutenant McCormack descended to almost ground level to achieve success. He has set an inspiring example to all.

Pilot Officer Francis Howard WILLIAMS (101488), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 152 Squadron.

This officer has participated in numerous escorts to bomber formations which have attacked enemy shipping and important land targets. These operations include 3 daylight raids on Brest and low level attacks on Rotterdam, Ymuiden and Alkmaar. Throughout, Pilot Officer Williams has shown great leadership, courage and devotion to duty.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

1162053 Sergeant Arthur Charles SPENCER, No. 101 Squadron.

One night in January, 1942, this airman was the navigator/bomb aimer of an aircraft which successfully attacked Hamburg. Bombs were released over the target but the aircraft was hit by enemy fire and Sergeant Spencer received a wound in the left thigh. Although in great pain, he continued his navigational duties; he also set down courses for use in case he collapsed. When it was found that all the bombs had not been released, he dragged himself to the bomb aimer's position and jettisoned the remaining bombs. Showing great fortitude, Sergeant Spencer then navigated the aircraft safely back to this country.
