*War Damage Commission,
Devonshire House, Mayfair Place,
Piccadilly, London, W.1.*

WAR DAMAGE ACT, 1941.

SECTION 7.

The War Damage Commission hereby give notice that they have, for the purpose of giving effect to directions given by the Treasury under sub-section (1) of section 7 of the War Damage Act, 1941, and under the power conferred upon them by sub-section (2) of the said section, specified the following class of works for making good war damage:—

Works costing more than £100, to be executed for making good war damage sustained by any one hereditament situated within the following area:—

In the County Borough of Canterbury, an area comprising the whole of that part of the County Borough lying between the Ashford and Ramsgate line and the London-Dover line of the Southern Railway.

The War Damage Commission also give notice that they, under the power conferred upon them by the aforementioned sub-section, impose on any person, who proposes to execute for making good war damage any works (other than temporary works) of the above specified class, an obligation to inform the War Damage Commission of the proposal, and thereafter to furnish to them such particulars of the proposed works as they may require in any particular case.

In this notice a "hereditament" means either a hereditament as appearing in the rating valuation list, or, in the case of a hereditament which is exempt from rating and does not appear in that list, the hereditament so exempted, provided that where there is more than one occupation of a single building, the hereditament shall be the building.

F. P. Robinson, Secretary.
