Air Ministry.
24th July, 1942.

ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Bar to Distinguished Service Order.

Acting Wing Commander John CUNNINGHAM, D.S.O., D.F.C. (90216), Auxiliary Air Force, No. 604 Squadron.

A brilliant leader and a relentless pilot of matchless skill, Wing Commander Cunningham has destroyed at least 16 hostile aircraft, many of them at night, as well as damaging several more. One day recently, Wing Commander Cunningham destroyed an enemy aircraft without firing a shot. He achieved his purpose by diving through cloud at great speed and drove the enemy aircraft down to the ground.

Bar to Distinguished Flying Cross.

Acting Wing Commander Robin Peter Reginald POWELL, D.F.C. (33278).

Wing Commander Powell is an excellent leader. His ability and skill have inspired his pilots with confidence and set a high standard of operational efficiency. He has completed many sorties during which he has destroyed 1 and probably destroyed a further 2 enemy aircraft.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Acting Squadron Leader Peter Reginald Whalley WICKHAM (33403), No. 111 Squadron.

This officer is a fine leader and a courageous fighter. Whilst serving in the Middle East he destroyed at least 9 and damaged many other enemy aircraft. Since his return to this country, Squadron Leader Wickham has completed many sorties during which he has displayed fine leadership and a magnificent fighting spirit.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Montague Charles CARRINGTON COTTON (Aus. 407041), Royal Australian Air Force, No. 17 Squadron.

This officer displayed great courage and devotion to duty during the fighting in Burma. On one occasion his aerodrome was attacked by a strong force of Japanese aircraft. Flight Lieutenant Cotton immediately took off and engaged the enemy alone. After shooting down a bomber, his aircraft was attacked by 10 fighters. A burst of fire from one of them punctured both petrol tanks in his aircraft while Flight Lieutenant Cotton's left leg was shattered. Despite this, he succeeded in making a perfect landing on the aerodrome. Earlier the same day this officer distinguished himself during a raid on Moulmein aerodrome by our aircraft.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flight Lieutenant Robert Aubrey YATES-EARL (40163), No. 226 Squadron.
Pilot Officer Kenneth Henry HOUGHTON (121208), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 226 Squadron.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

1250764 Sergeant Edward LEAVER, No. 226 Squadron.

In July, 1942, Flight Lieutenant Yates-Earl, Pilot Officer Houghton and Sergeant Leaver were pilot, navigator and wireless operator/air gunner respectively of the leading aircraft of a section of bombers which carried out a low level attack on the aerodrome at Bergen Alkmaar. The operation, which was executed in daylight without fighter protection or cloud cover, called for high qualities of leadership and resolution. On nearing the target area, whilst flying at a very low level, severe opposition from the enemy's anti-aircraft defences was encountered. His aircraft was hit but, undeterred, Flight Lieutenant Yates-Earl flew on to the target under the able guidance of his navigator. From the lowest possible altitude he enabled his gunner to deliver effective fire at enemy aircraft in dispersal shelters, which were also bombed and set on fire. Shortly after leaving the target Flight Lieutenant Yates-Earl observed an enemy fighter in close pursuit of an aircraft of his section which had been severely damaged and was incapable of increasing its speed. He immediately drew into protective formation and directed Sergeant Leaver to bring his guns to bear in defence of the damaged bomber. A running fight ensued for some 35 miles out to sea. Flight Lieutenant Yates-Earl displayed the highest conception of his duties as a leader, whilst he was most ably supported by Pilot Officer Houghton and Sergeant Leaver both of whom showed gallantry and fortitude.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

1254723 Flight Sergeant Peter Edward George DURNFORD, No. 124 Squadron.

Flight Sergeant Durnford has completed many operational sorties, during which he has destroyed at least 3 enemy aircraft. This airman has at all times displayed great keenness and skill in his engagements with the enemy.

1169226 Flight Sergeant Bernard John HULL, No. 124 Squadron.

This airman has completed many sorties and has destroyed 3 hostile aircraft. His keenness and devotion to duty have been outstanding.

Can/R.67788 Sergeant John Frederick BARRICK, Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 17 Squadron.

During the campaign in Burma, this airman displayed exceptional keenness to engage the enemy. During a raid on Mingaloon, in March, 1942, he destroyed an enemy fighter in the air and probably destroyed another fighter and damaged a bomber on the ground. During an engagement over Loiwing, he shot down an enemy aircraft which was closing in on one of his fellow pilots. Sergeant Barrick himself was attacked by 2 fighters. During the combat his engine failed and he was compelled to make a landing. Although almost blinded by oil he succeeded in his purpose without the assistance of flaps. The enemy continued to fire at him whilst he was on the ground. Although suffering from shrapnel splinters and the effects of hot oil on his face, chest and arms, Sergeant Barrick walked for some 2 hours until he reached some Chinese troops. Throughout, he displayed great courage and fortitude. He has destroyed 5 enemy aircraft.

1256892 Sergeant James Eric WILLIAMS, No. 115 Squadron.

Sergeant Williams was captain of an aircraft detailed to attack Bremen one night in July, 1942. The objective was successfully bombed but, while still over the target area, his aircraft sustained damage. The port engine, hydraulics and flaps were put out of action. Height was lost from 10,000 ft. to 4,000 ft. before Sergeant Williams was able to regain control of the aircraft. Despite all his efforts, height could not be maintained, and in taking the necessary avoiding action from anti-aircraft fire the aircraft had descended to 1,000 ft. In spite of his difficulties Sergeant Williams decided to attempt to reach this country. By superb airmanship he succeeded in regaining his base, whilst flying at only 100 ft., and executed a perfect landing with one engine and without the assistance of flaps. This airman displayed great courage and determination throughout this hazardous experience. He has completed numerous sorties, and has displayed these high qualities throughout.

The KING has also been graciously pleased to give orders for the publication of the name of the undermentioned airman in the London Gazette as having received an expression of Commendation for brave conduct in connection with Civil Defence:—
527647 Flight Sergeant Herbert Peter Boulton BAKER.

*Air Ministry,
