ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Bar to the Distinguished Flying Cross.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Lance WADE, D.F.C. (68717), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 33 Squadron.

Since being awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross this officer has destroyed 7 enemy aircraft thus bring his total victories to 15. In September, 1942, during a reconnaissance patrol his aircraft was attacked by some 8 Italian fighters. Flight Lieutenant Wade, however, fought them off. By his skill and determination he contributed materially to the success of the reconnaissance and much valuable information was obtained. Flight Lieutenant Wade's courage and devotion to duty has been an inspiration to all.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Acting Squadron Leader Charles Alfred COOKE (43634), No. 264 Squadron.

This officer has been engaged on operational flying since the war began and has completed many sorties. He fought in the Battle of Britain and, on one occasion, he participated in an engagement against a very large force of enemy fighters and bombers. During the battle, he probably destroyed several fighters before his own aircraft was so badly damaged that he was forced to leave it by parachute. One night in July, 1942, he skilfully intercepted a Junkers 88 and destroyed it. This officer has always displayed fine fighting qualities.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Frank Everett JONES (Can/J.15327), Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 249 Squadron.

Flight Lieutenant Jones is a vigorous fighter whose fearlessness in the face of odds has set a praiseworthy example. On one occasion in June, 1942, during a convoy escort, when his formation attacked a large enemy force, Flight Lieutenant Jones destroyed a Junkers 88. On another occasion he led his section in an attack against 12 enemy planes heavily escorted by fighters. Diving down amongst the enemy formation he shot down a Messerschmitt 109. Although he was attacked from all sides by many fighters he skilfully frustrated them and, in spite of the damage sustained to his aircraft, he succeeded in leading his section safely to base.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Henry Wallace McLEOD (Can/J.4912), Royal Canadian Air Force.

In September, 1942, this officer participated in an engagement against at least 20 Messerschmitt 109's. Despite the odds, Flight Lieutenant McLeod so skilfully led his section during the combat that the enemy force was completely broken up. This officer has always displayed the greatest determination to engage the enemy and has destroyed at least 5 and damaged a number of other hostile aircraft. His leadership has been most inspiring.

Acting Flight Lieutenant John Beauchamp SELBY (88705), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 73 Squadron.

During an operational mission one night in September, 1942, this officer displayed great devotion to duty. In spite of intense anti-aircraft fire, he flew over an enemy landing ground for more than an hour, interrupting the landing of heavy bombers, some of which he probably destroyed. Flight Lieutenant Selby who is a gallant and determined pilot has destroyed 4 enemy aircraft.

Pilot Officer John Gordon CRESWELL, D.F.M. (126520), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 39 Squadron.

Pilot Officer Creswell is a brilliant navigator. On several occasions when navigating his leader's aircraft, his exceptional skill has contributed greatly to the successes achieved. He is keen and fearless and has always displayed great devotion to duty.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

Aus.404773 Sergeant Garth NEILL, Royal Australian Air Force, No. 3 (R.A.A.F.) Squadron.

In September, 1942, this officer participated in an engagement against a large formation of enemy fighters escorting dive bombers. Diving through the fighters, Sergeant Neill made a head-on attack on a Stuka, destroying it. On regaining height again, through heavy anti-aircraft fire, he attacked a Messerschmitt 109. Following it down to about 20 feet he delivered a few bursts and the enemy aircraft crashed to the ground. In two previous sorties, Sergeant Neill destroyed an enemy aircraft on each occasion. This airman has at all times displayed great tenacity and devotion to duty.

AMENDMENT.

In notification of 18th September, 1942 (p. 4061, col. 1), regarding Captain BLAAUW, South African Air Force, for Jean Phillip read Johann Phillip Dere.
