ADMIRALTY.

*Whitehall.
20th October, 1942.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following Appointments to the Distinguished Service Order and to approve the following Awards:—

For great bravery and devotion in trying to save life at sea:

The Albert Medal (Posthumous).

Lieutenant (E) John Gouldthorpe Boddy,
Royal Navy,

whose ship was heavily attacked by enemy aircraft. Lieutenant Boddy was within a few feet of one bomb when it fell: he was badly shaken by the explosion. About ten minutes later he was seen to raise himself on his hands and knees. There were fires now burning round him, and the way was blocked by debris. Cries were heard from the Stokers' mess-deck below, and Lieutenant Boddy asked a rating to help him rescue the men below. He was last seen crawling towards the hatch to try to save them. This devotion cost him his life.

For gallantry, daring and skill in the combined attack on Dieppe:

The Distinguished Service Cross.

Temporary Lieutenant Arthur Cheney,
R.N.V.R.

The Conspicuous Gallantry Medal.

Leading Seaman John Edward Victor Obree,
C/SSX.14027.

For great bravery when the engines of his craft were put out of action during an engagement with the shore defences. For an hour and a half she was drifting under heavy fire from the cliffs. Leading Seaman Obree kept her guns in action until the order was given to abandon ship. Then he helped the wounded into the water and returned to his gun, keeping it in action for some time to draw the enemy fire from the survivors. When at length his craft sank he was taken to a Destroyer where he at once went to a gun and served it until the operation was over.

The Distinguished Service Medal.

Able Seaman Ernest Swinhoe, C/JX.156264.

Mention in Despatches.

Lieutenant Ian David McLaughlan, D.S.C., Royal Navy.

Temporary Skipper Cecil Leonard Barber, 1048 T.S., R.N.R.

Mr. Edward Garnall Jenkinson, D.S.C., Commissioned Engineer, Royal Navy.

Mr. George Oliver Garrett Symons, Temporary Warrant Engineer, Royal Navy.

Sick Berth Attendant James Batterton, D/MX.82408.

Sick Berth Attendant Francis Main, P/MX.83464.

Ordinary Seaman Henry Patrick Brannon, P/JX.295656.

Ordinary Seaman Frederick Lockyer, C/JX.316906.

These awards are in addition to those already approved by His Majesty for services in this operation, and published in London Gazette Supplement No. 35729 of 2nd October, 1942.

For distinguished services during the passage to Malta of an important Convoy:

To be a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order:
