Madrid, Febr. 11. N. S.

THE King of Spain continues in very good Health, and does often divert himself with Hunting. The Court is entertained with Balls and other Diversions on account of the Carnival, and the King and Queen intend to go in the beginning of Lent to the Escorial, and to continue there till Easter. It's still discourfied, that the Bishop of Lerida, who is returning hither from the Imperial Court, will be made President of the Council of Castile in the room of the Count d'Orpesa. The Duke de Pareti is appointed to succeed him as Ambassador from this Crown to the Emperor, and is accordingly preparing for his Journey to Vicna. The King has lately made the Duke de Veza a Knight of the Golden Fleece. The Court of Fuenfalida took the usual Oath this week as Counfellow of State. The Office of Secretary of the Council of State, vacant by the Death of Don John del Moral, is not yet disposed of. Orders are sent to Catalonia, that a Regiment of Horse and some Regiments of Foot of the Forces quartered in that Province, do forthwith march to Andalasia to be transported from thence to Ceuzza, in order to drive the Moors from before that Place; Letters from thence of the 22d past say, a French Slave had made his Escape thither from Tatuan, who reports, that the Officers who command the Moors before that Place had represented to the King of Morocco, the great Difficulties they meet with in this Siege, and desired Orders to raise the same, but that he seemed resolv'd not to quit this Enterprize.

Warsaw, Febr. 9. The Cardinal Primate having received a Letter from the King of Poland, acquainting him that he intends to be here in a very short time, every thing is put in a readines for the Diet to meet soon after his arrival. The Sieur Werner is daily expected here from Elbing, having in the Quality of Commissioner from the Elector of Brandenburgh delivered up that City to the Commissioners of Poland, and received from them the Jewels given to his Electoral Highness as a Security for the Payment of the Money due to him from this Crown, which Jewels are delivered into the Custody of General Brandt Governor of Coningsberg, and are to be kept in the Castle of that Place, till such time as the Elector's Pretensions are satisfied. The last Advices from Lemberg say, the Sieur Lexinsky, the King's Ambassador Extraordinary to the Grand Signior, being perfectly recovered of his late Illness, continued his Journey to the Port, and that two Turkish Officers waited for him at Jassy by the Grand Signior's Order, to conduct him to Constantinople.

Vienna, Febr. 17. The Grand Signior's Ambassador had Publick Audience of the Emperor yesterday, being Conducted by Count Rappach, Serjeant Major of the Imperial Guards, in the manner following; First marched a Company of our Garrison; Then the Ambassador's Chamber Chief Steward, after whom were carried the Presents sent by the Sultan to the Emperor and the Imperial Family, consisting in a very fine Tent, adorned with Gold Embroidery; Two Horses, with Saddles and Bridles covered with Gold and Silver and Precious Stones; Two Arabian Led Horses, likewise very richly accoutred; Divers Turkey-work Carpets; Several pieces of Gold and Silver Brocades, and other things of Value; Then came divers of the Ambassador's principal Servants on Horseback; The Officers of his Excellency's Guards; His Divan Effendi or Chief Secretary, carrying in his Hand his Excellency's Credentials; Then the Ambassador himself in the Emperor's Coach, with Count Rappach, and the Sieur Della Torre the Emperor's Chief Interpreter; His Excellency's Footmen walking on each side the Coach; A great Company of the Ambassador's chief Attendants on Horseback followed, and after them came divers of his Servants on Foot, and another Company of Soldiers closed the march. The Audience being over, the Ambassador was conducted back to his Lodging, where a noble Entertainment was prepared for him and his Retinue; And the Emperor's Ministers have agreed with his Excellency, that a certain Sum shall be paid him daily for his Expences during his stay here. The Emperor has given Orders for the Payment of several Sums of Money to the Officers of his Forces to recruit them; The Jews settled in these Parts, have offered to lend the Emperor 425000 Florins; And the Officers of the Imperial Treasury are treating with them for this purpose. 'Tis said, some Imperial Regiments will be sent into Quarters in the Duchies of Carinthia and Carniola, and in the County of Frioul. The Princess Sobiesky, Sister to the Empress, continues at this Court; 'Tis discourfied, that Prince James her Husband, is treating with the Heirs of the Prince of Piombino, who died lately, and left no Successor of his own Family for the Principality of Piombino, and that the same being a Fief of the Kingdom of Naples, the Princess has obtained a Recommendation from the Emperor to the King of Spain. The Count of Czirmin, Vice-Chancellor of Bohemia, died here on the 15th Instant. The Count of Boynembourg, who assisted on the part of the Emperor at the Conferences held at Francfort, for settling the Dutchess of Orleans's Pretensions upon the Elector Palatine, is daily expected here, and is appointed by the Emperor to go with the Character of his Envoy to the Duke of Savoy. A Courier was sent this week to Croatia, with further Instructions to Count Marsigli, the Emperor's Commissioner, concerning the Matters in Dispute between him and the Turkish Commissioner in relation to the Dependencies of Novi, which 'tis hoped will be speedily adjusted.
