ROYAL AIR FORCE

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy.—

Bar to Distinguished Service Order

Squadron Leader Terence Malcolm BULLOCH, D S O , D F C (30373), No 120 Squadron

Distinguished Service Order

Flying Officer Michael Shakespear LAYTON
(Can/J 5302), Royal Canadian Air Force, No 120
Squadron

Distinguished Flying Medal

611635 Sergeant Robert James McCOLL, No 120
Squadron

644541 Sergeant George William TURNER, No 120
Squadron

Flying Officer Layton and Sergeants McColl and Turner were navigator, flight engineer and wireless operator respectively of an aircraft captained by Squadron Leader Bulloch and detailed for convoy escort duty in December, 1942. During the flight 8 submarines were sighted of which one was almost certainly destroyed. Six more were skilfully prevented from making any attack on the convoy. Throughout the sortie, which necessitated some 16 hours flying, Squadron Leader Bulloch, splendidly supported by his colleagues, displayed outstanding determination and unswerving devotion to duty. By their exceptional ability, Flying Officer Layton and Sergeants McColl and Turner have on many occasions proved themselves valuable members of aircraft crew.

Pilot Officer Harold Graham JORDAN (121561), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve

Distinguished Flying Cross

Pilot Officer Edwin Amos PAULTON (Can/J 16114), Royal Canadian Air Force

Distinguished Flying Medal

Can/R 93566 Flight Sergeant William Walter BIGORAY, Royal Canadian Air Force

Pilot Officers Jordan and Paulton and Flight Sergeant Bigoray, have displayed great gallantry, fortitude and devotion to duty in exceptionally hazardous circumstances.

Distinguished Flying Cross

Squadron Leader Desmond James ISTD (42347),
No 120 Squadron

In December, 1942, Squadron Leader Istd was captain of an aircraft detailed for a convoy escort flight. During the mission he was instrumental in making attacks on 4 U boats. By his vigilance and determination he contributed materially to the safety of the convoy on that day.

Acting Flight Lieutenant John Keith DOUGLAS (Aus/403564), Royal Australian Air Force, No 103
Squadron

Flight Lieutenant Douglas has taken part in many operational sorties. On one occasion when on a mine-laying operation much flying in cloud was necessary and his blind flying instruments became unserviceable. Nevertheless he pressed on with his mission which he achieved successfully.
On a later occasion this officer was detailed to attack Munich. When approaching the target area his aircraft was attacked by an enemy night fighter. His skilful evasive tactics enabled his gunners to destroy the enemy aircraft after which the target was attacked successfully. Flight Lieutenant Douglas has proved to be a most determined and successful captain of aircraft whose quiet confidence and keen spirit have been an inspiration to all.

Flying Officer Neilson Arnold WILLIAMSON (N Z 411488), Royal New Zealand Air Force, No 214
Squadron

This officer has participated in a large number of successful night operations over Germany and Italy. On one occasion in September, 1942, he was detailed to bomb a target in North West Germany. He pressed home his attack at low level despite adverse weather and damage sustained to his aircraft. On the return flight a searchlight and gun emplacement were raked with machine-gun fire. In December, 1942, Flying Officer Williamson attacked a factory from 50 feet, making 3 separate runs over the objective. During this operation his gunners inflicted damage on 2 railway trains with machine-gun fire. When leaving the target area the bomber struck a tree and received considerable damage but displaying superb airmanship Flying Officer Williamson flew his aircraft safely back to base. He has at all times shown great courage and enthusiasm which has set a fine example.

Squadron Leader William FLETCHER, D F M (44063), No 158 Squadron.

Distinguished Flying Medal

540757 Sergeant Ralph LEWIS, No 158 Squadron
1375551 Sergeant Harry KAY, No 158 Squadron

In December, 1942, Squadron Leader Fletcher and Sergeants Lewis and Kay were captain, flight engineer and navigator of a heavy bomber detailed to attack Turin. While over the target area one of the starboard engines failed. Shortly after the bombs had been released all blind flying instruments failed and the aircraft stalled and fell into a spin Squadron Leader Fletcher skilfully regained control, but it was found impossible to climb over the Alps Despite bad weather and poor visibility Sergeant Kay navigated the aircraft on another course round the Alps Sergeant Lewis's cool and skilful manipulation of the petrol consumption completed the team work which resulted in the safe return of the aircraft, after flying some 900 miles with 1 of its engines disabled These members of aircraft crew set a grand example of grim determination to triumph over tremendous difficulties

Distinguished Flying Medal

Can/R 83335 Flight Sergeant William Desbro MacMONAGLE, Royal Canadian Air Force, No 15 Squadron

Can/R 114511 Flight Sergeant Earle Freeman WARREN, Royal Canadian Air Force, No 15 Squadron.

In December, 1942, Flight Sergeants MacMonagle and Warren were captain and mid-upper gunner respectively of an aircraft detailed to attack a target in Germany When approaching the target, their aircraft was intercepted and severely damaged by fire from two Messerschmitt 110's. Flight Sergeant Warren although seriously wounded shot one of the fighters down in flames By skilful evasive tactics the remaining attacker was eluded and the target successfully bombed On the return flight another Messerschmitt 110 attacked and further damage was inflicted on the bomber The attack was again beaten off and Flight Sergeant MacMonagle flew the disabled aircraft safely back to base Throughout this hazardous operation these airmen displayed great coolness and courage

591214 Flight Sergeant William Frank AUSTIN, No 103 Squadron

During the outward flight on a recent sortie against Frankfurt, Flight Sergeant Austin's aircraft was subjected to 6 attacks by an enemy aircraft These attacks were skilfully evaded and Flight Sergeant Austin proceeded and bombed his target successfully On the return flight another attack was made by an enemy fighter which was destroyed Flight Sergeant Austin has proved himself to be an outstanding captain of aircraft who invariably presses home his attacks with the utmost determination and courage
