

William Ward, if he is then incumbent of the benefice of Bristol, Saint Paul, shall with his consent (testified by his signature hereto) be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

4. Registers.—Upon the union taking effect the marriage registers in duplicate current at the Church of Saint Clement, Bristol, shall be sent by the incumbent of the united benefice to the Registrar-General to be closed officially.

5. Parsonage House.—Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Bristol, Saint Paul, shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice and the fund now held by the Governors of Queen Anne's Bounty for and towards the cost of providing a parsonage house for the benefice of Bristol, Saint Clement, shall be held and accumulated by the Governors towards the cost of providing a house of residence for a benefice or new district in the Diocese of Bristol, to be selected by the Bishop of Bristol with the approval of us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

6. Clerical and other assistance.—Upon the union taking effect:—

(a) the incumbent of the united benefice shall employ such clerical or lay assistance as shall be required by the Bishop of Bristol from time to time;

(b) a part of the emoluments of the united benefice, that is to say, an annual payment of £100 (being part of a larger annual payment now made by us to the benefice of Bristol, Saint Clement) shall be appropriated by us as a fund towards the cost of providing the said assistance and shall be paid by us to the Diocesan Board of Finance of the Diocese upon trust to apply the same accordingly.

7. Sale of surplus Church Site.—(1) So soon as conveniently may be after the union has taken effect the remaining structure of the Church of Saint Clement, Bristol, shall be taken down and the materials and site thereof, together with any ground annexed thereto, shall be sold and disposed of by us at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient.

(2) The net proceeds to arise from such sale or sales after the payment of the expenses attendant thereupon and upon the taking down of the remaining structure of the Church and all other incidental expenses shall be added to the Expenses Fund established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923.

8. Church Repair Fund.—Upon the union taking effect the Repair Fund now vested in the Diocesan Board of Finance of the Diocese in trust for the repair of the Church of Saint Clement, Bristol, shall cease to be held in trust for the repair of that Church and shall be vested in and held by the said Board in trust for the repair of the parish church.

9. Diversion of Endowments.—Upon the union taking effect a part of the total endowments of the benefices so constituted an united benefice, that is to say, an annual payment of £150 (being a further part of the larger annual payment referred to in paragraph (b) of clause 6 of this scheme) shall be severed and diverted from the benefice of Bristol, Saint Clement, and from the united benefice and shall be transferred to and become vested in us, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as part of our Common Fund.

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 to 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
