CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1, 26th March, 1943.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the award of the British Empire Medal (Military Division) to the undermentioned in recognition of conspicuous service in operations against the Japanese:—

Aus.25385 Aircraftman 1st Class Oscar Thomas RAMSAY, Royal Australian Air Force.

Air Ministry, 26th March, 1943.

ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Second Bar to Distinguished Service Order.

Acting Wing Commander Percy Charles PICKARD, D.S.O., D.F.C. (39392), No. 161 Squadron.

This officer has completed a very large number of operational missions and achieved much success. By his outstanding leadership, exceptional ability and fine fighting qualities, he has contributed in a large measure to the high standard of morale of the squadron he commands.

Bar to Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flight Lieutenant Albert James PUTT, D.F.C. (77690), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 138 Squadron.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flying Officer Henry Robert FIGG, D.F.M. (49631), No. 161 Squadron.

Flying Officer Richard Winter TAYLOR (Can/J.15535), Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 161 Squadron (since missing).

These officers have completed a large number of sorties, invariably displaying outstanding skill and devotion to duty. The successes achieved reflect the greatest credit on their efforts which are worthy of high praise.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Squadron Leader Christopher Francis GIBSON (39981), No. 138 Squadron (since missing).

This officer has at all times displayed high courage and outstanding devotion to duty. Early in the Battle of France he was grievously wounded but recovered to render excellent service, completing many operational missions. In addition he has accomplished good work in the training of air crews.

Acting Squadron Leader Alan Hunter Cachemaille BOXER (41545), No. 138 Squadron.

Within the last 2 months, Squadron Leader Boxer has successfully completed several long range sorties. On one of them, when some hundreds of miles from base, one engine of his aircraft failed. Despite this, he succeeded in flying the bomber home. Some time later, he completed the return flight from a distant target in similar circumstances. He is a most reliable and determined pilot.

Acting Squadron Leader Robert Beck BAGGULEY (44775), No. 139 Squadron (since missing).

Flight Lieutenant Michael Myers WAYMAN (89359), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 139 Squadron (since deceased).

Acting Flight Lieutenant Charles Kenneth HAYDEN (44407), No. 139 Squadron (since missing).

Flying Officer Gordon Sampson CLEAR (116769), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 139 Squadron (since deceased).

In March, 1943, these officers were members of aircraft crews detailed to attack the Molybdenum Plant at Knaben, Norway. Such a task, necessitating a flight over mountainous terrain covered by a blanket of snow which obscured all prominent features, demanded the highest degree of leadership and skill. At various points the formation had to fly through deep ravines and contend with most treacherous air currents. Despite this the correct target, hidden away in the mountains, was located and subjected to a telling attack from a low level. The success achieved reflects the greatest credit on the efforts of these officers whose high courage and faultless work were worthy of the highest praise.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Robert Raymond GLASS (104445), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 214 Squadron.

This officer has taken part in a large number of sorties, involving attacks on various heavily defended targets. He has invariably pressed home his attacks with vigour. On one occasion, on the outward flight to a target in Germany, his aircraft was attacked by 2 enemy fighters. Skilfully manœuvring his aircraft, Flight Lieutenant Glass enabled his rear gunner to deliver an accurate burst at one of the attackers causing it to dive away with its engine on fire. Although the bomber was damaged during the engagement, Flight Lieutenant Glass flew it back to base. He is a steady and reliable captain who has set a very fine example.

Pilot Officer Peter Murray ANDERSON (Can./J.16379), Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 97 Squadron.

This officer has completed a large number of sorties, including 7 attacks on targets in Italy. He has always displayed great courage and skill. One night in February, 1943, he completed a successful attack on Lorient in difficult circumstances. Three nights later, he flew with distinction in an attack on the same target.

Pilot Officer Charles Richard BLUMENAUER (Can./J.16226), Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 103 Squadron.

Since the beginning of February, 1943, this officer has completed a number of night sorties against targets in Germany, Italy and Northern France. He has never failed to reach his objective and has pressed home his attacks with accuracy and determination. In operations against Lorient, Milan and Cologne, Pilot Officer Blumenauer obtained excellent photographs. By his courage and skill, this officer has won the admiration of all with whom he has flown.

Pilot Officer Alfred Raymond POOLE (129193), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 97 Squadron.

Pilot Officer Poole, is an air gunner of high merit. He has taken part in a large number of operational flights, including many in the Middle East. On one occasion he was forced to abandon his aircraft over the desert. Four days later he was picked up by an army patrol. Pilot Officer Poole took part in the raids on the Ruhr and Bremen when 1,000 of our bombers operated; he has also flown on 3 attacks against Berlin. His skill and courage have been of the highest order.

Pilot Officer George Frederick Hind SAYERS (50457), No. 90 Squadron.

This officer has completed a large number of operational missions. He is an exceptionally determined pilot who invariably presses home his attacks with skill and courage.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

1304253 Sergeant George Charlton McDUGLE, No. 10 Squadron.

As air gunner, this airman has flown on a large number of operational missions. In December, 1942, during a return flight from Duisburg, his aircraft was attacked by an enemy fighter from close range. Although 2 of his 4 guns jammed, Sergeant McDougale delivered a burst, causing the fighter to break away and fall towards the ground with its engine apparently on fire. In February, 1943, when returning from an attack on Wilhelmshaven, Sergeant McDougale observed an enemy fighter flying in to attack from astern. He immediately attempted to engage it but his guns jammed. Coolly and skilfully he gave his captain a commentary on the enemy aircraft's movements enabling him to evade it successfully. Shortly afterwards, another fighter appeared and attacked fiercely. Sergeant McDougale had only 1 gun serviceable but opening fire with it from very close range, he drove the attacker off. Suddenly it disintegrated in the air and burning pieces were observed to fall into the sea. This airman's gunnery skill contributed materially to the safe return of his aircraft. He invariably displays great confidence in the face of the enemy.
