Regulations made by the Architects Registration Council of the United Kingdom under Section 13 of the above-mentioned Act have been submitted for the approval of the Privy Council and are published herewith.

Representations by persons to whom the Regulations are applicable may be made in writing to the Privy Council Office on or before the 4th day of May, 1943.

ARCHITECTS REGISTRATION COUNCIL OF THE UNITED KINGDOM.

REGULATIONS MADE IN PURSUANCE OF SECTION 13 OF THE ARCHITECTS (REGISTRATION) ACT, 1931, AMENDING THE EXISTING REGULATIONS.

Regulation 17.

Regulation 17 shall be amended so as to read as follows:—

"(a) A casual vacancy arising from the death or resignation of a member of the Council, the Board, the Admission Committee or the Discipline Committee shall be filled as soon as may be by the body by which such member was appointed or elected in pursuance of the principal Act and in the like manner, provided that in the event of such vacancy arising among the persons elected to represent 'Unattached Architects,' as hereinafter defined, the remaining representatives of the 'Unattached Architects' on the Council shall elect a registered person to fill the vacancy. The person appointed or elected to fill such vacancy shall retain office so long only as the vacating member would have retained the same if no vacancy had occurred.

"(b) A casual vacancy arising from the death or resignation of a member of the Finance and General Purposes Committee and other Committees appointed under Regulation 14 shall be filled by the Council as soon as may be."

Schedule 2.

At the end of the paragraph beginning "The School of Architecture, University of Manchester" the words "Diploma Final Examination" shall be substituted for the words "Certificate Final Examination."

NOTICE

ADVERTISEMENTS UNDER SECTION 27 OF THE TRUSTEE ACT, 1925.

Notice is hereby given that in the issue of the London Gazette of the 4th May, 1943, and in subsequent issues during the war, advertisements under section 27 of the Trustee Act, 1925, for claimants against the estates of deceased persons will appear in a columnar form under the following heading:—

“NOTICES UNDER THE TRUSTEE ACT, 1925, S. 27.

Notice is hereby given pursuant to S. 27 of the Trustee Act, 1925, that all persons having claims against the estate of any of the deceased persons whose names and addresses are set out in the first and second columns of the following Table are hereby required to send particulars in writing of their respective claims to the person or persons whose names and addresses are set opposite the name of the deceased person in the third column of the Table and to send such particulars on or before the date specified in relation to that deceased person in the fourth column of the said Table, after which date the personal representatives will distribute the estate among the persons entitled thereto having regard only to the claims of which particulars in writing shall have been given as aforesaid and will not be liable for the assets of the deceased or any part thereof so distributed to any person of whose claim they shall not then have had notice:—”

The heading will be followed by a Table consisting of four columns containing respectively the following particulars only:—

- (1) Name of Deceased.
- (2) Address, description and date of death of Deceased.
- (3) Names, addresses and descriptions of Persons to whom notices of claims are to be given, and names of personal representatives.
- (4) Date on or before which notices of claim to be given.

The decision to use the columnar form has been taken after consultation with the Lord Chancellor's Department and the Council of the Law Society, with particular reference to the question whether an advertisement in the form proposed complies with the requirements of the section. In order to save paper, the insertion of advertisements of this class in the separate forms hitherto commonly employed will be discontinued.

A charge of fifteen shillings will be made in respect of every advertisement submitted for inclusion in the Table appearing in an issue of the Gazette. Copies of the page containing the advertisement will be furnished to the advertiser on an application accompanied by payment at the rate of sixpence for each copy.

Advertisers wishing to insert advertisements in issues of the Gazette after 30th April, 1943, should send to the London Gazette particulars in the form set out below accompanied by the appropriate remittance. After the 30th April, 1943, an advertisement submitted in any other form will be re-drafted for insertion in the Table at the office of the Gazette.
