ROYAL AIR FORCE.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Wing Commander Dillon Piers Denis Gerard KELLY (33168), No. 255 Squadron.

Wing Commander Kelly is a skilful and courageous pilot who has achieved much success in fighting operations at night. He has displayed exceptional energy and initiative, setting an excellent example. Wing Commander Kelly has destroyed three enemy aircraft.

Acting Wing Commander Edward Geoffrey Lyall MILLINGTON (25124), No. 225 Squadron.

This officer participated in operations in North Africa and displayed courage, keenness and devotion to duty worthy of high praise. His personal example and skilful leadership have contributed materially to the operational efficiency of the squadron he commands.

Acting Squadron Leader Eric Latham BEVERLEY (44517), No. 13 Squadron.

This officer has completed 29 sorties. He is a most efficient flight commander whose fine qualities and tireless efforts have proved inspiring. In the operations in North Africa he has flown with distinction.

Acting Squadron Leader Anthony Wray ELLER (110827), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 18 Squadron.

This officer has participated in 29 sorties invariably displaying keenness and courage of a high order. During the campaign in North Africa he has undertaken many sorties both by day and night, often in difficult circumstances. On one occasion, during a daylight operation in December, 1942, his aircraft was hit and set on fire in an engagement against enemy fighters. Despite this, he effected a skilful forced-landing. Undeterred by a trying experience, Squadron Leader Eller quickly resumed operational flying, executing his tasks with great vigour.

Acting Squadron Leader Ian Garnett MacLAREN (45602), No. 614 Squadron.

In operations in North Africa, this officer took part in a number of successful sorties, many of them in bad weather and over difficult terrain. One night in February, 1943, he was detailed to execute a night bombing attack against enemy transport and troops in the Kasserine Pass. The weather was extremely bad with heavy clouds covering the mountains on either side. Despite this, Squadron Leader MacLaren flew down the pass and successfully bombed the target. He has invariably displayed great courage and determination.

Flight Lieutenant George Urquhart HILL (Can/C.1075), Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 111 Squadron.

Flight Lieutenant Hill is a skilful leader whose ability has been well in evidence during recent operations. He has participated in many sorties and has destroyed 4 enemy aircraft.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Fred ROTHWELL (45337), No. 13 Squadron.

In the campaign in North Africa, this officer has displayed great keenness and determination, setting a fine example. On one occasion, during a bombing attack on Bizerta in daylight, his aircraft was attacked by an enemy fighter but, by skilful manoeuvring, he evaded the attacker, having sustained only slight damage to his aircraft. On another occasion, one night in February, 1943, he was detailed to patrol the Kasserine Pass and to bomb any mechanical transport in the vicinity. Whilst searching for objectives and flying at a low level his aircraft was hit by fire from the ground defences. A shell, which burst inside the aircraft, broke the rudder and tail trim controls. In spite of this, Flight Lieutenant Rothwell continued his search and later bombed some transport. He flew the damaged aircraft to an airfield at Maison Blanche where he effected a safe landing at the third attempt.

Flying Officer Trevor Windsor ALLEN (N.Z.413007), Royal New Zealand Air Force, No. 142 Squadron.

This officer has participated in 28 sorties and has displayed a high standard of efficiency and fine fighting qualities. His determination to press home his attacks from a low level, in the face of heavy fire from the ground defences, has been most praiseworthy.

Flying Officer Edwin Hanlon BROWN (Aus.402724), Royal Australian Air Force, No. 682 Squadron (since deceased).

This officer has completed 62 sorties and has invariably displayed great skill and determination. This was amply demonstrated one day in April, 1943, when he successfully accomplished a reconnaissance flight over Naples and adjacent area in the face of heavy and accurate fire from the ground defences. His keenness and devotion to duty have been worthy of high praise.

Flying Officer Ivan Kenneth CRAWFORD (115189), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 111 Squadron.

This officer has completed much operational flying. He took part in many sorties over Northern France before operating in North Africa, where he has completed a large number of sorties.

In attacks on transport and other targets on the ground he has achieved much success, while in air combat he has destroyed 1 enemy aircraft. Flying Officer Crawford is a most able section leader, whose skill and keenness had proved inspiring.

Flying Officer Owen Leslie HARDY (N.Z.411399), Royal New Zealand Air Force, No. 72 Squadron.

This officer has completed 70 sorties, including a number in the campaign in North Africa, where he has rendered excellent service. In air combat he has destroyed 3 enemy aircraft, while in low level machine gun attacks on enemy transport he has achieved success. Flying Officer Hardy is a keen and skilful section leader.

Flying Officer Edward John HOLLOWAY (116709), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 18 Squadron.

This officer is a keen and determined pilot, whose skill has won the confidence of all with whom he has flown. At the commencement of the campaign in North Africa he took part in several daylight bombing sorties and his steadfastness in the face of considerable opposition proved inspiring. On one occasion, in December, 1942, he skilfully force-landed his aircraft which had been set on fire when attacked by a superior number of enemy fighters. Since then, every sortie he has undertaken has been highly successful.

Flying Officer Jerrold LE CHEMINANT (126148), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 72 Squadron.

This officer has a fine operational record. He fought in the Battle of Britain and afterwards took part in many sorties over Northern France. In operations in North Africa he has proved himself to be an excellent section leader and has contributed materially to the successes obtained. He has destroyed 6 enemy aircraft.

Flying Officer Evan Dall MACKIE (N.Z.41520), Royal New Zealand Air Force, No. 243 Squadron.

In operations in North Africa, this officer has displayed skilful leadership and great tenacity. He has destroyed 5 enemy aircraft, 4 of them within a period of eleven days in April, 1943. His courageous example has proved inspiring.

Flying Officer Kenneth Percival NEILL (N.Z.41145), Royal New Zealand Air Force, No. 225 Squadron.

This officer has undertaken many operational flights during the campaign in North Africa. He has displayed great skill, courage and determination, achieving excellent results. On one occasion, he undertook an important sortie which necessitated several runs over the target to obtain the desired results. In the face of heavy anti-aircraft fire Flying Officer Neill displayed great skill and coolness and completed his task successfully.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Pilot Officer James Dobie AITCHISON (134337), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 150 Squadron (since deceased).

Distinguished Flying Medal.

Can/R.133390 Sergeant John Campbell LECKIE, Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 150 Squadron.

One night in April, 1943, Pilot Officer Aitchison and Sergeant Leckie were navigator and pilot of an aircraft detailed to bomb an enemy airfield. Whilst over the target area, the aircraft was hit by anti-aircraft fire. One engine was disabled, the hydraulic systems were rendered unserviceable, while a serious leakage of petrol occurred. Despite this, Sergeant Leckie attempted to fly the aircraft to a landing ground, being greatly assisted by Pilot Officer Aitchison. It was impossible to maintain height, however, and Sergeant Leckie gave orders to abandon aircraft but, by the time the other members of the crew had left by parachute, it was too late for him to follow. Nevertheless, he succeeded in effecting a crash-landing, in a battle area. Pilot Officer Aitchison, who had descended safely, immediately rushed to his comrade's assistance. Although under enemy fire, they took steps to prevent the crashed aircraft from falling into enemy hands. Both these members of aircraft crew displayed great courage and determination in harassing circumstances.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

Can/R.101822 Flight Sergeant Edmond Anthony HINKE, Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 142 Squadron.

This airman has taken part in 32 sorties. He is a cool and efficient air gunner, whose excellent work has on occasions contributed to the safe return of his aircraft. His steadiness has set an excellent example.

1373373 Sergeant Francis CAMPBELL, No. 93 Squadron.

This airman has taken part in 105 sorties. In the campaign in North Africa he has participated in many attacks on enemy transport causing destruction. In air combat Sergeant Campbell has destroyed two enemy aircraft. He has displayed commendable skill and courage.

1386074 Sergeant Leslie William EVANS, No. 142 Squadron.

Sergeant Evans has completed 24 sorties. He is an excellent captain, whose efficiency and confidence have inspired his crew, resulting in a fine record of successful sorties. He has displayed outstanding devotion to duty.

1332018 Sergeant Alan Joseph OWEN, No. 600 Squadron.

1073644 Sergeant James Samuel Victor MCALLISTER, No. 600 Squadron.

As pilot and observer of aircraft respectively, these airmen have displayed great skill. They have destroyed three enemy aircraft at night.
