

ADMIRALTY.

Whitehall,
29th June, 1943.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointments to the Distinguished Service Order and to approve the following Reward and Awards:

For great bravery in saving life at sea:

The Albert Medal.

Acting Able Seaman Eynon Hawkins, D/JX.
214857.

Able Seaman Hawkins was serving in a Merchant Vessel which was hit by three torpedoes and immediately began to burn furiously. Many of the crew jumped overboard and Able Seaman Hawkins, with the greatest coolness and courage, organised a party of survivors in the water and kept them away from the fire until they were later picked up by one of H.M. Ships.

Twice he swam to the assistance of other survivors who were in difficulties, himself receiving burns in the face as he pulled them to safety.

For courage and skill in hazardous operations in H.M. Submarine Thunderbolt:

Second Bar to the Distinguished Service Order:
Lieutenant-Commander Cecil Bernard Crouch, D.S.O., Royal Navy.

The Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieutenant Denis Woolnough Mills, Royal Navy.

The Distinguished Service Medal.
