CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

*St. James's Palace, S.W.1.
10th August, 1943.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the GEORGE CROSS to:—

Acting Wing Commander John Samuel Rowlands, M.B.E. (73378), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve.

For over 2 years, Wing Commander Rowlands has been employed on bomb disposal duties and has repeatedly displayed the most conspicuous courage and unselfish devotion to duty in circumstances of great personal danger.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

*St. James's Palace, S.W.1.
10th August, 1943.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the British Empire Medal (Military Division) to:—

1312312 Sergeant Joseph Patrick Herbert O'Neill, Royal Air Force.

Sergeant O'Neill was captain and pilot of a Halifax aircraft carrying high explosive bombs and incendiaries which crashed and burst into flames shortly after taking off for an operational mission. Some members of the crew were trapped in the blazing wreckage and although Sergeant O'Neill was himself severely injured and burned and in a fainting condition through loss of blood, he resolutely refused to leave the scene of the accident. Disregarding his own injuries he worked unsparingly, directing and helping civilians in an attempt to save others in the wreckage. Without thought for himself, his efforts ceased only when he became unconscious. His coolness and great strength of will earned the unbounded admiration of all concerned.

Air Ministry, 10th August, 1943.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flying Officer Gordon Halse AVENT (Can/J.6377), Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 40 Squadron.

This officer is a skilful, courageous and determined pilot. One night in June, 1943, he undertook a flight of special importance. Visibility was only fair but Flying Officer Avent skilfully located his target and, in spite of heavy and accurate anti-aircraft fire, completed his task successfully. Flying Officer Avent has completed very many sorties and throughout, his efforts have been characterised by great determination.

Flying Officer Donald Thomas BAIN (Can/J.9412), Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 408 (R.C.A.F.) Squadron.

One night in July, 1943, this officer piloted an aircraft to attack Aachen. Whilst over the target area, the bomber was seriously damaged when engaged by an enemy fighter. Despite this, Flying Officer Bain made several determined runs over the objective. On the return flight 2 more enemy fighters were encountered but Flying Officer Bain out-manoeuvred them. By superb airmanship and great tenacity he succeeded in flying the crippled bomber to this country. He displayed commendable courage and a fine fighting spirit in circumstances of great difficulty.

Flying Officer Leslie STEPHENSON (118959), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 153 Squadron.
Flying Officer George Arthur HALL (120955), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 153 Squadron.

As pilot and observer respectively, Flying Officers Stephenson and Hall have flown together on a large number of sorties and have displayed great skill and determination throughout. They have been responsible for the destruction of 6 enemy aircraft, 3 of them in one night. Flying Officers Stephenson and Hall have displayed exceptional keenness and fine fighting qualities.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flying Officer Peter Greville Kaye WILLIAMSON (107239), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 153 Squadron.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

1393221, Sergeant Denis Strickland LAKE, Royal Air Force, No. 153 Squadron.

As pilot and observer respectively, this officer and airman completed many sorties during the campaign in North Africa. They have displayed great keenness and co-operation and, in various combats at night, they have destroyed 5 enemy aircraft. During 1 sortie, they were forced to abandon their aircraft whilst over the sea and were subsequently adrift in the dinghy for 5 hours before being rescued. In spite of this trying experience, Flying Officer Williamson and Sergeant Lake quickly resumed operational flying. Both these members of aircraft crew have displayed courage and devotion to duty worthy of great praise.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

Aus.406195, Flight Sergeant Cyril Raymond DAVIES, Royal Australian Air Force, No. 14 Squadron.
Aus.406311, Flight Sergeant Christopher Harold SIMMONS, Royal Australian Air Force, No. 14 Squadron.

As navigator and wireless operator respectively, these airmen have participated in a large number of sorties, including shipping reconnaissances and operations against airfields in Crete. They have displayed great skill throughout and have contributed materially to the successes obtained. Their diligence and determination have set a fine example.

1151611, Sergeant Donald FOSTER, Royal Air Force, No. 40 Squadron.

This airman has completed a large number of sorties and has invariably displayed great determination and devotion to duty. In the earlier air operations in the Western Desert, Sergeant Foster attacked many targets with success. Later, in the attack on the Mareth Line, he undertook numerous sorties over the battle area with good results. In June, 1943, Sergeant Foster took part in air operations against Pantellaria. During the flight the engine of his aircraft failed but he skilfully flew the bomber to an airfield and landed it safely.

1319207, Sergeant Wilfred James BARBER, Royal Air Force, No. 158 Squadron.

1087496, Sergeant William Edward LAWRENCE, Royal Air Force, No. 158 Squadron.

During an air operation, these airmen displayed courage and fortitude worthy of high praise.

Air Ministry, 10th August, 1943.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following award:—

Military Cross.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Robert Grainger KER THOMPSON (70672), Reserve of Air Force Officers.

During operations in Burma, in March, 1943, this officer displayed marked courage and initiative in the face of the enemy. In addition to his duties as the Commanding Officer of the Royal Air Force section of a Column, he took an active part in all engagements with the enemy and was always to the fore with his tommy gun, steady and indifferent to his personal safety. His example had a marked effect on all ranks in the Column, whilst his detailed knowledge of the enemy and their methods was of the greatest assistance to his superiors.

Air Ministry, 10th August, 1943.
