Air Ministry, 31st August, 1943.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Distinguished Service Order.

Wing Commander Frederick Campbell HOPCROFT, D.F.C. (37231), Royal Air Force, No. 57 Squadron.

Wing Commander Hopcroft has rendered valuable service since the commencement of hostilities. He has displayed outstanding skill and zeal and his untiring efforts have been reflected in the high standard of operational efficiency of the squadron he commands. Wing Commander Hopcroft has undertaken very many sorties, involving attacks on a wide range of important targets. In July, 1943, he flew the leading aircraft of a bomber force which attacked a switching and transformer station in North Italy. In spite of opposition from the ground defences the target was subjected to a determined attack from a low level. Throughout the operation, Wing Commander Hopcroft displayed inspiring leadership and great skill. Both in the air and on the ground this officer has set an example worthy of the highest praise.

Acting Wing Commander Cecil Gordon Scott ROBINSON, D.F.C. (37892), Reserve of Air Force Officers, No. 138 Squadron.

This officer is a gallant captain, whose keenness has been outstanding. He completed many sorties whilst serving in the Middle East and, since his return to the United Kingdom he has operated against various important targets both in Germany and Italy. This officer has displayed great courage and leadership and his successes have been worthily earned.

Squadron Leader Hugh Beresford VERITY, D.F.C. (72507), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 161 Squadron.

Since being awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross, Squadron Leader Verity has undertaken numerous sorties and has displayed great skill and tenacity throughout. He is a courageous captain, whose fine qualities are worthy of great praise.

Bar to Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flying Officer Harold James DAVIDSON, D.F.C. (Aus. 411444), Royal Australian Air Force, No. 256 Squadron.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Acting Squadron Leader John Watson ALLAN, D.S.O. (89617), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 256 Squadron.

As observer and pilot respectively, these officers have displayed rare skill in night operations. In two recent nights they have destroyed 3 enemy aircraft, bringing their victories to 13, all of which have been obtained in July, 1943. Their record is outstanding and worthy of the highest praise.

Acting Squadron Leader Benjamin Richard HALL (43938), Royal Air Force, No. 37 Squadron.

In the execution of his many tasks this officer has displayed great skill and tenacity. In operations ranging from El Alamein to Tunisia, Squadron Leader Hall obtained many successes, attacking the enemy's communications and transport with telling effect. On one occasion, during an attack on an important and well defended road junction, his excellent work contributed materially to the success of the operation. A few nights later, when detailed to attack transport in the Hams area, Squadron Leader Hall bombed his target with great determination, afterwards attacking the area with machine-gun fire from a low level. More recently in a raid on an airfield at Vibo Valentia, Squadron Leader Hall played a large part in the success achieved. His untiring and gallant efforts have set an inspiring example.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Ronald Edward GREEN (121075), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 126 Squadron.

This officer, who has completed a very large number of varied sorties, has led his flight and, on many occasions, the squadron with great skill. He has invariably displayed outstanding keenness and determination and has contributed materially to the successes obtained by the squadron. Flight Lieutenant Green has destroyed 1 and damaged 3 more enemy aircraft.

Acting Squadron Leader Alexander Mortimer Thomas NOON (88197), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 267 Squadron.

In operations in North Africa this officer participated in a large number of sorties, many of them of a hazardous nature. By his courageous example, inspiring leadership and great skill, Squadron Leader Noon played a large part in the successes obtained.

Flying Officer Geoffrey Ernest Charles ARCHER (124410), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 199 Squadron.

One night in August, 1943, this officer was the pilot of an aircraft detailed to attack Turin. When nearing the Alps on the outward flight, one of the bomber's engines failed. Despite this, Flying Officer Archer continued to the target which he bombed successfully. Shortly afterwards, Flying Officer Archer succeeded in re-starting the defective engine but soon after crossing the Alps on the return flight the engine again failed. Nevertheless Flying Officer Archer succeeded in flying the bomber to base. This officer displayed outstanding skill and determination, setting a commendable example.

Flying Officer Francis Scott BANNER (118153), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 243 Squadron.

This officer has taken part in many sorties and has invariably displayed great skill and tenacity. On one occasion, whilst attacking troops and transport the propeller of his aircraft was severely damaged by striking the ground. Despite this, Flying Officer Banner flew the aircraft to base. He has destroyed 4 enemy aircraft; one of them in an engagement against a superior number of fighters.

Flying Officer Robert Barson COWPER (Aus.407666), Royal Australian Air Force, No. 108 Squadron.

This officer has completed 68 sorties and has displayed great courage and determination. During a sortie in January, 1943, Flying Officer Cowper was compelled to make a forced landing behind the enemy's lines but he displayed great resource in outwitting the enemy and regained our own lines on foot. One night in July, 1943, he engaged a Junkers 88 and caused it to explode. The enemy aircraft disintegrated and a large portion struck and so disabled Flying Officer Cowper's aircraft that he was forced to leave it by parachute. He was later rescued from the sea and rejoined his squadron to resume operational flying. Since then, Flying Officer Cowper has destroyed another Junkers 88.

Flying Officer Aubrey Howard FERNIHOUGH (134506), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 37 Squadron.

This officer has taken part in 65 sorties, involving operations in North Africa, Pantellaria and Sicily. His work in the battle areas has been of the highest order and has been executed with great dash and daring. On one occasion he bombed the airfield at St. Marie du Zit with unerring skill. In more recent operations, Flying Officer Fernihough has participated in attacks on ports and other targets in Sicily, accomplishing excellent work. By his great skill, thoroughness and gallantry, this officer has set an example worthy of the highest praise.

Pilot Officer Lionel George SEARLE (16036), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 256 Squadron.

This officer has undertaken many sorties at night and, in recent operations over Sicily, has destroyed 3 enemy aircraft, two of them in one sortie. Pilot Officer Searle has displayed exceptional keenness and skill.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

968356 Flight Sergeant Francis Robert WILLIAMS, Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 223 Squadron.

This airman has completed 40 sorties involving attacks on targets ranging from El Alamein to Tunisia and more recently against Pantellaria and Sicily. In July, 1943, during an attack on an airfield in Sicily, Flight Sergeant Williams was wounded in the chest in the course of the bombing run. Although in great pain, he remained at his post and released his bombs with good effect. Flight Sergeant Williams has displayed outstanding keenness and set a courageous example.
