Air Ministry, 16th November, 1943.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Squadron Leader John MARTIN (37864), Reserve of Air Force Officers, No. 622 Squadron.

Squadron Leader Martin has displayed great skill and devotion to duty throughout his tour of operations. He has participated in many sorties and has pressed home his attacks with vigour. Squadron Leader Martin is a highly efficient flight commander whose leadership has been of a high order.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Richard Thomas FITZGERALD (Aus.16516), Royal Australian Air Force, No. 77 Squadron.

This officer has completed very many sorties during which he has bombed such targets as Berlin, Cologne, Mannheim and Hanover. He has displayed great skill and enterprise, setting an example which has won the confidence of his crew. On one occasion, when attacking Cologne, his aircraft was badly damaged by anti-aircraft fire. Coolly and skilfully, Flight Lieutenant Fitzgerald flew clear of the defences, went on to execute his attack and afterwards flew safely to base. His superb effort was worthy of high praise.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Reginald Frank LOWN (130946), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 15 Squadron.

This officer is a most capable and determined captain who has attacked a large number of important enemy targets with success. His excellent qualities were well illustrated on one occasion when attacking Berlin in August, 1943. During the bombing run, his aircraft was struck and part of its structure caught fire. Despite this, Flight Lieutenant Lown pressed home his attack and successfully bombed the target. Under his able direction, the fire was afterwards extinguished after a part of the fuselage had been cut away with an axe. His coolness and resource in the face of difficulties have set an inspiring example.

Flying Officer Brendan Denham BAKER (106033), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 92 Squadron.

In August, 1943, this officer flew the leading aircraft of a section of fighters which escorted a bomber force attacking targets near Messina. As the formation turned for home it was intercepted by 5 enemy aircraft. One of them attempted to attack a bomber but Flying Officer Baker quickly drove off the enemy aircraft and, after a short pursuit, shot it down. This drew the remainder of the enemy aircraft away from the bombers and Flying Officer Baker was attacked from all quarters. Although his aircraft was repeatedly hit, and he was wounded in the leg, he fought with rare skill and tenacity. He destroyed another of his adversaries before he was forced to abandon his own aircraft which was extensively damaged. In this spirited action, Flying Officer Baker displayed superb skill and courage, setting an example of the highest order.

Flying Officer Arthur Clifford RICHARDS (137223), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 622 Squadron.

As navigator, Flying Officer Richards has taken part in numerous sorties, covering a wide variety of targets. His work throughout has been of a high order, contributing in a good measure to the successes obtained. On 1 occasion, during an operation against Berlin in August, 1943, Flying Officer Richards displayed commendable skill and resource by flying the bomber a considerable distance on the homeward flight after its pilot had been seriously wounded during a fight with an enemy aircraft. His efforts played a large part in the safe return of the bomber.

Pilot Officer Brian Anthony CONNOR (Aus.416092), Royal Australian Air Force, No. 149 Squadron.

As pilot, this officer has completed a large number of sorties, involving attacks on a wide range of targets. His efforts throughout have been characterised by great skill and tenacity, qualities which have won him many successes. On several occasions his aircraft has been damaged by enemy action but, each time, he has succeeded in reaching base. Pilot Officer Connor has rendered excellent service.

Pilot Officer Wilfred HUMPHRIES (156091), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 199 Squadron.

Pilot Officer Humphries has taken part in very many sorties including attacks on such targets as industrial centres in the Ruhr, Berlin and Wilhelmshaven. He has displayed exceptional skill and determination and pressed home his attacks often in the face of fierce opposition. Pilot Officer Humphries is an ideal captain, whose example has proved inspiring.

Pilot Officer Bernard Alexander NORTH (149220), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 149 Squadron.

This officer is an extremely skilful and determined pilot. During his tour of operational duties he has attacked a wide range of well defended targets and, not once, has he failed in his mission. His exemplary conduct and devotion to duty have set a most commendable example.

Warrant Officer James MONTGOMERY (522563), Royal Air Force, No. 149 Squadron.

As air gunner, Warrant Officer Montgomery has participated in a very large number of sorties.

Early in his operational career he was wounded in combat but his enthusiasm remained unabated. On one occasion, during an attack on Bochum, his aircraft was repeatedly attacked by enemy fighters. His skilful and determined work during the combats contributed materially towards frustrating the attackers. Warrant Officer Montgomery has displayed great fortitude and devotion to duty.

Distinguished Flying Cross.

Flying Officer Alexander Moir DINWOODIE (121563), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 27 Squadron.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

1335106 Sergeant Cyril George JOHNSON, Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 27 Squadron.

As navigator and pilot respectively, this officer and airman have completed many successful sorties and have displayed a high degree of skill, courage and tenacity. On 1 occasion they attacked and destroyed a very large oil storage tank. In addition 12 sampans were destroyed. In spite of extremely bad weather, the aircraft was flown safely to base. Flying Officer Dinwoodie and Sergeant Johnson have rendered valuable service.

Conspicuous Gallantry Medal (Flying).

Warrant Officer Claude Edward WHITE (1383031), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 100 Squadron.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

1395833 Sergeant Leslie Charles Andrew DOWDELL, Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 100 Squadron.

One night in October, 1943, Warrant Officer White and Sergeant Dowdell were pilot and navigator respectively of an aircraft detailed to attack Leipzig. Soon after leaving the airfield, the inter-communication system became unserviceable, and later after crossing the enemy coast, one of the bomber's engines became defective. Before the propeller could be feathered, the engine burst into flames. An extinguisher failed to put out the fire completely and it burned sufficiently bright to illuminate the fuselage and tailplane. In spite of this, Warrant Officer White flew on to the target and bombed it. On the homeward flight, Sergeant Dowdell displayed exceptional skill and resource and, in spite of great difficulties, unerringly guided his pilot to base. The defective engine was still alight when the airfield was reached but Warrant Officer White effected a masterly landing. As the bomber touched down the flames from the engine shot upwards and threatened to envelop the bomber but Warrant Officer White coolly ensured that his crew safely disembarked whilst he attended to the switches and petrol cocks. In serious circumstances, this gallant pilot displayed skill, coolness and tenacity which inspired all, while Sergeant Dowdell proved a valuable member of aircraft crew and supported his captain valiantly.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

Aus.409255 Flight Sergeant Norman Lindsay THOMAS, Royal Australian Air Force, No. 15 Squadron.

This airman has proved himself to be a very confident and resourceful captain and pilot. In August, 1943, he piloted an aircraft in an operation against Munchen Gladbach. On the return flight the bomber was attacked by a fighter. The flight engineer was killed and the aircraft sustained extensive damage and caught fire. Despite this, Flight Sergeant Thomas skilfully maintained control. The fire was extinguished and, by a supreme effort, this resolute pilot succeeded in reaching base. His coolness and courage in harassing circumstances were most praiseworthy.

1321623 Sergeant Leslie John BENTLEY, Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 15 Squadron.

This airman was the air bomber of an aircraft detailed to attack Kassel one night in October, 1943. Shortly after the target had been successfully attacked the bomber was hit by machine gun fire from a fighter. Sergeant Bentley and 2 other members of the crew were wounded. In spite of his injury, Sergeant Bentley did all in his power to assist his pilot on the homeward journey, making a valuable contribution towards the safe return of the bomber. This airman is a keen, conscientious and zealous member of aircraft crew 1338695 Sergeant Duncan Albert LONG, Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 51 Squadron.

One night in October, 1943, this airman was the pilot of an aircraft detailed to attack Kassel. Whilst still some distance from the target, the bomber was hit by anti-aircraft fire. The windscreen was smashed and Sergeant Long was struck on the head by a piece of shrapnel. One of the bomber's engines was put out of action and the aircraft lost some height. In spite of this, Sergeant Long continued to the target and bombed it, afterwards flying his damaged bomber to base. This airman has completed several sorties and has invariably displayed praiseworthy skill and determination.

Air Ministry, 16th November, 1943.
