Air Ministry, 26th November, 1943.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards in recognition of gallantry displayed in flying operations against the enemy:—

Distinguished Service Order.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Kenneth Harry Francis LETFORD, D.F.C. (132892), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 207 Squadron.

One night in October, 1943, this officer was captain and pilot of an aircraft detailed to attack Leipzig. During the sortie, the bomber was engaged by a fighter and was hit by a hail of bullets. The mid-upper gunner was wounded and his gun turret rendered useless; the wireless operator was also wounded and some of his wireless equipment was destroyed. The inter-communication gear was put out of action and other damage was sustained. The situation became alarming when some incendiary bombs and the accumulators caught fire. Nevertheless, Flight Lieutenant Letford coolly organised his crew to fight the flames and under his able directions they succeeded in quelling the fire. When base was reached, Flight Lieutenant Letford effected a perfect landing without the aid of flaps. In circumstances fraught with great danger, this officer displayed inspiring leadership, great courage and determination.

Squadron Leader Colin Pryse BARBER (40284), Royal Air Force, No. 70 Squadron.

This officer has participated in very many sorties, involving attacks on targets in the battle area, on airfields, dockyard installations and railway junctions. One night in August, 1943, Squadron Leader Barber participated in an attack on the railway junction at Bagnoli. The operation demanded a high degree of skill and determination and Squadron Leader Barber's excellent efforts contributed materially to the great success achieved. This officer is a highly efficient flight commander whose example has proved inspiring.

Squadron Leader James Ronaldson Herbert LEWIS (39997), Reserve of Air Force Officers, No. 227 Squadron.

This officer has participated in very many sorties, including a number of successful attacks on shipping during which he has damaged at least 30 caiques. In air combat he has shot down 3 enemy aircraft. Squadron Leader Lewis is a skilful and determined leader, whose excellent example has inspired the flight he commands.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Eric GITTINS (112716), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 227 Squadron.

As navigator, this officer has participated in very many sorties, involving attacks on targets in Tunisia, Sicily and the island of Rhodes. During these operations many successes have been obtained, including destructive attacks on shipping and harbour installations. By his skilful and resolute efforts, Flight Lieutenant Gittins has played a good part in the results achieved. His fine record is worthy of high praise.

Acting Flight Lieutenant Douglas John Garcia HARCOURT (141478), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 294 Squadron.

Flight Lieutenant Harcourt has undertaken a large number of air/sea rescue operations during which he has been responsible for some 43 personnel being rescued from the sea. Many of them he has saved himself by taking them aboard his aircraft, and others he has located and then remained with them whilst sending messages of guidance to surface craft which has taken them aboard. Flight Lieutenant Harcourt has displayed great courage and devotion to duty, setting an inspiring example.

Acting Flight Lieutenant John Alexander HAYLOCK (Aus.403739), Royal Australian Air Force, No. 148 Squadron.

This officer has completed a very large number of sorties and has invariably displayed a high degree of skill and courage. This was amply demonstrated during a recent operation against a far distant objective. Although the target was obscured by heavy cloud, Flight Lieutenant Haylock persisted in his task and eventually pressed home an accurate attack from a low level. On the return flight extremely adverse weather was encountered and the situation became serious. Nevertheless, this resolute pilot battled on and, by a superb effort reached base. On other occasions, Flight Lieutenant Haylock has achieved success in the face of heavy odds. His achievements have been worthy of high praise.

Flying Officer Kenneth Robert AMES (133400) Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 61 Squadron.

This officer was the pilot of an aircraft which attacked Kassel one night in October, 1943. Soon after the bombs had been released the aircraft was attacked by a fighter. The enemy aircraft was shot down but the bomber had sustained extensive damage and 2 of its crew had been wounded. Almost immediately, a second and then a third fighter attacked. Before Flying Officer Ames could fly clear further damage was sustained and a fire commenced causing some ammunition to explode. The flames were extinguished, however, and course was set for home. In the face of heavy odds, Flying Officer Ames battled on and reached an airfield in this country. This officer displayed exceptional skill, courage and resolution.

Flying Officer Neill Dudley Cox (124417) Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 39 Squadron.

This officer has participated in many sorties and has displayed great keenness and devotion to duty. On one occasion in September, 1943, Flying Officer Cox took part in an engagement against a force of enemy aircraft, 1 of which he shot down. The following day, during a similar sortie, Flying Officer Cox destroyed a Junkers 52. Shortly afterwards, he was engaged by 2 fighters. In the combat his aircraft was extensively damaged and his observer was seriously wounded. Later, when his aircraft could no longer be flown, Flying Officer Cox skilfully brought it down on to the sea. After assisting his gravely wounded comrade into the dinghy, Flying Officer Cox clambered aboard. Seeing his comrade was in dire need of assistance and that no progress could be made by paddling the dinghy, this gallant officer jumped overboard and swam to the shore a mile distant towing the dinghy as he went. His determination and forethought set a very fine example.

Flying Officer Raymond Stewart MODERA (118474), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 227 Squadron.

Flying Officer Modera has participated in a large number of sorties, involving attacks on shipping, harbour installations and other important targets. He is a resolute pilot, whose determination to ensure accurate bombing has been most commendable. Flying Officer Modera is a fine leader and has proved a source of inspiration.

Lieutenant Raymond Ponsonby BURL (24135V), South African Air Force, No. 7 (S.A.A.F.) Squadron.

This officer has completed a very large number of sorties, many of them in North Africa. He is a skilful and tenacious pilot, whose example of courage and devotion to duty have been inspiring. In recent operations over Cos, Lieutenant Burl destroyed one and assisted in the destruction of another enemy aircraft.

Warrant Officer Edward James LEDWIDGE (1165682), Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 46 Squadron.

Warrant Officer Ledwidge is a most determined pilot, whose excellent qualities have been well in evidence throughout the many sorties in which he has taken part. On one occasion, in an attack on a large concentration of shipping off Cos Island, Warrant Officer Ledwidge defied a fierce anti-aircraft barrage to close in on a naval vessel which he raked with bullets and hit with his bombs, setting the ship on fire. His aircraft was repeatedly hit, however, and one of the petrol tanks set alight. The flames spread rapidly and Warrant Officer Ledwidge was compelled to bring the burning aircraft down on to the sea. He got safely aboard the dinghy and, some 8 hours later, drifted ashore. This gallant pilot set an example of the highest order.

Distinguished Flying Medal.

Aus.405913 Flight Sergeant Michael William JACKSON, Royal Australian Air Force, No. 46 Squadron.

In air operations Flight Sergeant Jackson has displayed great keenness, skill and resolution. On a recent occasion he participated in an attack on a large concentration of shipping. In the face of intense anti-aircraft fire, Flight Sergeant Jackson pressed home his attack from a low level and obtained hits on one of the vessels. His aircraft was repeatedly hit and the rudder control wires were shot away. Nevertheless, he flew back to base where he effected a masterly landing. This airman displayed great courage, skill and devotion to duty.

1338643 Sergeant Harry Hamblin SHERER, Royal Air Force Volunteer Reserve, No. 51 Squadron.

One night in November, 1943, Sergeant Sherer piloted an aircraft detailed to attack Dusseldorf. On the outward flight, whilst many miles from the target, one of the bomber's engines caught fire. Sergeant Sherer, acting with promptitude and resource, quickly extinguished the flames but the engine was useless. Although the aircraft lost some height, this resolute pilot went on to the target and executed a successful attack. Sergeant Sherer, who has undertaken many sorties, has attacked his targets fearlessly and with vigour, setting a very fine example.

Air Ministry, 26th November, 1943.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the following awards:—
