

and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of St. Paul, Stepney, in the County of Middlesex and in the Diocese of London:

"Whereas we are satisfied that Ida de Beauchamp Goudge of Providence Cottage, Westerland, near Paignton, South Devon, widow, is the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Ida de Beauchamp Goudge desires to transfer the Advowson of the said Benefice to the Bishop of London for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof she has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Geoffrey Francis, Lord Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of St. Paul, Stepney, shall be transferred to the said Geoffrey Francis, Lord Bishop of London, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of London for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of February, 1944.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 3rd day of February, 1944, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1938, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for apportioning prospectively the income of the Benefice of Hessele in the County and Diocese of York (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') between the said Benefice and such Benefice or Benefices in the same patronage as may be nominated by the Patron upon the taking effect of the Scheme:

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice is vested in Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors and is exercised on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain for the time being:

"And whereas we are of opinion that after the apportionment of income of the said Benefice proposed in the Scheme sealed by us on the 13th day of January, 1944, more than competent provision will still exist for the Incumbent of the said Benefice from the endowments thereof so soon as a charge of £200 per annum payable thereout upon the retirement from the said Benefice of the Reverend Canon Charles Henry Lenton, the former Incumbent thereof, under the Clergy Pensions Measures 1926 to 1936 shall have ceased and determined:

"And whereas it has been represented to us that the further apportionment of income of the said Benefice now proposed will be desirable with a view to making better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or Parishes of some Benefice or Benefices in the same patronage but that the Benefice or Benefices to be augmented in value should not be specified until the charge above-mentioned shall have ceased:

"And whereas we have agreed that, if the further apportionment of income herein proposed be directed in favour of our common fund, such grant or grants as the Lord High Chancellor acting on Your Majesty's behalf may with the consent of the Archbishop of York for the time being request shall be made by us from the said fund from the taking effect of the apportionment and up to the annual value at that time of the apportionment:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with a view to enabling additional provision to be made for the cure of souls in any Parish or Parishes of any Benefice or Benefices the patronage whereof is exercisable on behalf of Your Majesty by the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain and with the consents of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cyril, Archbishop of York and the Right Honourable John Viscount Simon, now Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain acting on behalf of Your Majesty as the Patron of the said benefice (in testimony of which consents they have executed this Scheme) do humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which the charge above-mentioned of £200 per annum payable out of the income of the said Benefice on the retirement therefrom of the said Charles Henry Lenton shall finally cease and determine and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same a sum of £4,297 14s. 10d. £3 per cent. Savings Bonds (1955-65), and a sum of £2,368 17s. 9d. Nottingham Corporation £3 per cent. Irredeemable Stock, now held by us for the said Benefice of Hessele (or other the securities representing any re-investment of the same) shall cease to form part of the endowments of that Benefice and shall become vested in us as securities, the income from which is to be carried to our Common Fund."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of York.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of February, 1944.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 3rd day of February, 1944, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for changing the name of the Parish of St. Wilfrid, Cuckfield, in the Diocese of Chichester, and for altering the boundaries of that Parish and of the Parish of Wivelsfield in the same Diocese:

"Whereas by an Order in Council published in the London Gazette of the 20th February, 1866, there was assigned to the church of St. Wilfrid situate at Haywards Heath in the Parish of Cuckfield in the said Diocese of Chichester a District Chapelry by the name of 'St. Wilfrid, Cuckfield,' and the said District Chapelry is now a Parish:

"And whereas the said Parish of St. Wilfrid, Cuckfield, comprises the town and Civil Parish of Haywards Heath or the principal part thereof and the name of St. Wilfrid, Cuckfield, is no longer suitable:
