WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION ACT, 1925.

The Secretary of State for the Home Department gives notice that he is considering the appointment of a Medical Referee under the above Act for the

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England on Friday, the 24th March, 1944, at 1 p.m. for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the National Loans Acts, 1939 to 1943, to the amount of £90,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000, £10,000, £50,000 or £100,000. They will be dated at the option of the tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 27th March, 1944, to Saturday, the 1st April, 1944, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000 and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of Cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 1.30 p.m. (Saturday 12 noon) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

Sheriff Court District of Ayr (Sheriffdom of Ayr) in place of the late Dr. William Landsborough.

Applications for appointment should be addressed to the Secretary, Scottish Home Department, St. Andrew's House, Edinburgh 1, and should reach him not later than 8th April, 1944.

SOUTH SUBURBAN GAS COMPANY.

NOTICE is hereby given that in accordance with a resolution passed by the stockholders of the Company at their annual meeting on the 24th February, 1944, and approved by the Ministry of Fuel and Power on the 3rd March, 1944, the following further variations have been made in the Scheme for the Election of Employee Directors:—

(1) The following words shall be added at the end of Section 2:—

"during the time that the provisions of such Section are in force".

(2) The following words shall be added at the beginning of Section 4:—

"The provisions of this Section shall come into force immediately after the cessation of the emergency that was the occasion of the passing of the Emergency Powers (Defence) Act, 1939".

(3) The following words shall be added at the beginning of Section 8:—

"(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of this Section".

(4) The following words shall be added at the end of Section 8:—

"(2) The Directors of the Company may from time to time make such special arrangements as they may think fit for obtaining and recording the votes of employees temporarily absent from the service of the Company while serving with the Forces of the Crown or performing work of National importance to which they have been directed by competent authority".

(5) Sections 9, 10 and 10a shall be deleted and the following sections inserted in place thereof:—

"9. After the 31st day of March, 1944, provided the Co-partnership Committee shall have so requested, three Employees' Directors shall be elected, each at a separate election and on a separate date to be fixed by the Directors of the Company. The first of such elections shall be held as soon as conveniently may be after the said 31st day of March. The second and third elections shall be held on such respective dates as shall not be earlier than the date on which the Employees' Director elected at the immediately preceding election is declared to be elected. At each election the Employees' Director then longest in office shall retire but shall, if duly qualified, be eligible for re-election.

10. (1) On the 30th day of November next following the date on which the Employees' Director elected at the last of the elections mentioned in the last preceding Section is declared to be elected, but not before the 30th day of November, 1945, and thereafter on the 30th day of November in each year the Employees' Director then the longest in office since his last election shall retire but shall, if duly qualified, be eligible for re-election.

(2) On the 31st day of October next following the date on which the Employees' Director elected at the last of the elections mentioned in the last preceding Section is declared to be elected, and thereafter on the 31st day of October in each year an Employees' Director shall be elected to fill the vacancy to be created by the Employees' Director retiring on the immediately succeeding 30th day of November. Provided that if the said 31st day of October falls on a Sunday the Employee Director shall be elected on the immediately succeeding day.

10A. If an Employees' Director shall die or resign that office or cease to be employed by the Company or cease to hold the necessary qualification, an Employees' Director shall be elected to take his place at a date to be fixed by the Directors of the Company within two months of the occurrence of the vacancy but shall be subject to retirement at the same time as if he had become an Employees' Director on the day on which the Employees' Director in whose place he is appointed was last elected as an Employees' Director. If, however, the Employees' Director vacating the office as aforesaid would have been due to retire within the said two months, the vacancy shall not be filled under the foregoing provisions of the section but shall be filled on the date on which the Employees' Director so vacating the office would have been due to retire if he had not vacated the office as aforesaid".
