

Hamburg, Oct. 15. Letters from Carlisle say, that upon the News of the Miscocitas advancing towards Nerua, the King of Sweden had increased the Forces to be sent to Lithuania, to 20000 Men; which would delay the sailing of this Convoy for a few days, but in the mean time several Vessels would be sent away with Succours to Nerua. The King of Sweden was still at Carlskruven, and continued his Resolution of going to Lithuania.

Loe, Oct. 18. The King hunted the Stag the 9th Instant, and went that night to Dieren, and the 11th His Majesty diverted himself with Shooting, and returned to this Place in the evening. A Prince of the House of Saxe-Gotha is come hither to wait on His Majesty. The King intends to go from hence next Wednesday to S. Jylke; To be the day following at the Hague; And to embark within few days for England.

Hague, Oct. 19. Sir George Rothe is arrived in the Maef with the Squadron of English Men of War and Yachts that are to attend His Majesty in his return to England. The Electors of Brandenburg and the Electors of Hanover are expected here the next week from Brussels, as is likewise the Electoral Prince of Brandenburg, who is now visiting the principal Towns in the Netherlands. The Prince of Hesse, eldest Son to the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel, and the Princess his Wife, set out from hence the 14th Instant in order to return to Germany. The Baron of Lillierost, Ambassador from Sweden, has lately presented a Memorial to the States-General, to acquaint them, that the King his Master being attacked by the Czar of Muscovy, finds himself obliged to demand their Assistance, according to what is stipulated by the Treaties of Alliance between them.

Brussels, Oct. 19. On the 12th Instant an Express arrived here from Madrid with Letters of the 30th past, giving an Account, that the King of Spain was in a very dangerous condition, and had received the Extrem Unction; But another Courier arrived this morning from Madrid, by which the Elector of Bavaria received a Letter dated the 5th Instant from the Secretary of the Universal Dispatch, who writes, That he had been that day a long time in the King's Chamber; That His Catholick Majesty was much better; He rested very well the night before, and his Fever had almost left him. The Electoral Prince of Brandenburg came to this Place the 6th Instant from Holland, and parted from hence the 15th in order to return thither. The Elector's his Mother, and the Elector's Dowager of Hanover, arrived here the 13th from Aix-la-Chapelle, and they are entertained by the Elector and Electors of Bavaria with Opera's, Contents of Musick, and other Diversions; They intend in two or three days to go from hence to the Hague.

Paris, Oct. 20. N. S. We have an Account from Fontainebleau, where all the Foreign Ministers now are, that the Spanish Ambassador received the 14th an Express, with Letters from Madrid dated the 6th Instant, in the morning, which gave an Account, that the King of Spain was much better; And Count Zinzendorf, the Emperor's Envoy, received Letters by the same Courier to the same effect. But this Court has for several days received no Express from Spain. The Marshal de Boufflers is going to the French Flanders, to assemble the States of that Country. The King has resolved to borrow 18 Millions of Livers upon the Credit of the Town-house of Paris. The Dutchess de Chartres fell ill the 15th Instant, upon which the Duke and Dutchess of Orleans, and the Duke of Chartres, came hither that day from Fontainebleau, intending to stay here till she is brought to Bed, and afterwards to return to Fontainebleau, where the Court will continue till the 15th of the next Month. The Duke and Dutchess of Burbon, and the Prince of Conte, came to this Place the 18th Instant to see the Prince of Conte, who is ill of the Gout. The Count de Montyon, who is lately made Director-General of the French Cavalry, has obtained a Pension of 16000 Livers a year; and one of 8000 Livers a year is given to Montieur Magnard d'Amolfin, who succeeds him as Inspector-General.

Notwithstanding frequent Publications have been made, of the Frauds and Abuses of the Collectors of the Duties upon Marriages, &c. and also upon Widows; yet two Collectors of Waltham-Stow in Essex for the year 1699. have been lately found Guilty of Concealing and Detaining to their own Use the Sum of 11 L. 17 s. for which Fraud one of them hath been fined to the King 20 l. and the other 10 l. and compelled to pay the same accordingly.

Also several Persons in Middlesex and Wiltshire that ought to have tendered and paid according to their Qualities within 20 days after the Duties on Marriages, Births, &c. or as Batchellors and Widowers, became due, but have neglected or refused so to do, have been compelled to pay double the Duty, according to the late Act of Parliament.
