S.O. Code No. 65-36587

The first part of the book deals with the early history of the United States, from the time of the first European settlers to the end of the American Revolution. It covers the exploration of the continent, the establishment of the first colonies, and the struggle for independence from British rule.

The second part of the book deals with the early years of the United States, from the end of the American Revolution to the beginning of the Civil War. It covers the development of the federal government, the expansion of the territory, and the growing tensions between the North and the South.

The third part of the book deals with the Civil War and Reconstruction, from the beginning of the war to the end of Reconstruction. It covers the military and political events of the war, the Reconstruction era, and the struggle for civil rights.

The fourth part of the book deals with the late 19th and early 20th centuries, from the end of Reconstruction to the beginning of World War I. It covers the Gilded Age, the Progressive Era, and the rise of the United States as a world power.

The fifth part of the book deals with the 20th century, from World War I to the present. It covers the Great Depression, World War II, the Cold War, and the modern era.
