APPENDIX.

CATERING WAGES ACT, 1943.

Recommendation for the establishment of a Wages Board.

The Catering Wages Commission in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by Section 4 of the Catering Wages Act, 1943, hereby make to the Minister of Labour and National Service a recommendation that a wages board be established in respect of the workers to whom the Schedule to this recommendation applied and their employers.

Signed by order of the Catering Wages Commission this day of , 1944.

Secretary of the Commission.

SCHEDULE.

1. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 hereof the workers to whom this Schedule applies are all workers employed in Great Britain in a catering undertaking and who are so employed either—

(1) for the purposes of such of the activities of the undertaking as are carried on at a licensed residential establishment or at a licensed restaurant or at a railway refreshment establishment or at a licensed workers' hostel; or

(2) in connection with the provisions of food or drink or living accommodation provided wholly or mainly for workers employed for the purposes of any of the activities of the undertaking specified in sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph;

and who are engaged on any of the following work, that is to say:—

(a) the preparation of food or drink;

(b) the service of food or drink;

(c) work incidental to such preparation or service;

(d) work connected with the provision of living accommodation;

(e) work in connection with any retail sale of goods on premises where the main activity is the supply of food or drink for immediate consumption or the provision of living accommodation for guests or lodgers or partly the supply of food or drink as aforesaid and partly the provision of living accommodation as aforesaid;

(f) transport work;

(g) work performed at any office or at any store or warehouse or similar place or at any garage or stable or similar place;

(h) any work other than that specified in sub-paragraphs (a) to (g) hereof performed on or about the premises or place where food or drink is prepared or served or where living accommodation is provided, including work in connection with any service or amenity provided on or about such premises or place.

2. This Schedule does not apply to any of the following workers in respect of their employment in any of the following circumstances, that is to say:—

(1) workers who are employed by the same employer partly in a catering undertaking and partly in some other undertaking, if their employment in the catering undertaking is confined to work specified either in sub-paragraph (f) or sub-paragraph (g) of paragraph 1 hereof or partly to work specified in the said sub-paragraph (f) and partly to work specified in the said sub-paragraph (g), and they are mainly employed on work in or in connection with that other undertaking;

(2) workers who are employed for the purposes of the activities carried on at any of the following establishments, that is to say:—

(a) any hospital, nursing home or convalescent home or similar establishment providing accommodation for the sick, infirm or mentally defective;

(b) any institution or home where living accommodation is provided for the aged or indigent;

(c) any university, college, school or similar establishment; and who are employed by the person or body of persons carrying on the establishment, or, in the case of any of the establishments specified in sub-paragraph (c) hereof, by the person or body of persons carrying on any boarding house which forms part of the establishment;

(3) workers who are employed for the purposes of any of the activities carried on in a railway train;

(4) workers who are employed for the purposes of any of the activities carried on at a theatre, music-hall or other similar place of entertainment ordinarily used for the public performance of stage plays or variety entertainments;

(5) workers who are employed for the purposes of any of the activities carried on in the course of a catering contracting business;

(6) workers who are employed for the purposes of any of the activities of a central catering establishment;

(7) workers who are employed for the purposes of the activities carried on at a licensed restaurant if the licensed restaurant is situated on premises where the main activity is the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises otherwise than with meals supplied on the premises;

(8) workers who are employed by the Crown or by a local authority;

(9) workers who are employed in an industrial or staff canteen undertaking as defined in the Wages Board (Industrial and Staff Canteen Undertakings) Order, 1944.

3. In this Schedule the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them:—

"catering contracting business" means a business or part of a business wholly or mainly engaged in supplying food or drink for immediate consumption—

(a) on premises not ordinarily occupied by the person or body of persons carrying on the business; or

(b) in a railway train where the business is carried on otherwise than by a railway company; and any activities incidental or ancillary thereto;

"catering undertaking" means any undertaking or any part of an undertaking, which consists wholly or mainly in the carrying on (whether for profit or not) of one or more of the following activities, that is to say, the supply of food or drink for immediate consumption, the provision of living accommodation for guests or lodgers or for persons employed in the undertaking and any other activity, so far as it is incidental or ancillary to any such activity as aforesaid of the undertaking;

"central catering establishment" means an establishment wholly or mainly engaged in the preparation of food or drink for immediate consumption at two or more places of refreshment carried on by the person or body of person carrying on the establishment but does not include an establishment wholly or mainly engaged on the preparation of food or drink for consumption on the same premises or in the same building as those on which or as that in which the establishment itself is carried on and for the purpose of this definition a place of refreshment means any place which is used either regularly or occasionally as, or for the purposes of, a restaurant, dining room, cafe, tea shop, buffet or similar place or a coffee stall, snack bar or other similar stall or bar;

"licensed residential establishment" means:—

(1) an hotel, inn, boarding house, guest house, hostel or similar establishment, including a holiday camp:—

(a) which either contains four or more rooms ordinarily available as sleeping accommodation for guests or lodgers or if it contains less than four such rooms which contains sleeping accommodation ordinarily available for not less than eight guests or lodgers; and

(b) at which it is lawful for intoxicating liquor to be sold for consumption on the premises or to be supplied for consumption on the premises by reason of the fact that part of the premises is habitually used for the purposes of a registered club;

but does not include any hostel or similar establishment provided by or by arrangement with an employer wholly or mainly for the purpose of accommodating persons employed by him;

(2) a club:—

(a) which either contains four or more rooms ordinarily available as sleeping accommodation for guests or lodgers or if it contains less than four such rooms which contains sleeping accommodation ordinarily available for not less than eight guests or lodgers; and

(b) at which it is lawful for intoxicating liquor to be supplied for consumption on the premises;

"licensed restaurant" does not include any place which forms part of a licensed residential establishment or which constitutes or forms part of a railway refreshment establishment or any place at which intoxicating liquor can legally be sold or supplied for consumption on the premises by reason only of the fact that in relation to that place an occasional licence is for the time being in force, being a licence granted to some person other than the person carrying on, or a person in the employment of the person carrying on, the activities (other than the supply of intoxicating liquor) of a catering undertaking at that place; but, save as aforesaid, means any place which is used either regularly or occasionally as, or for the purposes of, a restaurant, dining room, cafe, or similar place at which it is lawful to sell (or supply in the case of a restaurant, dining room or cafe of a club) intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises and includes any bar or other place wholly or mainly used for the sale (or supply in the case of a club) and consumption on the premises of intoxicating liquor if the bar is situate on the same premises as any such restaurant, dining room, cafe or similar place as aforesaid and the activities of such restaurant, dining room, cafe or similar place constitute the main catering business carried on at the premises;

"licensed workers' hostel" means a hostel or similar establishment provided by or by arrangement with an employer wholly or mainly for the purpose of accommodating persons employed by him otherwise than in a catering undertaking at which it is lawful for intoxicating liquor to be for consumption on the premises or to be supplied for consumption on the premises by reason of the fact that part of the premises is habitually used for the purposes of a registered club;

"railway refreshment establishment" means any place of refreshment which is situated at a railway station, being a place of refreshment the activities of which are carried on by a railway company, and for the purpose of this definition any place of refreshment means a place which is used either regularly or occasionally as, or for the purposes of, a restaurant, dining room, cafe, tea shop, canteen or similar place or coffee stall, buffet or bar.
