

day of June, 1945, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowsons or perpetual rights of patronage of and presentation to the churches and cures (hereinafter called 'the said two benefices') of Lilleshall and Sheriffhales with Woodcote, both in the county of Salop and in the diocese of Lichfield:

"Whereas we are satisfied that the Right Reverend Edward, now Bishop of Lichfield, in his private capacity, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said two benefices in case the same were now vacant and that the transfer (as hereinafter recommended and proposed) will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"And whereas the said Edward, Bishop of Lichfield, desires to transfer the advowsons of the said two benefices to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Lichfield and in evidence thereof and in token of his consent as Bishop of the said diocese has executed this Scheme:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowsons or perpetual rights of patronage of and presentation to each of the said two benefices shall be transferred to the said Edward, Bishop of Lichfield, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Lichfield for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Lichfield.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of August, 1945.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 14th day of June, 1945, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice of Humberstone, in the county and diocese of Leicester, between that benefice and the benefice of Stanford with Swinford in the same county and diocese:

"Whereas the patronage of each of the said benefices is vested in the Leicester Diocesan Board of Patronage:

"And whereas we are of opinion that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls in the parish of the said benefice of Stanford with Swinford by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Humberstone, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed, and that the said benefice of Humberstone will thereafter still be sufficiently endowed:

"And whereas the said benefice of Humberstone is now full, the Reverend John Tarleton Hodgson being the present incumbent thereof:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Guy Vernon, Bishop of Leicester, as Bishop of the diocese within which the said two benefices are situate and with the consent of the said Diocesan Board of Patronage (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme) We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the date of the avoidance of the said benefice of Humberstone by the said John Tarleton Hodgson and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme a sum of £1,000 3% Savings Bonds 1955-65 and a sum of £500 London Midland and Scottish Railway 4% Debenture Stock now held by us in trust for the said benefice of Humberstone shall cease to form part of the endowments of that benefice and shall be held by us in trust for and as part of the endowment of the said benefice of Stanford with Swinford."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Leicester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of August, 1945.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of July, 1945, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter 108, and of the Act of the 21st and 22nd years of Her said late Majesty, chapter 57, which Acts are known as 'the Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts,' and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1936, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme relating to the benefice of Saint Botolph, Bishopsgate, in the City and Diocese of London:

"Whereas the annual value of the said benefice has been improved by the amount of the ground rent receivable by the incumbent for the time being under the lease referred to in the Schedule hereto annexed, which lease was effected under the authority of the said Acts during the incumbency of a former rector or incumbent of the said benefice:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Michael, Bishop Suffragan of Willesden, now the incumbent of the said benefice, is consenting to this Scheme, in testimony whereof he has signed the same:

"And whereas the annual income of the said benefice will, subject to the ratification of this Scheme by a duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council, be maintained by us at £2,000 after provision has been made by the incumbent for the stipend of any assistant curate employed by him:

"And whereas we have also agreed as from the date of the coming into effect of any such Order ratifying this Scheme to substitute permanent annual charges of £300 and £250 on our Common Fund under the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1938, in favour of the benefices of Saint Giles in the Fields and Christ Church with Saint Mary and Saint Stephen, Spitalfields, both in the said diocese of London, respectively in substitution for the charges of the same amounts at present payable to the incumbents of those benefices out of the income of the said benefice of Saint Botolph, Bishopsgate:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme the whole estate and interest of the incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Botolph, Bishopsgate, in the property described in the said Schedule shall, subject to and with the
