CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS
OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

21st August, 1945.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointments to the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire:—

To be an Additional Officer of the Military Division of the said Most Excellent Order:

Acting Temporary Lieutenant-Commander James Alfred WRIGHT, R.N.R. (Newport Pagnall).

For outstanding coolness, skill and daring whilst serving in H.M.S. Honeysuckle in taking his ship alongside and rescuing survivors from H.M.S. Goodall. H.M.S. Goodall was blazing from stern to bow at the time and still carrying her ammunition.

To be an Additional Member of the Military Division of the said Most Excellent Order:

Lieutenant James Stanley DALLAWAY, Royal Navy.

For example, courage and good leadership in saving the lives of survivors when H.M.S. Goodall was torpedoed and set on fire and his Commanding Officer was killed.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS
OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

21st August, 1945.

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the award of the British Empire Medal (Military Division) to the undermentioned:—

Acting Leading Telegraphist John William ASH, P/JX.159818 (Stoke-on-Trent).

Able Seaman James WALDEN, P/JX.235968 (Bury).

For gallantry, coolness of action and unselfish devotion to duty in the rescue of survivors after H.M.M.L. 258 had struck a mine.

ADMIRALTY.

Whitehall,

21st August, 1945.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the following appointments to the Distinguished Service Order and to approve the following awards:—

For great gallantry, steadfastness and devotion to duty whilst serving in H.M. Submarine Shark. On the 6th July, 1940, the Shark was forced to come to the surface through damage inflicted by aircraft and could neither dive nor steer a course for home. She fought off continuous attacks by sea-planes, bombers and fighters for more than three hours and caused at least one aircraft to retire seriously damaged. When all ammunition was expended, all secret matter was destroyed and the ship was sunk, the survivors became prisoners of war:

To be a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order:

Lieutenant-Commander Peter Noel BUCKLEY, Royal Navy.

The Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieutenant-Commander Denis Hugh Bryan BARRETT, Royal Navy.

Cyril Coltman LODER, Warrant Engineer, Royal Navy.

The Distinguished Service Medal.

Temporary Acting Chief Engine Room Artificer Frederick William Edmund HAMMOND, B.E.M., C/MX.48845.

Engine Room Artificer First Class Alexander Stables McDONALD, D/M.14537.

Petty Officer Charles Francis TARRATT, D/J.108143.

Petty Officer Telegraphist Joseph John NEVITT, P/JX.130284.

Leading Seaman Charles William URRY, P/J.101583.

Able Seaman Ivor Augustus CLARK, D/JX. 97226.
