HOVE.

Whereas by the Hove Commissioners Act, 1873 (hereinafter called "the local Act") certain special powers were conferred upon Commissioners to execute the purposes of the local Act:

And whereas those powers now vest in the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Hove (hereinafter called "the Corporation"):

And whereas the Corporation have made application to the Minister of Health (hereinafter called "the Minister") for the issue of a provisional order under Sections 297 and 303 of the Public Health Act, 1875, to repeal, alter or amend the local Act in part so as:—

(1) to repeal Part V—Private Enclosures—of the local Act and in particular to provide that:—

(a) the pleasure grounds in the centre of Brunswick Square, Adelaide Crescent and Palmeira Square and the pleasure ground opposite Medina Villas known as "the Lawn" shall cease to be subject to restrictions as to use by certain inhabitants of the Borough;

(b) the said pleasure grounds shall become public parks and pleasure grounds within the meaning of the Public Health Act, 1875, and any Act amending or extending that Act;

(2) to provide in respect of the said pleasure grounds that:—

(a) any balance of the private improvement rates levied by the Corporation in pursuance of the local Act shall be carried to and form part of the general rate fund of the Borough together with any moneys paid or to be paid to the Corporation as compensation;

(b) any deficit or overdraft in relation to any such improvement rates shall be discharged out of the general rate;

(c) any private improvement rates made and demanded by the Corporation shall be deemed to have been properly and lawfully made;
