The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice that the following Regulations are published with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, viz.:—

REGULATIONS RESPECTING A SPECIAL LIMITED COMPETITION FOR THE CLASSES OF(1) SHORTHAND TYPIST (FEMALE)*(2) TYPIST (FEMALE)*IN THE CIVIL SERVICE.

1. Candidates must have completed three months' continuous service in a British Government Department immediately prior to the last day for the receipt of applications for the competition in one or more of the following capacities, viz.: Temporary Shorthand Typist, Grade I or II, Temporary Typist, or juvenile trainee being trained as a member of the typing grades.

2. Candidates must have been born not earlier than the 2nd September, 1928, and not later than the 1st June, 1930.

3. Every candidate must be either

(a) a natural-born British subject

(i) having at least one parent who is or was at the time of death a British subject; or

(ii) of any other parentage, provided that she has resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of her appointment; or

(b) a naturalized British subject who has resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of her appointment; or

(c) A British subject who, although not fulfilling the requirements of sub-paragraph (a) or sub-paragraph (b), satisfies the Commissioners that she is so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may properly be made in her favour.

4. Every candidate must have had whole-time continuous and systematic education until at least the age of 15, but the Commissioners will accept as eligible a candidate whose whole-time education ended before that age if she

(a) has passed the School Certificate examination of one of the examining bodies recognised by the Ministry of Education or an examination accepted by the Commissioners as of equivalent or higher standard; or

(b) if educated in Scotland or Northern Ireland, is able to obtain from the Scottish Education Department or the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland, as the case may be, a statement showing that she has attained a standard equivalent to that indicated in paragraph (a); or

(c) before reaching the age of 16, took up whole-time employment in a Government Department or other Government establishment and has continued in such employment up to the time of her application.

5. Every candidate must satisfy the Commissioners as to her health and character.

6. Every candidate must be unmarried or a widow and if appointed will ordinarily be required to resign her appointment on marriage.

7. (a) Application for permission to attend the examination must be made at such time and in such manner as may be fixed by the Civil Service Commissioners; the application must be accompanied by a certificate from the authorities of the Department in which the candidate is serving, in the space provided on the application form, that she satisfies the conditions laid down in Clause I of these regulations that she has made satisfactory progress, and that in the event of her success the Department is prepared to accept her as an established member of the Typing grades, subject to the existence of a vacancy.

(2) A candidate may apply to compete under these Regulations for either Class or both. Every candidate must state on her Application Form for which Class or Classes she desires to compete and, if she is competing for both classes must express her preference between them.

8. (x) Candidates will be required to undergo a competitive written examination consisting of papers in English and Arithmetic, a General Paper, and a test of General Intelligence.

(2) Candidates must obtain such an aggregate of marks in the examination as a whole as will satisfy the Commissioners.

(3) The order of merit of the candidates in the two Classes will be determined by the aggregate of marks of the subjects detailed in the first section of this paragraph.

(4) In addition to the written examination

(a) every candidate for appointment as Typist will undergo a qualifying test in typewriting (the marks of which will not count towards the aggregate), unless she has passed an examination in typewriting conducted by the Royal Society of Arts in which a speed of not less than 50 words a minute was required, and

(b) every candidate for appointment as Shorthand Typist will (i) undergo the qualifying test in typewriting prescribed for a typist, unless she has obtained the above mentioned exempting qualification, and (ii) also undergo a qualifying test in shorthand (the marks of which will not count towards the aggregate), unless she has passed an examination in shorthand conducted by the Royal Society of Arts in which a speed of not less than 120 words a minute was required.

9. (1) A candidate for appointment as Shorthand Typist who has failed to qualify in typewriting and/or shorthand but who would otherwise have been successful may, if her performance in the subject or subjects of failure shows that she may be expected to reach the required standard after a short period of training, be appointed as Trainee Shorthand Typist; and if so appointed, she will be required to pass a test in the subject or subjects of failure before appointment as Shorthand Typist and to pay such additional fee on undergoing the test as may be prescribed.

(2) A candidate for appointment as Typist who has failed to qualify in typewriting but who would otherwise have been successful may, if her performance in typewriting shows that she may be expected to reach the required standard after a short period of training, be appointed as Trainee Typist; or, if she has failed to show sufficient proficiency in typewriting for appointment as Trainee Typist, she may be appointed as Learner Typist. A Trainee Typist or Learner Typist will be required to pass a test in typewriting before appointment as Typist and to pay such additional fee on undergoing the test as may be prescribed.

10. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (that is, the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, or the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland, as the case may be) has been notified to the Commissioners.

11. The Civil Service Commissioners will determine the Departments to which successful candidates will be assigned, having regard to the requirements of the public service. Subject to this condition, the Commissioners will normally assign successful candidates to the Departments and towns in which they had been serving, and, failing that, will endeavour so far as may be possible to give effect to the candidates' preferences.

12. Every candidate shall pay an application fee of 5s., whether she is competing for one class or both; this fee must be paid when the Application Form is sent in. Every successful candidate will be required to pay a further fee of 15s. before the issue of a certificate of qualification for appointment.

The Civil Service Commissioners further give notice that a Special Limited Competition will be held under the foregoing Regulations commencing on 28th June, 1946. Some candidates may be required to take a shorthand test on 27th June. The examination will be held in London and certain provincial towns which will be fixed when information is available of the localities in which the candidates are employed.

No person will be admitted to the examination from whom the Secretary of the Civil Service Commission has not received, on or before the 28th March, 1946, an application in the candidate's own handwriting, on a prescribed form of which a copy may be obtained from the Secretary at once.

Civil Service Commission, 15th February, 1946.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby announce the undermentioned appointment in the month of January 1946 under certain provisions of the General Regulations made under the Order in Council of the 22nd July 1920:—

CERTIFICATE ISSUED UNDER CLAUSE 10 (D) OF THE GENERAL REGULATIONS.

Admiralty: Departmental Clerical Class (Salary Scale of Class), Alexander Forbes (age 55) 31st.

Promoted from the unestablished class, having attained the age of 55.

The Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, in pursuance of Clause 13 of the General Regulations made under the Order in Council of the 22nd July, 1920, that, with the approval of the Lords Commissioners of H.M. Treasury, they have prescribed that a fee of 5s. shall be payable by an Established Trainee Typist, Learner Typist or Clerical Assistant on undergoing the test in typewriting prescribed for appointment as Typist, and that a fee of 5s. shall be payable by an Established Trainee Shorthand Typist, Typist or Trainee Typist on undergoing the test in shorthand prescribed for appointment as Shorthand Typist.

ELECTRICITY (SUPPLY) ACT, 1919.

SOUTH-EAST ENGLAND ELECTRICITY SCHEMES, 1927 TO 1940.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application has been made to the Electricity Commissioners by the North Metropolitan Power Station Company Limited for the consent of the Commissioners under Section 11 of the Electricity (Supply) Act, 1919, to establish a generating station for the purposes of the South-East England Electricity Schemes, 1927 to 1940, on land in the urban district of Hoddesdon, in the county of Hertford, containing 90 acres or thereabouts. The site is bounded on or towards the north-west by the London & North Eastern Railway, on or towards the east by the River Lea Navigation, and on or towards the south-west partly by Essex Road, partly by the enclosures Nod. 188 and 289 and partly by the south-westerly portion of the enclosure Nod. 185 on the Ordnance Map (Scale 1/2500), Hertfordshire, Sheet XXXVIII.5 (Edition of 1920), and comprises the enclosures Nod. 145, 146, 147, 180, 181, 183, 184, 186, 187 and 290 and parts of the enclosures Nod. 139, 140 and 185 on the same sheet of the said Ordnance Map.

A plan showing the land in question together with a plan and an elevation drawing of the proposed generating station and a description of the machinery proposed to be installed therein, has been deposited for public inspection at the office of the Hoddesdon Urban District Council, Council Offices, High Street, Hoddesdon, Herts, and at the registered office of the Company, Northmet House, Southgate, N.14.

If any owners or lessees of property situate within 300 yards of the proposed site wish to state objections to the application they must do so by registered letter addressed to the Secretary, Electricity Commission, Savoy Court, Strand, London, W.C.2, within 30 days from the date hereof and send a copy of the objection to the undersigned.

For and on behalf of the North Metropolitan Power Station Company Limited, EVELYN BOYS, Secretary.

NOTICE—All Notices and Advertisements are published in The London Gazette at the risk of the Advertiser.

All Notices and Advertisements by Private Advertisers may be tendered at or sent direct by post to the Office of The London Gazette, H.M. Stationery Office, 429, Oxford Street, W.1, for insertion at the authorised rates of payment. The office hours are from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., closing at 12 noon on Saturdays.

All Notices and Advertisements must be prepaid. To save delay, Notices and Advertisements sent direct by post should be accompanied by Postal Orders, made payable to The London Gazette. Notices and Advertisements paid for by cheque will not be inserted until such cheques have been cleared.

Notices of Dissolution of Partnership will not be inserted unless signed by the Partners named therein, or by their legal representatives; and the signature or representative character of the signatory must be verified by Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.

A Notice of Dissolution of Partnership not signed by all the Partners, or their legal representatives, must be accompanied by a Statutory Declaration made by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court to the effect that such notice is given in pursuance of the terms of the partnership to which it relates.

Advertisements purporting to be issued in pursuance of Statutes or under Orders of Court will not be inserted unless signed or attested by a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.

Advertisements relating to Bills before Parliament will not be inserted unless signed by a Parliamentary Agent or a Solicitor of the Supreme Court.
