

the parishes of the said benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

" 2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme is published in the London Gazette, the union shall forthwith take effect and the Reverend James Ralph Caldecott Forrest, if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Swanbourne, shall with his consent (testified by his signature hereto), be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

" 3. Parsonage House. Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Swanbourne shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

" 4. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the said benefice of Little Horwood having the right of the presentation after the union."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 to 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of March, 1946.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 14th day of March, 1946, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation, to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Terrington, in the county and diocese of York:

" Whereas we are satisfied that Judith Isabel Wimbush of Coombe, Seafeld Avenue, Exmouth, Devon, Widow, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

" And whereas the said Judith Isabel Wimbush desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Archbishop of York for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof she has executed the same):

" And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cyril, Archbishop of York (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Cyril, Archbishop of York, and his successors in the same Archbishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Archbishop of York for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of York.
