

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of October, 1946.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 24th day of October, 1946 (C.W.59:53/46), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of service in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas under the provisions of Order in Council dated the 22nd January, 1920 (No. 87/CW), Schedule V, Section VIII, A (iv), the age for compulsory retirement in the case of Instructor Captains is 55 years:

"And whereas Instructor Captain William Isaac Saxton, C.B., M.A., R.N., will attain the age of 55 on the 16th November, 1946:

"And whereas we consider that this officer should be retained on the Active List of the Royal Navy, at our discretion, whilst holding the appointment of Director of Education Department, Admiralty:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased, by your Order in Council, to sanction the retention of the said Instructor Captain William Isaac Saxton, C.B., M.A., R.N., on the Active List of the Royal Navy, after the 16th November, 1946, at our discretion: "The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of October, 1946.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 659 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894 (57 & 58 Vict. c. 60) (which is a section in Part XI of that Act) it is enacted (among other things) that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, fix the establishments to be maintained by each of the General Lighthouse Authorities on account of the services of lighthouses, buoys and beacons, or the annual or other sums to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of those establishments:

"And whereas by Section 738 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, it is (among other things) provided that where His Majesty has power under that Act or any Act thereafter to be passed amending the same, to make an Order in Council, His Majesty may from time to time make that Order in Council and by Order in Council revoke, alter or add to any Order so made:

"And whereas by Section 1 of the Merchant Shipping (Mercantile Marine Fund) Act, 1898 (61 & 62 Vict. c. 44), it is (among other things) provided that references in Part XI of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, to the Mercantile Marine Fund shall be construed as references to the General Lighthouse Fund by the now recited Act constituted:

"And whereas by an Order in Council made on the 22nd day of October, 1937 (Printed in the London Gazette 29th Oct., 1937) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Order") the clerical establishment which might be maintained by the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") being one of the General Lighthouse Authorities referred to in the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and the salaries to be paid out of the General Lighthouse Fund in respect of that establishment were duly fixed:

"And whereas it is expedient that the sums so fixed to be paid out of the General Lighthouse Fund to the holder of the post of Secretary should be altered in manner hereinafter appearing:

And whereas the provisions of Section 1 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893 (56 & 57 Vict. c. 66) have been complied with:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in exercise of the powers conferred upon Him as aforesaid and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf and by and with the advice of His Privy Council doth order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Trinity House (Establishment) (Amendment) Order, 1946, and shall come into operation on the date of publication in the London Gazette.

2. In place of the salary specified in Part I of the Second Schedule to the principal Order for the holder of the post of Secretary the salary shall be £1,200 per annum rising by annual increments of £50 to a maximum of £1,600.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in the principal Order or this Order, the salary of the present holder of the post of Secretary shall be £1,650 per annum and the said salary may be paid to him as from the 1st January, 1946.

4. The sums payable under the provisions of this Order shall be paid out of the General Lighthouse Fund.

5. The Interpretation Act, 1889 (52 & 53 Vict. c. 63), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of October, 1946.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 3rd day of October, 1946, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Walsall in the county of Stafford and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the Right Reverend Edward, now Bishop of Lichfield, in his private capacity, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant and that the transfer (as hereinafter recommended and proposed) will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"And whereas the said Edward, Bishop of Lichfield, desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese and in evidence thereof and in token of his consent as Bishop of the said diocese has executed this Scheme:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Edward, Bishop of Lichfield, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Lichfield for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.
