Vance, Febr. 24. The Imperial Forces have of late made freal Marches and Countermarches, and feem to have fome morant Delign in hand. The French are fortifying Common with all possible diligence; They have considerably remarked the Garden of that Place, and have posted a Body wheir Troops behind the River Adda. Letters from Rome in, the Pope has resolved to take 4000 Swifs into his Servic; and that he has ordered part of his Troops to be posted in the Frontiers of the Ecclesiastical State on the side of him, and the risk on those Frontiers which border on takingdom of Naples. The Differences between the Court of Rome and the Duke of Savoy, concerning the Right of lessation to the Bueslees in Piedmont, are grown to such inglish, that the Pope has threatned the Duke with Exemunication if he does not comply.

mmunication if he does not comply.

Name, March 1. The Emperor has ratified the Insty lately concluded between him and the King affoliand, who thereby engages to fend 10000 Men into is service. A Treaty is as good as concluded with in Dukes of Saxe Weymar and Saxe-Eysenach, for you Men to recruit the Imperial Forces in Italy. Orders are given for sending thither several Regiments from Hungary and Transilvania. The Different continues, that the King of the Romans will command the Imperial Army on the Rhine next Summer. Commissions are given out for raising 6 Regiment. ment the imperial Army on the Knine next Sum-ner. Commissions are given out for raising 6 Regi-ments of Hussars. Count Koningseck, who upon the imperor's Avocatoria has quitted the Service of the letter of Cologne, arrived here two days ago from Bon. Letters from Italy say, 18000 Imperial Forces were in motion, with a Design, as was said either to much towards Milan, or to possess themselves of the such towards Milan, or to possess themselves of the Town of Placentia. The French had abandoned formzuola and Monticello in the Country of Pla-entia, into which Places Prince Thomas of Vaudecont, who commands the German Forces quartered on that side, had put good Garrisons. Tis said, the Emperor has ordered the Estates of Prince Ragorski, and the Persons who were concerned with him in the late Conspiracy in Hungary, to be fold, and the Money applied to the use of the Publick, which 'tis farill bring in 3 Millions of Florins.

Berlin, March 7: The King of Pruessa has given Orders for a Regiment of Horie, another of Dragoons, and several Battalions of Foot, to march to Prussa, which, with the Forces already there, will make about 10000 Men, besides the Militia; and Commissions are given out for raising, several new Regiments. The Swedish Forces in Pomeren are ordered to be in a readiness to march, to prevent the sending of any Forces from Saxony to Poland. The Troops which the King of Prussa is to send into the Service of the States General are marching towards Holland, the Princes of Lunenburgh having granted them Passage through their Territories, and the Margrave Albert, who is to command these Troops, prepares for his departure. Letters from Warsaw of the 26th of the last Month say, the Senare of Poland have resolved to send Deputies to the King of Sweden, to desire he will withdraw his Forces out of the Territories of Poland, and in case of Resussa, to call another Country. They have also advised the King to call another Dier; after which the Assembly broke up on the 25th, and divers of the Senarors retired to their Country Houses. The last Letters from the Swedish Army say, the King of Sweden had been to view Creitengen, Szweigsten, and several other Towns in Samogitia, and was come to Keydan; from whence he intended to go to a Place called Remigola, to give Audience there to the Deputies of Poland; and that a Body of the Confederated Nobility of Lithuania being got together near Grodno, he had sen a Detachment of his forces that way, with Orders to attack them.

Francfort, March 8. Deputies from the Circles of Austria, Bavaria, Franconia, Suabia, and the Upper Rhine, are shortly to meet at Norlingen, to concert together the Measures to be taken in this Conjuncture for their Common Safety. The Diet of the Circle of the Upper Rhine have given Directions for augmenting their Forces. Count Nassaw Weilbourg. Generall of the Elector Palatine's Forces, has been to view the ing their Forces. Count Nassaw Weilbourg. General? of the Elector Palatine's Forces, has been to view the Lines raised on the other side the Rhine to cover the Palatinate, which are almost finished, and he is expected here in a day or two. A Placart has been published here, to forbid the Supplying of the French with Horses, under very severe Penalties. The French are making preparations at Strasbourg, Landau, and their other Frontier Towns in Alface, as if they apprehended a Siege. The French Envoy at Mentz is preparing for his return home.

Cologne, March 10. The Bishop of Raab is gone from hence to Dusseldorp, to be present at a great Council of War to be held there; the Generals of the Dutch and the Prussian Forces in these Parts are also gone thither for the same purpose, and 'tis expected,' the Forces of the Allies will draw together in few days, in order to recover the Places the French have made themselves Masters of in the Bishopricks of Cologne and Liege. The French have lately brought Cologne and Liege. The French have lately brought fome Cannon and Ammunition to Bon; They have a Body of Forces near Bruel, between that Place and this City, and are drawing more Troops together near Nuys. They write from Dusseldorp, That the Elector Palatine has received an Express from Rome, with an Account, That the Pope has determined the Differences between his Electoral Highness and the Dutchess of Orleans, in relation to her Pretentions upon the Succession of the late Elector Palatine, which were referred to him by Virtue of an Article of the Treaty of Ryswick, upon the Emperor and the French King's not adjusting the same within the limitted time. The Sentence is, That the Elector should pay to the Dutchess 600000 Florins, in full satisfaction of all her Demands, out of which Sum is to be deducted whatever the may have hitherto received in Money or Effects, which amounting to about 900000 Florins, the Dutchess remains indebted 300000 Florins to his Electoral Highness.

Hamburgh, March 10. Letters from Warsaw give an Account, That the Senate of Poland is separated, after having resolved to send Deputies to the King of Sweden; It was proposed to them to consider of satisfying the Demands of the King of Prussa, who satisfying the Demands of the King of Prussia, who presses for the Payment of the 300000 Dollars which are due to him from the Republick, according to the Treaty concluded between them about a years ago
