FRIDAY, 4 JULY, 1947

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of July, 1947.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 25th day of June, 1947 (C.W.15072/47), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council bearing date the 8th day of December, 1944, special regulations were approved for the promotion of certain Warrant and Commissioned Ordnance Officers to the rank of Ordnance Lieutenant:

"And whereas under those regulations the age of compulsory retirement is forty-five years:

"And whereas the compulsory retirement of the two officers who have reached that age—Acting Ordnance Commander J. W. A. Adams, R.N., and Ordnance Lieutenant Commander J. W. Cable, R.N.—would be against the interest of Your Majesty's Naval Service owing to the dearth of trained Ordnance Officers therein:

"And whereas we are of the opinion that these two officers should be retained on the Active Service List until they reach the age of fifty years, their service beyond the age of forty-five years counting for retired pay as service on the Active List under normal rules:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to sanction the retention of these officers accordingly."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 3rd day of July, 1947.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is enacted by section 12 of the Coinage Act, 1870, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time by Order to make regulations respecting the trial of the pyx and all matters incidental thereto, and in particular respecting certain matters specified in the said section:

And whereas regulations respecting the trial of the pyx were made by the Trial of the Pyx Order in Council, 1871 (in this Order referred to as "the Order of 1871"):

And whereas the Order of 1871 was amended by the Trial of the Pyx Order in Council, 1901 (in this Order referred to as "the Order of 1901"):

And whereas the Orders of 1871 and 1901 were amended by the Trial of the Pyx Order, 1927 (in this Order referred to as "the Order of 1927"):

And whereas it is expedient further to amend the Orders of 1871 and 1901 and to revoke the Order of 1927:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, in pursuance of the said Act and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Trial of the Pyx Order, 1947.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889, shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. The Order of 1927 is hereby revoked.

3. Reference in the Order of 1901 to the Order of 1871 shall be construed as reference to that Order as amended by this Order.

4. The following oath shall be administered to the jury in substitution for the oath provided for in the Order of 1871:—

"You shall well and truly, after your knowledge and discretion, make the assays of these moneys of gold, silver and cupro-nickel, and truly report if the said moneys be in weight and fineness or composition according to the standard weights for weighing and testing the coins of the realm, and the standard trial plates of gold, silver, copper and nickel used for determining the justness of the gold, silver and cupro-nickel coinage of the realm in the custody of the Board of Trade, and be in conformity with the schedules to the Coinage Acts, 1870 to 1946, so help you God."

5. The following provisions of this Order shall have effect in substitution for the provisions in the Order of 1871 beginning with the words "That with a view to the trial of the pyx" and ending with the words "weighed and assayed as aforesaid":

6.—(1) The Master or Deputy Master of the Mint shall with a view to the trial of the pyx cause to be set aside one gold coin out of every two thousand pieces ready for issue and at least one silver or cupro-nickel coin from each journey weight consisting of not more than seven hundred and twenty ounces troy of silver or cupro-nickel coins.

(2) The gold, silver and cupro-nickel coins so set apart shall be kept in such numbers of packets as may be convenient, and the said packets shall be sealed up at the Mint before being taken to the trial.

7. The jury shall ascertain the number of coins in each packet produced to them and whether that number corresponds with the number which the officers of the Mint represent the packet to contain.

8. The jury shall take out from each packet of gold coins as many coins as they think necessary for the purpose of the trial of the gold coins and—

(a) shall weigh separately each of the coins taken out so as to ascertain whether it is within the remedy as to weight;

(b) after weighing the coins separately, shall melt all the coins weighed into an ingot and assay the ingot, comparing it with the standard trial plate of gold, so as to ascertain whether the metal of the ingot is within the remedy as to fineness;

(c) shall weigh in bulk the residue of the coins remaining in the packets of gold coins so as to ascertain whether they are on the whole within the remedy as to weight;

(d) after weighing the residue of the coins, shall take out of the residue as many pieces as they think fit and weigh and assay them separately.

9. If the packets of silver coins or of cupro-nickel coins respectively weigh in all more than twelve ounces troy, the jury shall take out from each packet as many coins as they think necessary, not weighing less in all than twelve ounces troy, for the purpose of the trial of the silver coins or of the cupro-nickel coins, and—

(a) shall weigh each twelve ounces troy of the coins taken out so as to ascertain whether the coins so bulked are within the prescribed remedy as to weight;

(b) shall assay separately such number of coins as they think fit, not weighing less in all than twelve ounces troy, comparing them with the trial plates so as to ascertain whether the metal of the coins is on the whole within the remedy as to fineness or composition;

(c) shall weigh in bulk the residue of the coins remaining in the packets so as to ascertain whether they are on the whole within the remedy as to weight.

10. If the packets of silver coins or of cupro-nickel coins respectively weigh in all not more than twelve ounces troy, the jury shall take all the coins for the purpose of the trial of the silver coins or of the cupro-nickel coins, and—

(a) shall weigh in bulk the coins so as to ascertain whether they are on the whole within the remedy as to weight;

(b) shall assay such number of the coins as they think fit, comparing them with the trial plates so as to ascertain whether the metal of the coins is on the whole within the remedy as to fineness or composition.

11. The jury shall by their verdict—

(a) find whether the ingot consisting of the melted gold is or is not within the variation from the standard fineness allowed under the Coinage Acts, 1870 to 1946;

(b) declare the weight and millesimal fineness of each of the gold coins separately weighed and assayed;

(c) find whether each twelve ounces troy of silver coins or of cupro-nickel coins weighed and assayed as aforesaid or such less amount as has been weighed and assayed is on the whole within the variation from fineness or composition and standard weight allowed under the Coinage Acts, 1870 to 1946;

(d) find as respects gold, silver and cupro-nickel coins whether the coins weighed in bulk are on the whole within the variation from the standard weight allowed under the Coinage Acts, 1870 to 1946.

If the jury find that in any case there is any variation from the standard weight or fineness or composition, they shall specify in their verdict the amount of the variation.
