Most Gracious Sovereign, WE Your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, humbly crave Leave to express our great Concern for the Death of His late Majesty, King William the Third, of ever blessed Memory, (the great Restorer of our Religion and Liberties) and also to profess our great Satisfaction at your happy Accession to the Throne; and that which has extremely added to our happy Accession to the Throne, is your Majesty's Declaration to your Privy-Council, and your Speeches to your Parliament, which give us an entire Assurance of your Goodness, and oblige us to pray for your long and prosperous Reign over us; and that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support and defend Your Majesty, your Crown and Dignity, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other your Enemies whatsoever, and upon all Occasions approve our selves your most faithful and obedient Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough of Guildford was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Richard Ouseley, Bart. their Secretary, and several other Gentlemen of the County of Surrey, introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, then Lord Lieutenant.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, and Approved Men, of the Town of Guildford in the County of Surrey.

Calling to mind (most Gracious Sovereign) the blessed Deliverance of this Church and State from a Foreign Yoke by Queen Elizabeth, (of glorious Memory) notwithstanding the utmost Efforts to the contrary by the ambitious Power of Spain, asserted by the Popish Authority, we are abundantly comforted in Your Majesty's happy Accession to the Imperial Crown of your Royal Ancestors in the Demise of our late Sovereign Lord and King, who was the Nursing Father of the Reformed Churches, and so the Guardian of the Liberties and Peace of Europe. Your Majesty's most Gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament, speaks Your Majesty in the true Interest of England to have a true Care for your People, Religion, and the present Establishment of our Church and State. And therefore (most Dread Sovereign) we humbly crave Leave to assure Your Majesty, that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support and defend Your Majesty, your Crown and Dignity, against all your Enemies whatsoever, and all Pretenders whatsoever, and to the reducing the Exorbitant Power of France, left your Royal Sovereignty, the Reformed Religion, together with the Liberties, Peace, and Trade of all your Dominions, join become Prosperous.

May the God of Peace and Victory bless Your Majesty's just and necessary Arms with the most happy Success, and give you the Hearts of your People, that we may be as a City at Unity within it; and give you many and happy Days to Reign over us.
