MINISTRY OF HEALTH.

COAST PROTECTION ACT, 1939.

Harlyn Bay and Rock Bay, Wadebridge, Cornwall.

Notice is hereby given in pursuance of paragraph 4 of Part I of the First Schedule to the Coast Protection Act, 1939, that the draft Orders set out below as settled by the Minister of Health are to be laid before Parliament for approval in accordance with the subsequent provisions of Part I of the First Schedule unless by the 1st day of October, 1947, a memorial is presented to the Minister by some person having an interest, right or privilege conferred on him by any local or private Act which would be affected by either Order specifying the interest, right or privilege claimed and praying that the Order shall not become law without confirmation by Parliament in accordance with Part II' of the said First Schedule.

Dated this 15th day of August, 1947.

R. F. Tyas,
Assistant Secretary.

Ministry of Health,
Whitehall, London, S.W.1.

DRAFT ORDER.

THE HARLYN BAY (CORNWALL) COAST PROTECTION ORDER, 1947, DATED 1947, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 1 OF THE COAST PROTECTION ACT, 1939 (2 & 3 GEO. 6. c. 39).

Whereas it is provided by subsection (1) of section 1 of the Coast Protection Act, 1939 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") that where the Board of Trade are of opinion that it is desirable for the protection of any part of the coast of Great Britain from erosion, or for the prevention of damage to any lands, including harbour works, by the action of the sea, that such an order as is hereinafter mentioned should be made, the Board may, subject to compliance with the provisions contained in the First Schedule to the Act by order prohibit, restrict or impose conditions as to the excavation, removal or other disturbance of all or any materials on, under, or forming part of such portions of the seashore as may be specified in the Order, except minerals more than fifty feet below the surface:

And whereas by virtue of the Minister of Shipping (Transfer of Functions) Order, 1939 (S.R. & O. 1939 No. 1470), the Ministers of the Crown (Minister of War Transport) Order, 1941 (S.R. & O. 1941 No. 654), the Ministry of War Transport (Dissolution) Order, 1946 (S.R. & O. 1946 No. 375), and the Transfer of Functions (Coast Protection) Order, 1947 (S.R. & O. 1947 No. 609), the powers conferred upon the Board of Trade as aforesaid are now vested in the Minister of Health (hereinafter referred to as "the Minister"):

And whereas the requirements of paragraphs 1 to 3 of Part I of the First Schedule to the Coast Protection Act, 1939, have been complied with, and the Minister is of opinion that it is desirable for the protection of the coast of Cornwall from erosion and for the prevention of damage to lands in that county by the action of the sea that this order should be made:

Now therefore the Minister, in exercise of the powers vested in him as aforesaid and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following order:—

1. The excavation, removal or other disturbance of any materials on, under, or forming part of the seashore in Harlyn Bay within a distance of 250 feet measured from a point on the seaward edge of the coping stone of the northern parapet wall on Harlyn Bridge vertically above the centre of the arch thereof, or within a distance of 75 feet from the foot of any cliff composed of sand or similar loose and friable material, except minerals more than 50 feet below the surface, is hereby prohibited.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889 (52 & 53 Vict. c. 63) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This Order may be cited as the Harlyn Bay (Cornwall) Coast Protection Order, 1947.

NOTE.—Any person acting in contravention of this Order is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50 and in the case of a continuing offence to an additional fine not exceeding £5 for every day during which, after the person has been convicted thereof, the offence continued.

DRAFT ORDER.

THE ROCK BAY (CORNWALL) COAST PROTECTION ORDER, 1947, DATED 1947, MADE BY THE MINISTER OF HEALTH UNDER SECTION 1 OF THE COAST PROTECTION ACT, 1939 (2 & 3 GEO. 6. c. 39).

Whereas it is provided by subsection (1) of section 1 of the Coast Protection Act, 1939 (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") that where the Board of Trade are of opinion that it is desirable for the protection of any part of the coast of Great Britain from erosion, or for the prevention of damage to any lands, including harbour works, by the action of the sea, that such an order as is hereinafter mentioned should be made, the Board may, subject to compliance with the provisions contained in the First Schedule to the Act by order prohibit, restrict or impose conditions as to the excavation, removal or other disturbance of all or any materials, on, under or forming part of such portions of the seashore as may be specified in the order, except minerals more than fifty feet below the surface.

And whereas by virtue of the Minister of Shipping (Transfer of Functions) Order, 1939 (S.R. & O. 1939 No. 1470), the Ministers of the Crown (Minister of War Transport) Order, 1941 (S.R. & O. 1941 No. 654), the Ministry of War Transport (Dissolution) Order, 1946 (S.R. & O. 1946 No. 375), and the Transfer of Functions (Coast Protection) Order, 1947 (S.R. & O. 1947 No. 609), the powers conferred upon the Board of Trade as aforesaid are now vested in the Minister of Health (hereinafter referred to as "the Minister"):

And whereas the requirements of paragraphs 1 to 3 of Part I of the First Schedule to the Coast Protection Act, 1939, have been complied with and the Minister is of opinion that it is desirable for the protection of the coast of Cornwall from erosion and for the prevention of damage to lands in that county by the action of the sea that this order should be made:

Now therefore the Minister, in exercise of the powers vested in him as aforesaid and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following order:—

1. The excavation, removal, or other disturbance of any material on, under, or forming part of the seashore at Rock between the coast and a line drawn 280° (true) from the south-west corner of the Quay, Rock, through the outer end of the Old Jetty for a distance of 1,500 feet from the Quay and thence 090° (true) till it meets the coast, except minerals more than fifty feet below the surface, is hereby prohibited.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889 (52 & 53 Vict. c. 63), shall apply to the interpretation of this order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. This order may be cited as the Rock Bay (Cornwall) Coast Protection Order, 1947.

NOTE.—Any person acting in contravention of this order is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £50 and in the case of a continuing offence to an additional fine not exceeding £5 for every day during which, after the person has been convicted thereof, the offence continues.

THERAPEUTIC SUBSTANCES.

Notice is hereby given under the Rules Publication Act, 1893, that it is proposed by the Joint Committee constituted under subsection (1) of section 4 of the Therapeutic Substances Act, 1925, after the expiration of at least 40 days from this date, and in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by sections 1 and 5 of the Therapeutic Substances Act, 1925, to make regulations entitled the Therapeutic Substances Amendment Regulations, 1947, for amending the Therapeutic Substances Regulations, 1931 to 1946.

And that on account of urgency the said Joint Committee, under section 2 of the Rules Publication Act, 1893, has made regulations for the purpose aforesaid entitled the Therapeutic Substances Amendment Regulations, 1947, to come into operation forthwith as provisional rules in their application to
