At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 11th day of March, 1948

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 19th day of February, 1948, in the words and figures following, that is to say —

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for constituting a part of the parish of Laughton-en-le-Morthen and a part of the parish of Ulley both in the diocese of Sheffield a new parish

" SCHEME

"Whereas we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, are satisfied that the spiritual interests of the area defined in the subjoined schedule and delineated on the map hereto annexed would be best served by constituting it a new parish

"And whereas we are satisfied that a suitable endowment therefor will be provided

"And whereas there is no consecrated church within the area and the church of Saint Simon and Saint Jude therein has been approved by us as suitable to be the parish church of the new parish and is intended to be consecrated

"Now, Therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Leslie, Bishop of Sheffield (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and affixed his episcopal seal to this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose as follows that is to say

"1 Constitution that (a) as from the licence thereto of a minister the area defined in the subjoined schedule and delineated on the map hereto annexed shall be a separate district for spiritual purposes until the consecration of the church of Saint Simon and Saint Jude therein situated and (b) as from the date of the consecration of the said church the area shall become a new parish and (c) the name of the district (or parish as the case may be) shall be 'The District (or Parish) of Saint Simon and Saint Jude, Thurcroft'

"2 Archdeaconry and Rural Deanery' That the parish shall be in the archdeaconry of Sheffield and in the rural deanery of Laughton.

" THE SCHEDULE

"The area comprising:—

All those contiguous portions of the said parishes of Laughton-en-le-Morthen and Ulley which taken together are bounded upon part of the north west by a detached portion of the parish of Rotherham, by a detached portion of the parish of Whiston, and by the parish of Wickersley, upon part of the north by the parish of Braithwell, upon another part of the north and upon part of the east by the said parish of Laughton-en-le-Morthen and upon the remaining sides that is to say, upon the remaining parts of the north, and the east, and upon the south, the south east, the south west, the west and upon the remaining part of the north west by an imaginary line commencing at a point where the footpath leading from Stacks Farm joins New Orchard Lane on the boundary which divides the said parish of Ulley from the said parish of Laughton-en-le-Morthen and extending thence eastwards in a straight line to the middle of the Braithwell and Laughton branch line of the London Midland and North Eastern Regions of the British Railways where the said branch line intersects Ramper Road and extending thence southwards along the middle of the said branch line to the point where it crosses the boundary which divides the civil parishes of Thurcroft and Dinnington and extending thence first north westwards and then in various directions along the boundaries which divide the said civil parish of Thurcroft from the said civil parish of Dinnington, and from the civil parishes of North and South Anston, Todwick and Aston cum Aughton to the point where they meet the boundary which divides the said civil parish of Thurcroft from the civil parish of Ulley and extending thence first northwards and then in various directions along the last mentioned civil boundary to its junction with Morthen Brook on the boundary which divides the said parish of Ulley from the said detached portion of the parish of Rotherham"

And whereas the provisions of the New Parishes Measure, 1943, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of his said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Sheffield
