Pursuant to Paragraph 5 of the Regulations for the drawing of 4 per cent. Victory Bonds, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that the twenty-ninth drawing of the Bonds will take place on Monday, 21st June, 1948.

The list of the drawn Bonds will be published as soon as possible after the draw, and in any case not later than 25th June, as a special supplement to the "London Gazette."

Buckingham Palace, 2nd June, 1948.

This day had Audience of The KING:—

His Excellency Monsieur Henry de Torrenté, to present the Letters of Recall of his predecessor Monsieur Paul Ruegger, and his own Letters of Credence as Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the Swiss Confederation.

Whitehall, May 28, 1948.

The KING has been pleased to award the Albert Medal to Temporary Lieutenant (E) Eric William Kevin Walton, D.S.C., R.N., a member of the Falkland Islands Dependencies Survey, in recognition of his gallantry in the following circumstances:—

At about 12 noon on 24th August, 1946, while on a sledging journey, a member of the Survey fell through a badly-bridged crevasse and disappeared. Major Tonkin had fallen some 40 feet and was jammed in a narrow part of the crevasse. Ropes were lowered to him and he managed to get loops round his forearms, but no higher, and it was found impossible to pull him out as he was jammed in the ice. Lieutenant Walton volunteered to be lowered in the crevasse to free Major Tonkin by chipping. As an ice axe could not be used in the constricted space of the crevasse, the spike was sawn off and used as a hand tool. Lieutenant Walton was lowered down a wider part of the crevasse and worked his way along until he reached and succeeded in freeing Major Tonkin, who was eventually pulled to the surface, after having been three hours down the crevasse. During that time Lieutenant Walton was lowered down to him on five separate occasions, remaining down for considerable periods on each occasion. His persistence was most commendable, and it was due solely to his efforts that Major Tonkin was finally rescued.

Whitehall, May 31, 1948.

The KING has been pleased to award the King's Police and Fire Services Medal for Gallantry to the undermentioned officers of police:—

William Barron, Constable, Portsmouth City Police Force.

Thomas Beale, Constable, Metropolitan Police Force.
