PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Church Commissioners for England have prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Supplementary Scheme bearing date the 27th day of May 1948, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Supplementary Scheme, under Section 11 of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, for making certain alterations in the provisions of an Order of Your Majesty in Council dated the 4th day of November, 1938, and published in the London Gazette on the 8th day of the same month for effecting the union of the benefice of Blockley and the benefice of Aston Magna both situate in the diocese of Gloucester:

"Supplementary Scheme.

"Whereas by Clause 3 of the said Order of Your Majesty in Council it was directed that upon the union of the said benefices taking effect a curate should be employed to assist the incumbent in performance of the duties of the united benefice; that such curate should reside within the parish of Aston Magna; and that a portion of the endowments of the united benefice namely a part producing £250 0 0 per annum of the sum of money appropriated or to be appropriated by Queen Anne's Bounty to the said benefices pursuant to the Tithe Act, 1936, should be appropriated as a fund for the payment of the stipend of the said curate:

"And whereas by Clause 4 of the said Order of Your Majesty in Council it was directed that the net proceeds of sale of the parsonage house belonging to the said benefice of Aston Magna should be applied by the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as to such a sum as the Bishop of Gloucester should approve for and towards the provision of a house of residence at Aston Magna for the curate of the united benefice and that any residue of such net proceeds should constitute and form part of the Expenses Fund established pursuant to the 32nd Section of the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923:

"And whereas the union of the said benefices took effect on the 12th day of September, 1947:

"And whereas it has been represented to us and we are satisfied that since the making of the said Order of Your Majesty in Council the circumstances of the said benefices have so changed as to render it expedient that the directions contained in Clauses 3 and 4 of the said Order of Your Majesty in Council relating to the employment of a curate and to the application of the net proceeds of sale of the parsonage house belonging to the said benefice of Aston Magna should be altered:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, with the consent of the Right Reverend Clifford Salisbury, Bishop of Gloucester (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme) do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the said Order of Your Majesty in Council shall be altered as follows, that is to say:—

"1. There shall be substituted for the said Clause 3 the following new Clause:—

"3. That after the union has taken effect, a curate shall be employed by the incumbent to assist him in performing the duties of the united benefice, but in the event of the service of a whole-time curate not being available the incumbent shall employ such other clerical or lay assistance as the Bishop shall from time to time direct; and a portion of the endowments of the united benefice namely £250 0 0 per annum of the money appropriated by Queen Anne's Bounty to the said benefices of Aston Magna and Blockley pursuant to the Tithe Act, 1936, shall be appropriated by us, the said Church Commissioners, as a fund towards the cost of providing such assistance as aforesaid and such fund shall be paid by us to the Diocesan Board of Finance of the diocese as trustees to apply it accordingly:

"2. Notwithstanding anything contained in the said Clause 4 any house of residence provided pursuant to that Clause may be provided anywhere within the area of the united benefice."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefice Rules, 1926 to 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Supplementary Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Supplementary Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council is pleased hereby to affirm the said Supplementary Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

1. Candidates must have attained the age of 21 on the 1st January of the year in which the competition is held, and must have been born on or after 2nd August, 1905.

2. Candidates must be British subjects. They must also satisfy one of the following conditions:—

(1) If natural-born British subjects they must either

(a) have at least one parent who is or was at the time of death a British subject; or

(b) have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment;

(2) If naturalised British subjects they must have resided in His Majesty's dominions and/or been employed elsewhere in the service of the Crown for at least five years out of the last eight years preceding the date of their appointment;

(3) If not qualified under (1) or (2) they must satisfy the Commissioners that they are so closely connected with His Majesty's dominions either by ancestry, upbringing or residence, or by reason of national service, that an exception may be properly made in their favour.

3. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate Central Education authority (e.g. the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland) has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

No person actually serving in the Army, Navy or Air Force will be eligible for consideration unless he produces, when called upon to do so, the permission of his Commanding Officer to apply for appointment, dated before his appearance before the Selection Board, and given in accordance with such orders as may from time to time be issued.

4. The Scottish Home Department will take such steps as they think most appropriate to obtain applications and the Civil Service Commissioners will satisfy themselves that the steps taken have been sufficient.

5. Application shall be addressed in the first instance to the Director of Prison and Borstal Services, 29, St. Andrew Square, Edinburgh 1, and shall be made on a form to be obtained from that Office. The Director will examine the candidate's credentials and will propose to the Civil Service Commissioners the names of such candidates as appear to be best qualified. The Civil Service Commissioners, may, if dissatisfied with the number or quality of candidates for any vacancy, require further search to be made for suitable candidates. They may also, if they think fit, assist in the scrutiny of the application forms of the candidates.

6. Candidates must satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they have such experience and education as fit them for the post. In general, candidates should be men of sound general education, able to hold their own with all ranks and to fill a position of responsibility in which tact and judgment are required. They should have personal knowledge of the life of working-class lads. A keen interest in difficult reformatory work is essential.

7. Candidates who are proposed by the Director and are accepted by the Civil Service Commissioners as possessing the requisite qualifications will be summoned to an interview before a Selection Board consisting of representatives of the Scottish Home Department and of the Civil Service Commissioners, who will select for the vacancies existing those candidates who appear to them to possess the highest qualifications, provided they find so many suitable. The Selection Board will take into consideration the candidate's record of experience and education, any recommendations that they may receive from persons named by the candidates as having direct knowledge of their work in the past, and the personal qualities of the candidates as shown at this interview; and on their estimation of all the above evidence they will frame their decisions. The decision of the Selection Board will be final.

8. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons (except as referees to be named by them in their application form) will disqualify them for appointment. The Selection Board will disregard recommendations from persons who are not personally acquainted with the candidate's work, whether at school, at the university, in industry or business, in the Forces, or otherwise.

9. The appointment of selected candidates will be subject to their satisfying the Civil Service Commissioners as to their eligibility in respect of age, nationality, health and character, and will not be confirmed unless and until they have passed the prescribed period of probation to the satisfaction of the Director.

10. A selected candidate will be required to pay a fee of 7s. 6d. before the issue of the certificate of qualification for appointment.
