FRIDAY, 12 NOVEMBER, 1948

Crown Office, House of Lords, S.W.1.

8th November, 1948.

The KING has been pleased by Warrants under His Sign Manual dated the 8th day of November, 1948, to appoint Rowe Harding, Esquire, and William Brereton Couchman Lord Merthyr, T.D., to be Chairman and Deputy Chairman respectively of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Town and County of Haverfordwest in accordance with the provisions of the Administration of Justice (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1938.

TENDERS FOR TREASURY BILLS.

1. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby give notice that Tenders will be received at the Chief Cashier's Office, at the Bank of England, on Friday, the 19th November, 1948, at 1 p.m. for Treasury Bills to be issued under the Treasury Bills Act, 1877, the National Debt Act, 1889, and the National Loans Act, 1939, to the amount of £170,000,000.

2. The Bills will be in amounts of £5,000, £10,000, £25,000, £50,000 or £100,000. They will be dated at the option of the tenderer on any business day from Monday, the 22nd November, 1948, to Saturday, the 27th November, 1948, inclusive, and will be payable at three months after date.

3. The Bills will be issued and paid at the Bank of England.

4. Each Tender must be for an amount not less than £50,000 and must specify the date on which the Bills required are to be dated, and the net amount per cent. (being an even multiple of one penny) which will be given for the amount applied for. Separate Tenders must be lodged for Bills of different dates.

5. Tenders must be made through a London Banker, Discount House or Broker.

6. The persons whose Tenders are accepted will be informed of the same not later than the following day, and payment in full of the amounts of the accepted Tenders must be made to the Bank of England by means of cash or a Banker's Draft on the Bank of England not later than 1.30 p.m. (Saturday 12 noon) on the day on which the relative Bills are to be dated.

7. Members of the House of Commons are not precluded from tendering for these Bills.

8. Tenders must be made on the printed forms which may be obtained from the Chief Cashier's Office, Bank of England.

9. The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury reserve the right of rejecting any Tenders.

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACTS, 1944 AND 1947.EXTINGUISHMENT OF PUBLIC RIGHTS OF WAY.County Borough of West Ham.

Notice is hereby given that the Minister of Town and Country Planning, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by Section 23 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1944, as amended by the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947, proposes to make an order extinguishing the public rights of way over the following highways:—

Custom Street, Young Street, Wightman Street, Hill Street and the public footpath which connects these roads at the rear of the houses in Coolfin Road.

A copy of the draft order, a map showing the rights of way proposed to be extinguished and a map showing the intended layout of streets in the area may be inspected at the Town Clerk's Department (General Office), West Ham Town Hall, Stratford, E.15, without payment of fee, between the hours of 9 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. Mondays to Fridays, and 9 a.m. to 11.30 a.m. on Saturdays.

Any objection to this proposal must be made in writing, and addressed to the Minister of Town and Country Planning, 32, St. James's Square, London, S.W.1, before the 12th day of February, 1949.

The Minister is not, in all cases, required to cause a local inquiry to be held. It is important therefore, that an objection should include a full statement in writing of the grounds on which the objection is made as the objector may have no further opportunity to make such a statement.

Dated the 12th day of November, 1948.

GLADYS M. HOWEY, Secretary.

Romney Hythe & Dymchurch Light Railway Company, Littlestone, Kent.

WALTERS and CO., 9, New Square, Lincoln's Inn, London, W.C.2, Solicitors to the Company.

BYE-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

Made by The Romney Hythe & Dymchurch Light Railway Company (hereinafter referred to as "the Company") with the approval of the Minister of Transport.

For regulating the travelling upon and using and working of and for maintaining order in and upon the Company's Railways (hereinafter referred to as "the Railway") which expression means and includes all and each of the Railways, Railway Stations and approaches thereto, and all and each of the works and premises belonging to or leased to the Company, and with respect to which the Company has power to make regulations by Bye-Laws, and also all and each of the works by the Company's Special Acts authorised to be constructed.

1. Any person offending against any of the following Bye-laws numbered 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 19, 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25 respectively, shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings for a first offence, and not exceeding five pounds for any subsequent offence, and any person offending against either of the following Bye-Laws numbered 18 and 20 respectively shall be liable for every such offence to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

2. No person shall enter any carriage or vehicle upon the Railway, for the purpose of travelling, unless and until he or someone on his behalf shall have obtained from the Company, or from some other Company or person duly authorised in that behalf by the Company, a ticket entitling him to travel therein. Any person offending against this Bye-Law and failing to leave the carriage or vehicle immediately on request by any servant or agent of the Company, may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such servant or agent.

3. At all intermediate stations fares will be received and tickets issued conditionally only on there being room in the train for which such tickets shall be issued. In case there shall not be sufficient room for all the passengers to or for whom any such tickets shall have been issued, the holders of such as shall be for the longest distances shall, as far as reasonably practicable, have the preference, and the holders of such as shall be for the same distance shall, as far as reasonably practicable, have priority according to the order in which such tickets shall have been issued, as denoted by the numbers stamped thereon. The Company are not, however, to be deemed to undertake that such order of preference or priority shall be adhered to.

4. When the fare to an intermediate station exceeds the fare to a more distant station, no person shall, for the purpose of travelling to such intermediate station, take or use or attempt to use a ticket for the more distant station, with intent to avoid payment of the additional fare to such intermediate station. The liability to or infliction of any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law shall not prejudice any right of the Company to treat such ticket as forfeited and to recover the full fare for the distance actually travelled by the offender.

5. No person shall alter, deface, mutilate or destroy any passenger ticket, season ticket, dog ticket, or bicycle ticket after it has been issued and whilst it is available for use, with intent to enable the Company to be defrauded or prejudiced; or knowingly and wilfully use or attempt to use any such ticket which shall have been in any respect materially altered, defaced or mutilated.

6. No person shall sell or buy or attempt to sell or buy any ticket (which expression in this Bye-Law includes any passenger ticket, season ticket, dog ticket, bicycle ticket, book of passenger tickets, and any portion detached from the remainder of any such ticket or book) or transfer or receive any partly used ticket or any season ticket to or from any other person with intent that any person shall use the same for the purpose of travelling or conveyance upon the Railway, unless the ticket shall at the time of issuing thereof purport to be transferable, and no person shall knowingly and wilfully use or attempt to use any ticket which has been sold, bought, transferred or received in contravention of this Bye-Law.

Provided that the sale or attempted sale by or the purchase or attempted purchase from a duly authorised servant or agent of the Company is excepted from the provisions of this Bye-Law.

7. When a carriage or compartment of a carriage upon the Railway contains the full number of Passengers which it is constructed to carry, no additional person shall enter or remain therein if requested by a guard of the train or any servant or agent of the Company not to do so. Any person offending against this Bye-Law and failing to quit such carriage or compartment immediately on request by such guard, servant, or agent, may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such guard, servant, or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

8. Except by permission of a guard of the train, no person of the male sex above the age of eight years shall travel or attempt to travel or remain in any carriage or compartment of a carriage marked or notified as being reserved or appropriated for the exclusive use of persons of the female sex. Any person offending against this Bye-Law and failing to quit such carriage or compartment immediately on request by a guard of the train or any servant or agent of the Company, may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of any such guard, servant or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

9. No persons, except a servant or agent of the Company in the performance of his duty, shall mount or attempt to mount on any railway engine or on the roof of any wagon, carriage or vehicle upon the Railway, or travel or attempt to travel on or in any luggage or guard's van or wagon, or on or in any carriage or vehicle not provided for conveyance of passengers, or on the step or footboard or any part other than a part provided for the conveyance of passengers of any wagon, carriage or vehicle. Any person offending against this Bye-Law and failing to desist immediately on request by any servant or agent of the Company, may be removed from the engine, van, wagon, carriage or vehicle, or from the Railway, by or under the direction of such servant or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

10. No person except a servant or agent of the Company in the performance of his duty shall open or attempt to open any gate or door of any lift shaft, or lift, or enter or leave, or attempt to enter or leave any lift which is in motion or otherwise than at the place appointed for passengers to enter or leave the same.

11. No person, except a servant or agent of the Company in the performance of his duty, shall open the door, or stand or attempt to stand on the step or footboard of any carriage or vehicle upon the Railway whilst it is in motion or (except in case of accident or other emergency) between stations, or enter or leave or attempt to enter or leave any such carriage or vehicle whilst it is in motion or (except as aforesaid) between stations or otherwise than at the side of the carriage or vehicle adjoining the platform or place appointed for passengers to enter or leave the train; and where in any such carriage or vehicle one door is indicated by notice for entrance thereto and another door for exit therefrom no person shall (except in case of accident or other emergency) enter or leave or attempt to enter or leave such carriage or vehicle except by the door indicated for entrance or exit respectively.

12. No person except a servant or agent of the Company in the performance of his duty shall enter or attempt to enter or cross or attempt to cross any part of the Company's property whatsoever except by such entrances or crossings as may be provided by the Company for the purpose of such entrance or crossing. Any person offending against this Bye-Law and failing to depart from the Company's property immediately on request by any servant or agent of the Company may be removed from the Company's property by or under the direction of such servant or agent without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

13. No person shall remain upon any part of the Company's property if a reasonable request by a servant or agent of the Company to depart therefrom is made to him. Any person offending against this Bye-Law and failing to depart from the Company's property immediately upon such request as aforesaid may be removed from the Company's property by or under the direction of such servant or agent without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

14. Except by permission in writing of a station-master or other officer of the Company, duly authorised in that behalf, no person suffering from any infectious or contagious disease or disorder shall enter or remain and no person having the custody, charge or care of any such person shall cause or permit such person to enter or remain in or upon the Railway or in any carriage upon the Railway, and the Company may refuse to receive or carry any such person, or to permit any such person to enter, remain, or be in or upon the Railway, or in any such carriage, or to travel on the Railway. Any person suffering as aforesaid, and any person having the custody, charge or care of any such person may be removed from any such carriage or from the Railway, by or under the direction of any servant or agent of the Company, and shall be liable to the Company for the cost of disinfecting the Company's premises and any carriage in which such person shall have been, and to make good any other damage to the property of the Company through the infraction of this Bye-Law, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by such infraction.

15. No person in a state of intoxication shall enter or remain in or upon the Railway or any carriage of the Railway and no person who is in an unfit or improper condition to travel by passenger train or whose dress or clothing is in a condition liable to soil or injure the linings or cushions of any carriage, or the dress or clothing of any passenger, shall enter or remain in any carriage upon the Railway, provided that no person shall be prevented from entering or remaining in a carriage under the provisions of this Bye-law on the ground of the condition of his dress or clothing when he so enters, or remains in the carriage with the permission of the guard of the train, or when the carriage is provided or set apart for workmen. Any person offending against this Bye-law and failing to quit the Railway or any such carriage immediately upon request by any servant or agent of the Company may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such servant or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

16. No person shall at any time while in or upon the Railway or in any carriage or vehicle upon the Railway use any threatening, abusive, indecent, obscene, profane, or offensive language to the annoyance or hindrance of any other person, or behave in a riotous, disorderly, indecent or offensive manner, to the annoyance or hindrance of any other person, or write, draw or affix any abusive, indecent, obscene, profane, or offensive word, representation, or characters, or commit any nuisance in, upon, or against any part of the Railway or of such carriage or vehicle, or molest or wilfully interfere with the comfort or convenience of any passenger or person on the Railway. Any person offending against this Bye-law and failing to quit the Railway or such carriage, or vehicle immediately upon request by any servant or agent of the Company may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such servant or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-law.

17. No person shall take or cause to be taken into, or cause or allow to remain in any passenger carriage upon the railway, if requested not to do so by a guard of the train, or any servant or agent of the Company: (a) any dog, bird, reptile, or other animal; or (b) any article or thing which by reason of its nature is in the opinion of such guard, servant or agent calculated to cause, or, in fact, does cause, annoyance to any passenger or damage to any property.

If any person in charge of any such animal, article, or thing fails when requested by such guard, servant, or agent immediately to remove the same from the carriage, then the same may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such guard, servant or agent without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

18. No person shall take into, or place in or upon or cause to be taken into or placed in or upon the Railway or any carriage or vehicle upon the Railway, any loaded firearm, loaded gun, or loaded weapon of any kind, nor shall any person, except by permission in writing of an officer of the Company duly authorised in that behalf, take into or place in or upon, or cause to be taken into or placed in or upon the Railway or any such carriage or vehicle, any inflammable explosive or corrosive gas, spirit, liquid, substance or matter, or any article or thing which is or may become dangerous to any passenger or property. But nothing in this Bye-law shall apply to small quantities of spirit or liquid carried for the personal use of such person, and not for the purpose of trade or business, provided that all due precautions are taken for the prevention of accident or injury therefrom. If any person offending against this Bye-law fails to remove from the Railway or any such carriage or vehicle immediately upon request by any servant or agent of the Company, any article or thing to which this Bye-law relates, the same may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such servant or agent without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-law.

19. No person shall smoke in any carriage or compartment of a carriage upon the Railway not provided for smoking, or in or upon any part of the Railway where smoking is expressly prohibited by the Company, or if requested by any servant or agent of the Company not to do so in or upon any part of the Railway where smoking may be dangerous. Any person offending against this Bye-law and persisting in so offending after being once warned by any passenger or servant or agent of the Company to desist, and failing to quit such carriage, compartment, or part of the Railway immediately upon request by any servant or agent of the Company, may be removed therefrom by or under the direction of such servant or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

20. No person shall wilfully, wantonly or maliciously move or set in motion any lift, carriage or vehicle upon the Railway, or break, cut, scratch, tear, soil, deface or damage such lift, carriage or vehicle or any of the fittings, furniture, decorations or equipment thereof, or any notice advertisement, number plate, number figure or letter therein or thereupon, or remove any such article or thing therefrom or deface or damage any property (whether real or personal) belonging to the Company, or upon the Railway. Any person offending against this Bye-Law and regulation shall be liable to the Company for the amount of damage done, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

21. Except by permission of an officer of the Company, duly authorised in that behalf, no person while in or upon the Railway or in any carriage or vehicle thereon shall hawk, sell or expose or offer for sale any article or goods whatsoever or tout, apply for, or solicit, alms, reward or custom or employment of any description. Any person offending against this Bye-Law after having been once warned by any servant or agent of the Company to desist may be removed from such carriage or vehicle or from the Railway by or under the direction of any servant or agent of the Company, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

22. (a) No person shall enter or remain in or upon or use the Railway or any carriage or vehicle thereon for the purpose of bookmaking or betting or wagering or agreeing to bet or wager or paying or receiving or settling bets with any other person.

(b) No person playing for money or moneys worth at any game or pretended game of chance or skill in or upon the Railway or any carriage or vehicle thereon shall continue to do so after having been requested by any servant or agent of the Company to desist therefrom.

(c) No person shall loiter or remain in or upon the Railway or any carriage or vehicle thereon after having been requested by a servant or agent of the Company to depart unless such person is lawfully entitled so to remain.

(d) Any person offending against this Bye-law may be removed from the Railway or from such carriage or vehicle by or under the direction of any servant or agent of the Company, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

23. No person shall throw or drop from any carriage or vehicle on the Railway a bottle of any kind, or any article or thing whatsoever capable of injuring, damaging or endangering any person or property.

24. No driver, conductor, or person in charge of any omnibus, motor car, cab, carriage, wagon, bicycle or other vehicle or of any animal in or upon the Railway shall

(a) leave or place any such vehicle or animal in or upon the Railway:—

(i) Unattended; or

(ii) For a period longer than necessary for such person to transact any lawful business upon the Railway; or

(iii) In any manner or place so as to cause an obstruction or hindrance to the Company or to persons using the Railway; or

(iv) Otherwise than in accordance with any reasonable direction of any servant or agent of the Company; or

(b) conduct himself in a disorderly manner.

Any vehicle or animal so left or placed in breach of this Bye-law may be removed from the Railway by or under the direction of any servant or agent of the Company; and any person offending against this Bye-law after having been once warned by any servant or agent of the Company may be removed from the Railway by or under the direction of any servant or agent of the Company, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

25. No person shall spit upon the floor or upon any part of any carriage or vehicle upon the Railway, or upon the platform at any Station of the Company, or upon the floor, side or wall or any hall, office, waiting room, refreshment room, public room, or public passage at any Station of the Company. Any person continuing so to spit after having been requested to desist by any servant or agent of the Company, may be removed from such carriage or vehicle or from the Railway by or under the direction of any such servant or agent, without prejudice to any penalty incurred by the infraction of this Bye-Law.

LONDON COUNTY COUNCIL.

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT, 1944.

NOTICE is hereby given that the London County Council in pursuance of its powers under Section 1 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1944, on the 29th day of June, 1948, has applied to the Minister of Town and Country Planning for an Order under the said Section declaring that the lands situate in the Metropolitan Borough of Bermondsey, and described in the Schedule hereto, which lands are shown on the maps accompanying the application, shall be subject to compulsory purchase for dealing with war damage and that the application is about to be considered by the Minister.

A copy of the application and of the maps referred to and of the descriptive matter annexed thereto and of the other documents relating to the application have been deposited at Room 500A, The County Hall, Westminster Bridge, S.E.1, and will be open for inspection by all persons interested without payment of fee between the hours of 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays and 10 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturdays.

Any objection to the application must be made in writing stating the grounds of the objection and addressed to the Minister of Town and Country Planning, 32, St. James's Square, London, S.W.1, before the 13th day of December, 1948.

The Minister is not, in all cases, required to arrange for objections to be heard by a person appointed by him for that purpose. It is important, therefore, that an objection should include a full statement in writing of the grounds on which the objection is made as the objector may have no further opportunity to make such a statement. (2172)
